On this the 4th day of October, 1948, the above entitled action came on for trial before the Court, plaintiff being present in person and by his attorney Frank D. Ryan; that the defendant failed to appear in person or otherwise, and is in default, and an affidavit of non-military service having been furnished showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or otherwise, on motion of attorney for plaintiff, the default of said defendant is thereupon duly and regularly entered; Thereupon, the plaintiff introduced his evidence, and the Court finds therefrom that all the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by evidence free from any exceptions as to its materiality or admissibility, and that the parties hereto did, during the month of April, 1948, enter into a property settlement between them pursuant to which all the household furniture and equipment of the parties is the sole and separate property of defendant and that the automobile and photographic equipment is the sole and separate property of plaintiff, and each of the parties may dispose of the property so owned by them and settled by said agreement without any claim or demand upon the other. It is further found that such settlement is in lieu of all alimony, suit and support money and claims of defendant against said plaintiff, and that each of the parties has discharged and released the other from any and all obligations of support or maintenance and that all property hereafter acquired by either of the parties shall be and become the sole and separate property of the person acquiring it.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff be and he is hereby divorced from said defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between the parties hereto is hereby dissolved, and the parties and each of them is hereby enjoined and restrained from inheriting from or through the other, and from setting up or claiming any interest in the property or earnings one of the other, and that each of the parties shall be entitled to receive and own as his or her sole and separate property, the property as hereinbefore found that each is entitled to under said property settlement agreement which has been introduced in evidence.

DATED This 4th day of October, 1948.

This cause came on regularly for trial in the Courtroom of the above entitled Court in Weiser, Washington County, Idaho, on this, the _____day of October, 1948.

Plaintiff was present in person and by her attorney of record, Frank H. Joseph; Defendant was present by his attorney, Frank D. Ryan.

Thereupon the trial of said cause is had. Witnesses are sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff. No evidence is introduced on behalf of the defendant. The taking of evidence is closed and the cause submitted to the Court for decision.

After due deliberation thereon by the Court the Court finds that the allegations of said complaint are true and that the plaintiff, Wilma I. Barnett, is entitled to an absolute divorce from the defendant, Ira P. Barnett; that the plaintiff is entitled to have full and complete custody and control of said minor children, Sherry Lynn Barnett, born September 23, 1945, and Elaine Kaye Barnett, born March 17, 1947; that the plaintiff is entitled to all right, title and interest that the parties hereto have in and to the said real property described in said complaint as follows, to-wit:

Lots Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8) and Nine (9) of Block Sixty-four (64) of the original Town of New Meadows, Adams County, Idaho.

That the plaintiff is entitled to all right, title and interest that the parties hereto have in and to the household furnishings, utensils and equipment now in possession of plaintiff or on the property of the said parties.

WHEREFORE, By reason of the law and the findings, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the plaintiff, Wilma I. Barnett, be and she hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Ira P. Barnett.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff, Wilma I. Barnett, be and she hereby is granted full and complete custody and control of the said minor children, Sherry Lynn Barnett, born September 23, 1945, and Elaine Kaye Barnett, born March 17, 1947, subject to the defendant's right to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff, Wilma I. Barnett, be and she hereby is granted complete and absolute ownership of all the right, title and interest that the parties hereto have in and to the following described real estate, to-wit:

Lots Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8) and Nine (9) of Block Sixty-four (64) of the original Town of New Meadows, Adams County, Idaho.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the plaintiff, Wilma I. Barnett, be and she hereby is granted complete and absolute ownership of all the right, title and interest that the parties hereto have in and to the household furnishings, utensils and equipment now in her possession and on the property of the said parties.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the decree to plaintiff of the above described real estate and personal property is in lieu of all claims of the plaintiff now or hereafter for all claims of alimony or support money for herself or said minor children or either thereof.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard on the 1st day of November, 1948, before the court without a jury and the plaintiff appearing in person and C. Stanley Skiles, attorney for the plaintiff, appearing for the said plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly served with process, and the time for answering, demurring or appearing having expired, the default of said defendant, Sanford Raymond Clement, for failure to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law and by the order of this court having been heretofore duly entered herein;

WHEREUPON Evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff whereby it appears to the court that the allegations of the plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed in said complaint, and the said cause having been submitted to the court for its consideration and decision and the case being closed and the law in the premises being fully understood by the court, the court at this time makes and renders its final judgment and decree.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, forever dissolved;

2. That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the community property consisting of household furnishings and household equipment;

3. That the custody and control of Sandra Marie Clement and Parley Arthur Clement, the minor children, the issue of the marriage between plaintiff and defendant, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Aletha Marie Clement;

4. That the defendant, Sanford Raymond Clement, pay to plaintiff the sum of $30.00 per month hereafter for the care, education, support and maintenance of the minor child, Sandra Marie Clement, said sum to be paid to plaintiff monthly until said child reaches the age of eighteen years, or until the death or marriage of said minor child;

5. That the defendant, Sanford Raymond Clement, pay to plaintiff the sum of $30.00 per month hereafter for the care, education, support and maintenance of the minor child, Parley Arthur Clement, said sum to be paid to plaintiff monthly until said child reaches the age of eighteen years, or until the death or marriage of said minor child.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be tried before the court on the 4th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, W. , Bowler, and the defendant appearing by his guardian ad litem and attorney, Grant R. Ambrose; and the said cause was thereupon tried upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant and the court having heard the testimony and being fully advised in the premises and the findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the parties; and the court upon consideration of the testimony finds upon each of the causesof action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and finds that the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are sustained by the evidence and the matters as alleged and proved by the plaintiff are sufficient to entitled her to relief as herein provided, and particularly that the plaintiff is, and was for a period of six full weeks prior to the commencement of this action a resident of the State of Idaho;

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby, dissolved upon the grounds of defendant's conviction of a felony, wilful negligence and extreme cruelty of said plaintiff, and that the parties are, and each of them is, free from the bonds of matrimony and the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be awarded the custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, to-wit; Micheal Wayne Graber, subject to defendant's right of visitation at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor child the sum of $35.00 per month during his minority payable on the first day of each and every month hereafter.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

This cause came on to be heard in open Court on the 5th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Creed W. Mullins, her attorney, and the defendant appearing not;

The Court having examined the records and files in this cause and it appearing therefrom that a complaint was duly and regularly filed on the 13th day of September, 1948, that more than twenty days have elapsed since said service, and the said defendant has failed to answer or otherwise appear herein;

And it appearing further from the affidavit of plaintiff on file herein that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States;

WHEREFORE: Upon motion of Creed W. Mullins, attorney for plaintiff, for a default, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered;

After the entry of the default of the defendant, witnesses were sworn and the plaintiff offered proof in the support of the allegations of her complaint, after which the Court being fully advised in the premises, decided that the plaintiff was entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

NOW THEREFORE: IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does Order, Adjudge and Decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved and the parties hereto

released therefrom.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does Order, Adjudge and Decree, that the property settlement heretofore entered into by and between the said parties be, and the same is hereby approved and confirmed.

This cause came on regularly for trial in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada on the 5th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Glenn A. Coughlan, and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant, and the defendant not appearing in person; whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf and documentary evidence having been introduced on behalf of said plaintiff, being a post-nuptial agreement made and entered into between Adolph Kapicka and Myra Kapicka, on the 16th day of February, 1948, whereby a complete disposition of all the property of the parties was made; and Mabel Koch being duly sworn, testified and corroborated plaintiff's testimony with regard to her residence in the State of Idaho and thereupon the plaintiff rested; and the defendant having submitted no proof whatever for and in his behalf, the case was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, upon the testimony submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant was duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Complaint and Summons filed herein; that the defendant did not appear and plead thereto in the time allowed him by law and that default judgment was duly and regularly entered against him, after his time to appear and plead had expired; that the defendant was not in the Military Service or Armed Forces of the United States of America at any of the above mentioned times; that this court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the person of the above named plaintiff and of the person of the above named defendant; that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards this plaintiff and has further been guilty of habitual intoxication and for said reasons the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in her Complaint on file herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Myra Kapicka and the defendant, Adolph Kapicka, be and the same is hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught; that the plaintiff and defendant and each of them be and they hereby are restored to the status of a single person; and that plaintiff is hereby granted the care, custody and control of the minor child, A. J. JUDGMENT AND DECREE

The above matter came on regularly for hearing before the above Court sitting in regular session at Boise, Idaho, this 5th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Messrs. Moffatt, Young & Doane, and the defendant appearing by his attorney, Raymond D. Givens. It appeared further that the defendant had been duly and regularly and personally served with summons and complaint, and had filed his answer herein.

Whereupon, the attorneys for plaintiff and the attorney for defendant announced in open court that they were ready for trial and the cause proceeded to trial, and evidence duly corroborated was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, whereupon both parties rested. The Court being now fully informed in the premises finds that all of the allegations of the complaint are true, that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been, a resident of the State of Idaho, and further that plaintiff is entitled to all the relief prayed for in her complaint. (The making of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law have been heretofore waived by the parties hereto by consent in writing filed with the Clerk of the above Court.)

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, And this does order, adjudge and decree:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby absolutely dissolved, and the parties are, and each of them is, forever freed and released therefrom.

AND, Upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Carl F. McShane, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the defendant having failed to appear and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and it appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the plaintiff that said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the defendant, Carl F. McShane, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff, Mamie E. McShane, and in support of her said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of the said testimony, the court finds upon the causes of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of the said plaintiff and against the said defendant, and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance and of wilful neglect of and towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint, and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant.

The court further finds that the plaintiff is otherwise known as Mamie E. Kohlasch, and that the defendant is also otherwise known as Carl F. Kohlasch.

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of, and has continuously resided in, the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of the above entitled action.

The court further finds that there are as the issue of said marriage six minor children, and that such children who are not in the military service of the United States are now in the care, custody and control of said plaintiff, and that the names and ages of such children are as follows:

Theo Paul Kohlasch, a son, born June 7, 1928,
Francis L. Kohlasch, a son, born June 28, 1929,
Melvin Eugene McShane, a son, born April 17, 1931,
Fern L. McShane, a daughter, born June 19, 1932,
Don B. X. McShane, a son, born June 17, 1937, Million L. McShane, a son, born August 8, 1941.

The court further finds that plaintiff is the fit and proper person to have and be awarded the care, custody and control of the said minor children.

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have no community property.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, By this court, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, divorced from the said defendant, Carl E. McShane, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, permitted to continue to use the name Mamie E. McShane.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the exclusive care, custody and control of the said minor children, Theo Paul Kohlasch, Francis L. Kohlasch, Melvin Eugene McShane, Fern L. McShane, Don B. X. McShane and Million L. McShane, and that said defendant shall have reasonable rights of visitation at all reasonable times.

NOV 12 1948

This cause came on to be heard in open Court on the 12th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Creed W. Mullins, her attorney, and the defendant appearing not;

The Court having examined the records and files in this cause and it appearing therefrom that a complaint was duly and regularly filed in the above entitled Court on the 8th day of September, 1948, that a summons was thereupon issued and that the Sheriff made his return thereon and that personal service could not be had upon the defendant for the reason that defendant could not be found in Ada County, that after an affidavit was filed showing that the defendant was not a resident of the State, Another Summons was issued, which said another summons was duly and regularly served on the defendant on the 15th day of October, 1948;

And it appearing further from the affidavit of plaintiff on file herein that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States;

WHEREFORE; Upon motion of Creed W. Mullins, attorney for plaintiff, for a default, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered;

After the entry of the default of the defendant, witnesses were sworn, and the plaintiff offered proof in the support of the allegations of her complaint, after which the Court being fully advised in the premises, decided that the plaintiff was entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

NOW THEREFORE: IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does Order, Adjudge and Decree, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved, and the parties hereto released therefrom.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does Order, Adjudge and Decree, that the plaintiff be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit:

Carol Summers, age 10 years

Lloyd Summers, age 7 years

Judy Summers, age 6 years

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant may be permitted to visit the said children at all reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant may, during the summer months when said children are not in school, have their care and custody.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

THIS CAUSE Coming on regularly to be heard on the 12th day of November, 1948, before the Court without a jury, plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by David Doane, her counsel, and the defendant having failed to appear, in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that Summons in the above entitled cause has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process on said defendant had, and that the time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the default of Jess Warren Black, the defendant, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law has heretofore been duly entered herein;

Whereupon, evidence, duly corroborated as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, in which it appears to the Court that the allegations of plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by the testimony, free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to judgment and decree in accordance with the complaint; and the case being closed, and the law in the premises being duly understood by the Court, the Court makes and enters this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant are forever dissolved.

2. THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on regularly for hearing before the court at Boise, Idaho, November 12, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, the defendant neither appearing in person nor otherwise at all. It appearing to the court that due and legal service of process has been had and made in Ada County, Idaho, by personal service upon the defendant, for the time and in the mannerprovided by law, that the time for appearance has expired without any appearance by or on behalf of the defendant; that he is not in military service of any kind, and that order establishing that the cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein has been entered, and that the default of the defendant in the premises has been regularly entered,

NOW, ON MOTION OF PLAINTIFF, the court proceeds to reception of testimony on behalf of the plaintiff, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to divorce and to restoration of her former name.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED BY THE COURT: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are absolutely dissolved, and the parties are divorced hereby, and the plaintiff is retored to her former name of Sedivec.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court on the 19th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And upon said hearing it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Ernest Claiborne, otherwise known as Jack Claiborne, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant has failed to answer, file a demurrer, or otherwise plead to the said complaint, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, Ernest Claiborne, otherwise known as Jack Claiborne, having been duly entered according to law; and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of said testimony, the Court finds: That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty for more than one year last past, and that as a result thereof plaintiff is entitled to live separate and apart from the said defendant;

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six (6) weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

The Court further finds that there have been born as the issue of said marriage between plaintiff and defendant three (3) minor children and that the names and ages of the said minor children are as follows:

Delbert Claiborne, a boy, age sixteen;
Margene Claiborne, a girl, age fifteen;
Kyle Claiborne, a boy, age eleven.

and that the said plaintiff is the fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor children.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have acquired and do now own the following community property:

REAL PROPERTY

Beginning at the section corner common to Sections Nos. 7, 8, 17, and 18 T. 3 N., Range 2 East, Boise Meridian; thence South 406.1 feet to an iron pin at the intersection of Curtis Road and Franklin Avenue; thence South 85° 17' East along the center line of Franklin Avenue 544.3 feet; thence South 0° 22' West 25 feet to the real point of beginning; thence continuing South 0° 22' West 140 feet; thence South 85° 17' East 70 feet; thence North 0° 22' East 140 feet; thence North 85° 17' West 70 feet to the real place of beginning.

DECREE

No. 21755

This cause coming on to be heard on this 19th day of November, 1948, before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, it appearing that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons within the State of Idaho, and, it also appearing that the defendant is not a person in Military Service as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, or any Amendments or Supplements thereto cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or any other Act of Congress or of the State Legislature of the State of Idaho, duly adopted and approved; and, it further appearing that the defendant has made no appearance by demurrer, answer or otherwise, within the time allowed by law; whereupon, default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered in the premises, witnesses on the part of the plaintiff having been duly sworn and examined, and the court being fully advised in the premises, ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff;

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises aforesaid, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND NOW DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony hitherto existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, cancelled, annulled and held for naught, as fully and completely as if the same had never been on the grounds of extreme cruelty, as alleged and set forth in the complaint herein, and that each of the parties hereto, after the entry of this decree, be, and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

DECREE OF DIVORCE NOV 26 1948

OTTO F. PETERSON, Clerk
BY IRMA HILL

THE ABOVE ENTITLED CAUSE came on regularly to be heard and tried before the above entitled court at Boise, Ada County, Idaho, on the 26th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Mary E. Edwards, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

AND, Upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, George Moore, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law, and the said defendant having entered his general appearance and having refused to plead further and authorized entry of default against him for his failure and refusal to plead further, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to the complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other plea having been filed; and the default of the defendant, George Moore, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff, Marjorie

Reeder Moore, and in support of her said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of the said testimony, the court finds upon the cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant, and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That the said plaintiff, for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has continuously resided in, and does now reside in, the State of Idaho; and finds that there was born as the issue of said marriage a son, born October 27, 1948, the child of plaintiff and defendant, and that, as appears from the proof adduced and from the acknowledgement of service, appearance, and authorization of default of the defendant on file herein, said minor child has been duly and legally adopted by mutual consent of the plaintiff and defendant.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS That the plaintiff and defendant have no community property; and finds that the maiden name of the plaintiff was Marjorie Reeder.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, divorced from the said defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the maiden name of the plaintiff, to wit: Marjorie Reeder, be, and the same hereby is, restored to plaintiff.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED ACTION came on egularly for hearing before the court on November 26, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney Ariel L. Crowley, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor otherwise at all.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that due and lawful service of process has been had and made upon the defendant John Allen Duskey in person for the time and in the manner provided by law; that the said defendant has made no appearance herein within the time allowed by law; that he is in no military service whatever and that order establishing that no cause of military service exists precluding entry of default herein has been duly entered; and that the default of the defendant John Allen Duskey has been heretofore duly entered herein,

NOW THEREFORE, upon motion of the plaintiff, the court proceeds to receiption of testimony on behalf of plaintiff, and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff upon the complaint, and against the defendant, and finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce and to restoration of her maiden name.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, adjudged and decreed by the court:

1. That the plaintiff Opal Duskey and the defendant John Allen Duskey be, and they are hereby absolutely divorced and restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the plaintiff Opal Duskey be, and she is restored to her maiden name of Opal Coffland.

DECREE.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable [redacted], Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 5 day of November, 1948; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her Attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant, THOMAS J. CLARK has heretofore, to-wit: On the 6th day of November, 1947, been regularly served with process and that thereafter on the 13th day of October, 1948, the said defendant was regularly served with a Supplemental Complaint and that he has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's Complaint and has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's Supplemental Complaint filed herein or otherwise plead thereto, and the full legal time for so doing having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed or served, the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the Complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, Attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, SARAH E. CLARK, and the defendant, THOMAS J. CLARK, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff or to her Attorney, Carl C.

Christensen, the sum of _____ Dollars ($ 75.00) Attorney's fees for the services rendered by plaintiff's counsel in this action, and that the defendant shall pay all of plaintiff's costs of Court in the sum of Seventeen and 90/100 ($17.90).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff's name be and hereby is changed to that of Sarah E. Pease, that being her name prior to her marriage to the defendant now dissolved by this Decree.

JAMES LAWRENCE, Plaintiff,

vs.

ELAINE LAWRENCE, Defendant.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 4th day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED That defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor child, alimony, support of the minor child, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That plaintiff be and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the custody of the minor child, James Clair Lawrence, shall be granted to defendant for nine months in each year and to the plaintiff for the three summer months each year, provided further that when the child is in the custody of one of the parties, the other party has the right to visit said child at all reasonable times.

3. That while said child is in the custody of said defendant, plaintiff shall pay defendant for the support and maintenance of said child the sum of $40.00 per month, the first payment to have been made October 15, 1948, and the next payment to be paid November 15, 1948, and a like sum to be paid on the 15th of each and every month thereafter until said child reaches majority or until further order of the Court.

4. That there is hereby awarded to defendant as her sole and separate property, to-wit:

   one table, four chairs, the electric washing machine, high chair, organ, and her clothes

5. That there is hereby awarded to plaintiff as his sole and separate property, to-wit:

   Remainder of furniture in their home at Bancroft, or near Bancroft, Idaho, and ~~the Model A Pick-up Truck~~.

NOV 6 1948 12 44 PM

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Hon. L. E. Glennon, District Judge, at Pocatello, Idaho, this 1st day of November, 1948.

Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorneys Black & Black and Jones, Pomeroy & Jones and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant and it appearing to the court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and thereafter filed a demurrer by and through her attorney, Carl C. Christensen, Pocatello, Idaho.

It further appearing that defendant through her attorney withdrew said demurrer and refused to plead or answer further in said matter and waived additional time within which to plead further and consented that default be entered against her and to an immediate hearing of said cause without further notice and expressly waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law.

It appearing to the court that subsequent to the filing of said complaint plaintiff and defendant, on the 26th day of October, 1948, entered into a property settlement and agreement in respect to the settlement of all their property rights of every kind and character, which property settlement and agreement was entered into between plaintiff and defendant and approved by their attorneys and the court having examined the same finds the agreement to be fair and equitable and approves the same.

Evidence was offered and received for and on behalf of plaintiff in support of the allegations of the complaint from which it appears that each and every allegation of said complaint is true and such are found to be the fact.

NOW, THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by the court fully understood and considered;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED,

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant

George E. Gibby and Mabel H. Gibby, respectively, be and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the property settlement agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant admitted in evidence as Plaintiff's "Exhibit 1", is hereby confirmed and approved and by reference made a part of this decree as fully and completely as if the same were set out herein at length; (3) that plaintiff pay to defendant the sum of $500 forthwith and pay to the attorney for defendant the sum of $150 attorney fees.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all of the personal property now in the possession of plaintiff be and the same is hereby awarded to plaintiff as his sole and separate property and in no wise community and that any property of every kind and character acquired by plaintiff since the date of the property settlement agreement be and the same is hereby awarded to him as his sole and separate property and in no wise community.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant has no interest in and to any of the insurance business of plaintiff but that the same is his sole and separate property and in no wise community.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that life insurance policies upon the life of defendant issued by the Beneficial Life Insurance Company of Salt Lake City, Utah, numbered 209076 and 270693 be and they are hereby awarded to defendant as her sole and separate property and that plaintiff has no interest in the same whatsoever; and that plaintiff is ordered to sign any and all disclaimers of his interest in and to said policies that may be required by said insurance company.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff is hereby released from paying defendant any alimony, support, maintenance or otherwise.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff and defendant are hereby released and absolved from any and all obligations and liability for the future acts and duties of the other.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all property acquired by either plaintiff or defendant from and after the 26th day of October, 1946 shall be the sole and separate property of the one so acquiring the same and that neither plaintiff nor defendant shall claim any interest or have any right, or title, in and to any of the future acquisitions and income, together with rents, issues and profits therefrom, but that the same shall be the sole and separate property of the plaintiff or defendant so acquiring the same.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the real estate standing in the name of the defendant located in Palo Alto, California, is hereby awarded to defendant as her sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant's former name, to wit: Mabel Hickman be and the same is hereby restored to her.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 9th day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, on the 9th day of November, 1948.

Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Jones, Pomeroy & Jones, and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant and it appearing to the court that the defendant has accepted service of summons and complaint herein and has refused to demur, answer or plead to said complaint and has waived additional time within which to plead further and consented that default be entered against him and to an immediate hearing of said cause, without further notice, and expressly waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law;

UPON MOTION of the attorneys for plaintiff, default was entered against defendant. Evidence was offered and received for and in support of the complaint of plaintiff and no evidence was offered for and on behalf of defendant. Evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the court for consideration and decision and after due deliberation thereon the court ordered that judgment be entered in favor of plaintiff and against defendant in accordance with the prayer of said complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the law and the evidence being by this court fully understood and considered;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, (1) that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff BETTY Y. LEPPELL and defendant ROBERT E. LEPPELL be and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved and each of the parties restored to the status of a single person; (2) that the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties herein, namely Robert Lewis Leppell, of the age of 10 months, be and he is hereby awarded to plaintiff herein; (3) that the community property located in the home of the parties be and it is hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property and in nowise community; (4) that defendant be required to pay to plaintiff herein the sum of $80 per month for the support and maintenance of herself and minor child; and (5) that defendant be required to pay to plaintiff herein the sum of $100 for attorney fees and such court costs as are incurred in said action.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable L. B. Thomas, Judge of the above entitled Court sitting at Chambers at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, this 12th day of November, 1948; the said plaintiff appearing in person and by her Attorney, Carl C. Christensen, and the said defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel,

AND It appearing to the Court that the said defendant has heretofore, to-wit: On the 30th day of April, 1948, been regularly served with process and has failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein or otherwise plead thereto, and the full legal time for so doing having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed or served, the default of said defendant in the premises having been duly entered according to law,

WHEREUPON, Said plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and examined and evidence introduced from which it appears that all the material allegations contained in the complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections as to its competency, admissibility or sufficiency, and that the said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint and the Court being fully advised,

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Carl C. Christensen, Attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, FRANCES HANSEN, and the defendant, DONALD HANSEN, be and the same hereby are absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naguht, and the parties be and hereby are divorced and freed from all the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons.

The Court finds that since this action was filed, there was born a child to the parties to this action, namely a boy named Richard Craig Hansen; that said child was born on the 11th day of June, 1948, and that said child is the issue of the marriage between Donald Hansen, the defendant, and Frances Hansen, the plaintiff, and that said child is now in the custody of the plaintiff and has been in her custody since the time said child was born, and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, FRANCES HANSEN be and she hereby is awarded the permanent care, custody and control of Mary Allyn Hansen, a girl, and Richard Craig Hansen, a boy, the minor children of the parties to this action with leave to the defendant to see and visit said minor children at all proper times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, DONALD HANSEN shall pay to the plaintiff, FRANCES HANSEN the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) per month for the permanent care, support and education of the two minor children of the parties, and that said sum shall be paid in installments of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) each; that the first installment of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) shall be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff on or before the first day of December, 1948, and a like sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) shall be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff on or before the 15th day of December, 1948, and that payments shall be made thereafter regularly by the defendant to the plaintiff in the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) each on the first and the 15th days of each calendar month thereafter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, FRANCES HANSEN be and she hereby is awarded all of the community household goods and furniture now in her possession or under her control at the date of this Decree as her sole and separate property, free and clear from any and all claims of the defendant, DONALD HANSEN therein or thereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, DONALD HANSEN shall pay to the plaintiff, FRANCES HANSEN the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) Attorney's fees for the services rendered by the plaintiff's counsel to her in this action, and the Court finds that the defendant has failed to pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) temporaty Attorney's fees as required in the order made and entered in this Court and dated the 10th day of May, 1948, and that the Attorney's fees herein fixed are in lieu of and not in addition to those provided for in said order, and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant shall pay all of plaintiff's costs of Court in the sum of Eighteen Dollars and Forty Cents ($18.40).

Defendant. )

NOV 15 1948 5 10 PM

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 15th day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure. And it further appearing that the plaintiff and defendant have entered into a Stipulation which has been filed in this cause, and which has been offered and admitted in evidence, and the terms of which are satisfactory and fair, and the Court so finds and approves said Stipulation.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to an absolute divorce. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $2500.00 on or before January 1st, 1949. which is in full settlement of all of plaintiff's right, title and interest in and to any property, either real or personal, owned or accumulated by the plaintiff and the defendant that is now in the possession of the defendant, consisting of both real and personal property, and said sum shall be paid by the defendant to the plaintiff in lieu of all alimony, attorneys fees, support money, and all rights whatever of the plaintiff against the defendant. And Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the sum of $2500.00, the same to be paid on or before January 1st, 1949.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1948.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 23rd day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof, upo n the defendant, but that said defendant failed, within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct, and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor children, alimony, and support of the minor children, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by both parties in said Stipulation, and by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the care, custody and control of the three minor children of the parties, namely, William E. Jenkins, now aged 9 years, Lyle C. Jenkins, now aged 7½ years, and Lynn A. Jenkins, now aged 7½ years, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places, and subject further to the restriction that the plaintiff shall not and is required not to take said children outside of the State of Idaho without the written consent of the defendant, and that the plaintiff has no right to consent to the adoption of said children by any other person whatsoever without the consent of the defendant, and that in the event of the death of the plaintiff during the minority of said children, or in the event that the plaintiff shall become incapacitated or unfit or unable to care for said children, that the custody of said children is to be given to the defendant, it being expressly understood that both parties are fit and proper persons to have the custody, care and control of said children.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $150.00 per month for the support of the said three minor children, said amount to be paid in two payments of $75.00 each, the first payment to be made on the 1st of December, 1948, and the next payment on the 15th of December, 1948, and like payments to be made on the 1st and 15th of each and every month thereafter, until said children reach majority, or until further order of the Court.

4. That the defendant is hereby required to make the payments of $50.00 per month on the hereinafter described real property for a period of 7 months, for and on behalf of the plaintiff, said payments to be in addition to the above-mentioned sum for the support of said minor children, said payment to be made in two payments of $25.00 each, the first payment to be made on the 1st of December, 1948, and the next on the 15th of December, 1948, and similar payments to be made on the 1st and 15th of each and every month thereafter to and including June 1, 1949 and June 15, 1949.

4. That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, the following property, to-wit:

REAL PROPERTY:

Commencing at the Easterly corner of Lot 10 in Block 134 of Pocatello Townsite in Idaho; run thence in a Southwesterly direction along the dividing line between Carter Street and said Lot 10 a distance of 70 feet more or less to a point 70 feet distance from the southerly corner of said Lot 10; run thence at right angles in a Northwesterly direction across Lots 10 and 9 a distance of 60 feet more or less to the dividing line between Lots 9 and 8 in said Block; run thence in a Northeasterly direction along said dividing line a distance of 70 feet more or less to the Northerly corner of said Lot 9; run thence in a Southeasterly direction along the dividing line between 11th Avenue and Lots 9 and 10, a distance of 60 feet more or less to place of commencing, and being the Northeasterly half of said Lots 9 and 10; also a right-of-way or easement for a sewer line along the Southeasterly side of Lot 8 in Block 134 of the Pocatello Townsite from above-described property to the alley in said Block and the right of ingress and egress for the purpose of maingaining said latteral sewer line and connections.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:

Household goods and furniture consisting of the following: Hotpoint electric range, G.E. Electric refrigerator, Maytag washer, 1 four-piece bedroom set, 3 bunk beds, living room suite, dining room suite, radio, vacuum, sewing machine, one 11x15 rug, electric iron, 1 steam iron, 1 Mixmaster, 1 floor lamp , dishes, silverware, bedding, linens, cooking utensils, pressure cooker, 1 large mirror, pictures, curtains, drapes, and electric hot water heater.

Insurance Policy with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company - value $1000 - Melba J. Campbell Jenkins, Policy No. 10092092.

5. That the foregoing awards of property and the payments required to be made by thedefendant to the plaintiff, are in full settlement and satisfaction of all claims of the plaintiff against the defendant, and are in lieu of all claims of the plaintiff against the defendant for any and all property rights, alimony, support money, attorneys fees and Court costs.

6. There is hereby awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property, the following property, to-wit:

One Life insurance policy with Bankers Life Company - Value $2500, William T. Jenkins - Policy No. 1129651.

7. The defendant is hereby required to pay the premiums on the children's insurance policies, hereinafter more particularly described, for as long as he is able to do so, said policies are described as follows, to-wit:

Bankers Life Company - $1000 - William E. Jenkins - No. 1232761
Western Life Ins. Co.- $1500 - Lynn Allan Jenkins - No. 108886

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this 29th day of November, 1948, before the Honorable L. B. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor by counsel, and it appearing that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in this action, according to law, and that the defendant failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein;

Whereupon evidence was offerred and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his complaint, from which it appears that the allegations of said complaint are true, and said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle him to the relief prayed for in his complaint;

Now, on the motion of P. A. Mc Dermott, Attorney for plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the parties freed from all obligations thereof:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the plaintiff shall receive and he is hereby awarded as his sole and separated property, the following described real property:

Commencing at the Northeasterly corner of Lot 20, Block 499, Pocatello Townsite, Bannock County, State of Idaho, and running thence in a Southwesterly direction along the line between West Whitman Street and said Lot 20, 46 2/3 feet; thence at right angles in a Southeasterly direction parallel with South Hayes Avenue, a distance of 90 feet to the dividing line between Lots 17 and 18 of said Block, thence at right angles in a Northeasterly direction along said dividing line 46 2/3 feet to the alley line; thence at right angles in a Northwesterly direction along the line between said alley and Lots 18, 19 and 20 of said block, a distance of 90 feet to the place of commencing same being a rectangular piece of ground having a frontage of 46 2/3 feet on West Whitman Street and extending back 90 feet across said Lots 20, 19 and 18 and containing 4200 square feet, according to the official plat of the survey of the said lands returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 30th day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections; that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the three minor children, namely, Jay Ronald Priest, now aged 11 years, William Jess Priest, now aged 9 years, and Randall Earl Priest, now aged 5 years, be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff, the sum of $100.00 per month, for the support, maintenance and education of the three minor children, the first payment to be made on December 1, 1948, and a like payment to be made on the 1st of each and every month thereafter, until said children reach the age of majority, or until further order of the Court.

4. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff or to her attorneys, Black & Black, of Pocatello, Idaho, the sum of $150.00 attorneys fees for the prosecution of this action, and the further sum of $20.00 costs incurred in this action, said payments to be made forthwith.

5. That the following-described community property is hereby awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and the defendant has no further right, title or interest in or to the same, said property being more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

One 1937 Ford 4-door Sedan. Motor # 4,155,015

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the court, sitting without a jury at St. Maries, Idaho, on the 9th day of November, 1948, at ten o'clock A. M. The plaintiff appeared in person and represented by her attorney, Wm. D. Keeton, and the defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly and duly served with summons and complaint in this cause on the 9th day of October, 1948, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law or at all, and the defendant being in default, and his default having been entered, the court proceeded to hear the case. Whereupon, testimony was submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and oral and documuntary evidence received, and it further appearing to the court that the defendant is not in the military services of the United States in any capacity whatsoever, and the Court having made and filed his Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law;

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises and by reason of the Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of the action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Eve V. Wallin, and the defendant, William C. Wallin, be and the same hereby are forever dissolved, and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations, and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the household furniture and fixtures and clothing, and ornaments of the person of the plaintiff, and wearing apparel and all interest in a lease to the Club Cafe, St. Maries, Idaho, and furniture, fixtures and equipment belonging to the parties located therein and used in the business, are hereby awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, subject to her sole and separate use and the defendant is decreed to have no interest therein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff's former name, that of Eve B. Boyanchek, be and the same hereby is restored to her.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause, coming on regularly to be heard on the 5th day of November, 1948, before the Court without a jury, Paris Martin, counsel for the plaintiff, appearing for said plaintiff, and defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process upon said defendant had, and that time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the defendant is not within the purview of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and that the default of Dean Rule, the defendant, for failing to answer or demur within the time prescribed by law has heretofore been duly entered herein;

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated as required by law, was introduced by plaintiff in which it appears to the Court that the allegations of the plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by the testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissability and sufficiency, and it further appearing that the matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to judgment and decree in accordance with the complaint, and on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the case being closed, and the law in the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Jennie Rule, and the defendant, Dean Rule, be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

2. That plaintiff's name be, and hereby is changed to Jennie Larsen, which name was her maiden name, and by which name she was known and called prior to entering into the marriage hereby dissolved.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This case came on regularly, this 9th day of October, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant, said plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Robt. E. McFarland, and defendant appearing in person and without an attorney and acting as his own attorney. Witnesses were sworn the testified and documentary evidence introduced on behalf of both plaintiff and defendant, and the Court, having taken said matter under advisement, and having entered his Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED,

I

That the bonds of matrimony, now existing, between the plaintiff, Lucille Thurman, and the defendant, Roland Thurman, be forever dissolved, and that said plaintiff is, hereby, granted an absolute divorce from said defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

II

That plaintiff is, hereby, granted the care, custody, and control of the children of said parties, to-wit: Lee Allen Thurman aged four years, and Betty Elaine Thurman aged two-and-a-half years, but that said defendant shall have the right to have said children visit him from 1:00 o'clock p.m. to 5:00 o'clock p.m., on Saturday and Sunday, provided that said defendant pay the support money to said plaintiff, as hereinafter set forth, and that said defendant shall not interfere with plaintiff, or her family, or said children, at any other time.

III

That the community real estate, belonging to said parties, to-wit:

Lot Nine (9), Block "D", Law's Third Addition to Sandpoint, Idaho, be sold, immediately, and that out of the proceeds, said defendant shall pay to said plaintiff the sum of Three Hundred Eighty ($380) Dollars; that said defendant shall pay said plaintiff the sum of Sixty ($60) Dollars for the support of said children on the 1st day of December, 1948, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter; that he shall pay Robt. E. McFarland, attorney for plaintiff, the sum of Seventy-five ($75) Dollars attorney's fees; that said plaintiff shall retain what community personal property she now has in her possession, and the said defendant shall retain what personal community property he now has in his possession; that defendant shall pay Court costs in this action, amounting to Twenty-four and 95/100 Dollars ($24.95).

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for trial this 19th day of November, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the default of the defendant, said defendant having been regularly and personally served with summons and complaint, in the manner provided by law, and having failed to appear herein in any manner, and his default having been regularly claimed and duly entered against him, plaintiff appearing at the trial hereof in person and by her attorney, Robt. E. McFarland, and said defendant not appearing, either in person or by counsel; witnesses were sworn and testified for and on behalf of said plaintiff, and the Court, being satisfied that said defendant, William Ross Mason, is not engaged in any military service whatsoever, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by defendant's failure to appear herein as provided by statute,

NOW, THEREFORE, being fully advised in the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby, forever dissolved and said plaintiff is, hereby, granted an absolute divorce from said defendant on the grounds of willful neglect and habitual intemperance; that plaintiff is, hereby, granted the care, custody, and control, of the minor children of said parties, to-wit: William Ross Mason, Jr., and Jeannette Mason.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That defendant pay said plaintiff the sum of One Hundred ($100) Dollars a month for support of herself and said children, and to pay the sum of One Hundred Fifty ($150) Dollars attorney's fees, and Twenty-five ($25) Dollars suit money.

The above entitled matter came on for hearing before the Court at Chambers of the Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, this 5th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, it appearing that the defendant having appeared in this action only by Stipulation on file herein, under the terms of which Stipulation said defendant admitted service of the summons in said action, with copy of the Complaint attached, entered a general appearance in the action and submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, and refused to demurrer, answer, or plead further, waived additional time in which to plead further and consented that default be entered against him, and waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law in this action. It further appearing that the time for answering said complaint having expired, the default of the defendant has been regularly entered by the Clerk herein, which default is hereby confirmed by the Court.

Evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint was submitted to the court, and after duly considering the same and the files and records of this action, the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiffis entitled to the judgment of this Court as prayed for in said complaint. The Court finds that by the terms of said Stipulation the plaintiff has waived all claims and demands against the defendant for support money, alimony, suit money, attorneys' fees and costs of Court incurred in this action, and the Court hereby adopts and approves the terms of said Stipulation.

IT IS THEREFORE, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each party is hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED that plaintiff be and she hereby is adjudged restored to her, her maiden name of Marilynn E. Wightman as her true and lawful name.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable C. J. Taylor, Judge of the above-entitled Court, in Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on this 5th day of November, 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person and W. K. Naylor appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon one Sara Ker, witness for the plaintiff, was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and thereupon the plaintiff rested, and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of the above-entitled Court in this cause, together with, and attached to, a true copy of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein; that the said defendant failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's said Complaint either in person or by attorney within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the time for appearing or pleading in said cause having expired, the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above-named plaintiff and of the person of the above-named defendant, and of the subject matter of this action; that the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been established by sufficient and competent evidence free and clear from legal objections, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for in her said Complaint filed herein; the Court further finds that during the pendency of this action, one child has been born as the issue of plaintiff and defendant and of their marriage, and that said child's name is Neil Ritchie Edgington, a boy, born on September 24, 1948; that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said child; that the former name of the plaintiff prior to her marriage to the defendant was Alta W. Rider; that the property mentioned or described in plaintiff's Complaint on file herein was, and is, the sole and separate property of the plaintiff.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Alta W. Edgington, and the defendant, Clyde D. Edgington, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the said plaintiff and the said defendant, be, and they are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said plaintiff shall have, and she is hereby awarded and decreed the care, custody and control of Neil Ritchie Edgington, minor child of plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to see and visit said minor child at reasonable times and places and under reasonable circumstances.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said Neil Ritchie Edgington, said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month, payable on the first day of each and every month hereafter until said child becomes of age, or until the further order of the Court in the premises.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff and defendant do not own or possess any community property, and that all of the property mentioned or described in plaintiff's Complaint on file herein is the sole and separate property of the plaintiff and that the defendant has no right, title or interest therein; that said property consists of household goods, furniture and effects mentioned or described as follows, to-wit:

> One Kelvinator electric refrigerator, Monarch electric range, Speed Queen washing machine, Thor mangle, bed room set, sectional living room set, mahogany desk, two rugs, blond youth bed, cedar chest, one small cedar chest, carpet sweeper, Hoover vacuum cleaner, eight-piece set of Rogers silver ware, cooking utensils, dishes, set of Book of Knowledge, set of Grolier Encyclopedia, hand carved frame mirror, two rinse tubs, linens, lamps, pictures and mirrors

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the former name of the plaintiff prior to her said marriage to the defendant was Alta W. Rider, and the same is hereby restored to the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, or to W. K. Naylor, her attorney of record herein, the sum of $75.00 as and for plaintiff's attorney's fees incurred herein, and that plaintiff have and recover of and from the defendant her costs incurred herein in the sum of $16.40, being a total judgment hereby rendered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in the sum of $91.40.

Plaintiff,
vs.
CLARENCE F. SWANSON
Defendant.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for trial at chambers at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 19th day of November, 1948, Holden & Holden, appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of the above named plaintiff and no one appearing for or in behalf of the above named defendant, thereupon plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon Thelma Thomas was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested and the above named defendant having submitted no proof for or in his own behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff. The Court being fully advised in the premises now finds as follows:

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons, issued out of said Court in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the Complaint filed herein; that the defendant failed to appear or answer or otherwise plead to said plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, either in person or by his attorney within the time required by law or at all; that the time for answering having expired, the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law; that the said defendant, Clarence F. Swanson, is not in the military service of the United States or in any branch of the service thereof; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the person of the above named plaintiff and of the person of the above named defendant; that there are no property rights to be adjudicated herein; that no children have been born the issue of said marriage; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in her Complaint on file herein.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

The above entitled cause coming on regularly to be heard and tried before the Honorable C. J. Taylor, District Judge, at Chambers at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 19th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by one of her attorneys, Errol H. Hillman, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by attorney, and it appearing that the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with process herein, and that he has filed herein an appearance submitting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court, and has refused to plead further in said cause, and has consented to an immediate hearing of this case without further notice to him, either in term time or vacation, in open Court or in Chambers, and has waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein, and has consented that default be entered against him, and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a Stipulation with respect to the division of their property, the custody of their minor children, Don Keith Dalling, Brent F. Dalling, Bradley Eric Dalling, Paula Juanita Dalling, and Jeffrey Lynn Dalling, and the payment of a certain sum each month by the defendant to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor children, and it appearing to the Judge that said Stipulation is in all respects fair, just and equitable, and the Judge having heard the evidence and the matter having been submitted, and it appearing that all of the allegations contained in the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty, and the Judge being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Emma F. Dalling, and the defendant, Keith W. Dalling, be, and they are hereby dissolved and each restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the family home at 525 L. Street in the City of Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, and more particularly described as follows:

> Lot Eight (8) in Block Ninety-three (93) of Riverside Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho, as per the recorded plat thereof, be and the same is hereby awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, Emma F.Dalling, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit, subject to a Mortgage thereon to the Beneficial Life Insurance Company, in the approximate amount of $2,370.00, which Mortgage the said plaintiff shall assume and pay according to the terms thereof.

3. That all linens, dishes, cooking utensils, bedding, drapes, and household furniture and equipment of every kind, nature, and description owned by the parties to this action be, and the same are hereby, awarded and decreed to the plaintiff, Emma F. Dalling, as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit.

4. That one Model 1939 Chevrolet automobile be, and the same is hereby, awarded and decreed to the defendant, Keith

W. Dalling, as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit.

5. That the defendant, Keith W. Dalling, shall, and he is hereby required to pay all of the outstanding bills and obligations owing by the parties to this action, excepting only the mortgage on the above described real property.

6. That the plaintiff, Emma F. Dalling, shall have, and she is hereby granted, the care, custody and control of the minor children, Don Keith Dalling, Brent F. Dalling, Bradley Eric Dalling, Paula Juanita Dalling, and Jeffrey Lynn Dalling for a period of eleven months in each year, and the defendant, Keith W. Dalling, shall have and he is hereby granted, the care, custody and control of said minor children during the month of July of each year, provided however, that the defendant shall furnish and pay for the transportation of said children from the home of plaintiff to the home of defendant and likewise to return said children at the end of the month of July to the home of the plaintiff, without charge or expense to plaintiff.

7. That the defendant, Keith W. Dalling, shall pay to the plaintiff, Emma F. Dalling, during the full twelve months period of each year, the sum of $25.00 each month of the year for the support of Don Keith Dalling until said Don Keith Dalling arrives at the age of 18 years, and the sum of $25.00 each month of the year for the support of Brent F. DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable C. J. Taylor, Judge of the above entitled Court, in Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on this 26th day of November, A. D. 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person, and W. K. Naylor, appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in his own behalf, and thereupon one Fred A. Davis, witness for the plaintiff, was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and thereupon the plaintiff rested and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of the above entitled Court, in the within cause, together with, and attached to, a true copy of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, and that the said defendant has admitted, in writing, on file herein, due and legal service of said Summons and Complaint, and has entered her appearance in this action and has submitted herself to the jurisdiction of this Court, in this cause, and has refused to plead in this action and has waived additional time in which to plead herein and has consented that default be entered against her, and to an immediate hearing of this cause without further notice, either in term time, or vacation, in open Court, or in chambers; that the said defendant failed to appear or plead to plaintiff's said Complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above named plaintiff, and of the person of the above named defendant, and of the subject matter of this action; that the allegations of plaintiff's said Complaint on file herein have been established by sufficient and competent evidence, free and clear from legal objections and that the said plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of divorce as prayed for in his said Complaint on file herein; that no children have been born as the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, and that there are no property rights to be adjudicated in or by this action; that the former name of the defendant, prior to her said marriage to the plaintiff, was Betty Tabor.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, John A. Emmitt, and the defendant, Betty Emmitt, be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that they be, and they hereby are, each and both restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the former name of the defendant, to-wit, Betty Tabor, be, and the same is hereby restored to the defendant.

DEPUTY

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 8th day of November, 1946, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant having appeared by demurrer and answer and issue having been joined upon stipulation of counsel, the plaintiff presented her evidence to the Court, and at the close of plaintiff's testimony the defendant refused to submit any proof, and the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Provo Utah, in October, 1940, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff such mental suffering, pain and anguish as to constitute mental cruelty according to the Statutes of the State of Idaho.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

There is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, as her own sole and separate property, all of Block 9, according to the amended plat of the Villate of Homedale, Owyhee County, Idaho;

Also, all of the household goods now in possession of the plaintiff and located in the home on the above described premises.

Dated: This 9th day of October 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled court on the 8th day of November, 1948, Jess B. Hawley, Jr., of Messrs. Hawley & Hawley, attorneys for Plaintiff, representing Plaintiff throughout the trial; John D. Ewing of Messrs. Smith & Ewing, representing the Defendant throughout the trial, said Defendant not appearing in person. Testimony, both oral and documentary, was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff. Whereupon, the court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts, does hereby find as follows:

I

That the Plaintiff is now, and has been for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the filing of her action herein, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That the Plaintiff, Lucy Constantine, is a fit and proper person to have the custody, care and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, namely: Constance Constantine.

III

That the said Plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in her complaint by reason of the testimony submitted and the corroboration thereof, full establishing as true the allegations of said complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, this court, being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and facts, does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, as follows:

I

That the Plaintiff, Lucy Constantine, is entitled to and is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the said Defendant, Frank Constantine, upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant are hereby dissolved and at an end, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

II

That the care, custody and control of the minor child of the Plaintiff and Defendant, Constance Constantine, be, and is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff, Lucy Constantine, provided, however, that said Defendant, Frank Constantine, shall have and be entitled to the right of reasonable visitation with respect to said child.

III

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said Defendant, Frank Constantine, shall pay or cause to be paid on or before the tenth day of each and every month hereafter, beginning with the month of November, 1948, the sum of Sixty-five ($65.00) Dollars to the Plaintiff, Lucy Constantine, said sum to be used for the support, maintenance, care and education of the minor child, Constance Constantine, and said payments to be continued until said child reaches the age of majority or until further modified by the order of this court.

IV

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that that certain Separation and Property Division Agreement entered into by and between the parties hereto on the 25th day of October, 1948, the original of which is Plaintiff's "Exhibit A" herein, is hereby approved and ratified by this court and said Agreement is by reference made a part of this decree as fully and completely as if herein set out in detail.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing this 8 day of ~~September~~ November, 1948, on the complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering has been duly entered in said cause this day.

It appearing to this Court that the said defendant, Cecil Brown, has been duly and regularly served with Summons in the above entitled cause according to law, and that more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since said service.

Witnesses were duly sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for its decision and after due deliberation the Court finds:

That the plaintiff has filed her affidavit as provided under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, in which plaintiff states that the defendant, Cecil Brown, is not in the Military Service of the United States, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940; that pursuant to said affidavit, an Order allowing default was entered by the Court herein ordering that in case of proper service, default judgment be entered against the said defendant, Cecil Brown.

That all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and supported by evidence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Kingman, County of Mohave, State of Arizona, on or about the 9th day of November, 1946, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife;

That plaintiff is now and has been for more than five (5) months last past preceeding the commencement of this action a resident of the State of Idaho.

That there is one (1) child the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and the defendant, to-wit: Mary Elaine Brown , age 6 months; that said minor child has been at all times in the care and custody of the plaintiff;

That there is no community property of the plaintiff and defendant;

That the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance and extreme cruelty as more particularly set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the marriage bonds between the plaintiff, Lorine Brown, and the defendant, Cecil Brown, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that the parties and each of them, are free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the custody and control of the minor child, to-wit: Mary Elaine Brown, age 6 months be awarded to the plaintiff.

Defendant )

THIS CAUSE coming on regularly to be heard on the 22nd day of November, 1948, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, THOS. Y. GWILLIAM, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons, in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, EDWARD CONRAD BARTON, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered; and an affidavit stating that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States having been filed herein.

WHEREUPON, evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all obligations as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency; and it further appearing that said matters in said complaint so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE;

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

Dated and signed this 22nd day of November, 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the above entitled court on the 22nd day of November, 1948, and upon the plaintiff's complaint, service of the same, and of the another summons in this action having been duly and regularly and in the manner provided by law served upon said defendant, and the defendant failing to appear herein or to plead in said action within the time allowed by law, as specified in said another summons, or at all, and application for said default of said defendant for failure to so appear was duly made, and

It appearing to the court that the said defendant, Lillian Lucille Hunt, is not in the military service of the United States of America, or in the military service with the forces of any country with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of any war in which the United States is engaged, as defined in sections 101 (1) and 104 of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, as amended October 6, 1942, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, order was duly issued directing the clerk of this court to enter the default of said defendant herein for failure to so appear or plead to said complaint within the time allowed by law.

Thereafter said default of said defendant for failure to so appear and plead within the time allowed by law, pursuant to the order of this court, was duly and regularly entered in the above entitled cause and prior to the hearing on this matter, said defendant then being in default, and the plaintiff appearing at said hearing in person and by Robert B. Dunlap, one of his attorneys, and the defendant not appearing in said cause, the court proceeded to the hearing thereof.

Witnesses were called, duly sworn, and testified on behalf of the plaintiff, and the cause was submitted to the court for consideration and decision, and the court having duly heard and considered the evidence, and being duly advised as to the premises, and finding that the defendant during the marriage of plaintiff and defendant had sexual relations with men other than the plaintiff and as a result thereof gave birth to a son, to-wit, Eugene Lyle Hunt, born July 19, 1945, and further finding that the plaintiff, William L. Hunt, is not the father of said Eugene Lyle Hunt, and further finding that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty,

NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of Dunlap & Dunlap, the attorneys for plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, William L. Hunt, and the defendant, Lillian Lucille Hunt, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved, and the parties freed from all the duties and obligations thereof.

* * * * * * * * *

This matter came on regularly for hearing at Twin Falls, Idaho, before the undersigned District Judge, on the 19th day of November, 1948, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and the defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. The defendant having been duly and regularly served with process herein, the time or pleading thereto having expired and no appearance or pleading having been filed by the defendant, and her default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and by witnesses in his behalf. The Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of desertion, as prayed in his complaint.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and each of the said parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1948.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 1st day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Glen L. Williams had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon the plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect of the plaintiff and upon the second cause of action of said complaint the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant dissolved and that the plaintiff is entitled to the care, custody and control of Leslie Everett Williams, minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant;

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Donna Williams and the defendant Glen L. Williams be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff have and she is hereby granted the care, custody and control of Leslie Everett Williams, minor child of the plaintiff and defendant.

The above entitled cause came on for hearing this 26th day of October, 1948, at Chambers, at Pocatello, Idaho, before Honorable Isaac McDougall, Judge of the above entitled Court. P. M. Condie, Esquire, appeared as attorney for the plaintiff and the defendant did not appear in person or by attorney.

And it appearing that the defendant has accepted service of summons and complaint herein and has waived time in which to plead and declined to plead to said complaint, and has consented that said matter might be heard at the convenience of the Court either at Preston, Idaho, or at Chambers at Pocatello, Idaho, and without the defendant being present at said hearing; and the default of the defendant having been entered by the Clerk for failure to plead to said complaint, and said matter being ready for hearing the Court proceeded to hear said cause.

Witnesses were sworn and testified for the plaintiff and plaintiff rested, and the Court being satisfied from the evidence that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce, it appearing that no award of custody of the child named in the complaint should be made as said child has been adopted:

Now, therefore, it is Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and are dissolved and declared for naught and the parties hereto are restored to the status of single persons.

JUDGMENT and DECREE.

This cause coming regularly to be heard on this 29th day of NOVEMBER 1 9 4 8, before the Hon. LEO MC. CARTY, Judge of the District Court of the Tenth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Idaho, without a jury; A. G. Sathre, attorney at law, appearing for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person or by Counsel, and the defendant herein having personally filed and executed a waiver of her rights to service of summons and complaint, or the issuance of summons herein before the Clerk of the above entitled Court on the 14th day of September, 1 9 4 8, and in which waiver the defendant consented that a default might be taken at any time, and it further appearing to the Court that said waiver was freely given and made, and filed in person by said defendant with said Clerk of this Court, free from collusion by the parties hereto, and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military or armed services or forces of the United States of America as defined by the Soldiers and Sailors Act, or amendments thereof or thereto;

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated as required by law was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that the allegations of the plaintiff's cause of action contained in plaintiff's complaint on file herein, are sustained by the testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing that the matters alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to judgment and decree in accordance with the complaint; and it further appearing that the same being now closed and the law in the premises being full understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree;

WHEREFORE, It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this dose ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

(A) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between MARIAN L. MEFFORD and LEO E. MEFFORD, be forever dissolved.

(B) That there is no Community Property.

fully set forth as such findings, that the agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant and dated October 18, 1948, is fair and equitable and a just settlement of matters between the parties.

From the facts the court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for, a decree of divorce, awarding the plaintiff custody of the minor children and approving the agreement hereinbefore referred to.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff, Evelyn Bernice Holdren, is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Edison C. Holdren; and that she be, and is, hereby awarded custody of Philip Stephen Holdren and Dorothy Margaret Holdren, minor children of the parties, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times, and to have them visit him for periods of not exceeding eight weeks during school vacation; provided, and conditioned, however, upon the defendant providing a suitable home and care for said children during such visits; and provided further, that the right of the defendant to have the children visit him in such suitable home shall not come into effect until the children respectively reach the age of six years; provided, also, that the rights and privileges of the defendant herein granted shall be effective only so long as he fully performs the agreements and promises of the agreement of October 18, 1948.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the separation agreement of October 18, 1948, be and the same is hereby approved and made a part of this decree by reference as if fully set forth herein.

DECREE OF THE COURT.

On this 5 day of November in the year,1948,this cause came on regularly to be heard at Chambers,at Idaho Falls,Idaho. the Defendant having failed to demur or answer Plaintiffs verified complaint on file herein,and the time having elapsed and expired,and the default of the Defendant having had and duly placed of record herein,and the Plaintiff appearing in court in person and by here Attorney of Record,and the Defendant failing to appear,in person, or by Attorney, or at all,and no legal reason existing therefor, the court proceeds to hear said cause,whereupon the Plaintiff was duly sworn and examined as a witness in her own behalf,and thereafter--- Betty Pinson Was duly sworn and examined as a Witness in Plaintiffs cause, whereupon Plaintiff rests,and said cause being submitted to the court for decision whereupon, the court finds that the Plaintiff is at present,and has been for many years last past a resident of the State of Idaho. and that the Plaintiff,Cleo A,Lawler and Frank F,Lawler,intermarried at Garfield Idaho, on or about the 22nd day of August,1940, and ever since have been and now are Husband and Wife. That during said Marriage and Coverture of the respective parties herein, there were born to them the following children, to-wit; Barbara Lawler,aged seven years, Eileen lawler aged five years,Carol K, Lawler, aged three years,and Rondo Jean Lawler aged some over one year.

That during the time of the marriage and coverture of the Plaintiff and the Defendant, no real property was acquired by them, but some personal property ,which said personal property which by stipulation prior to the issuing of this decree was entered into wherein it was agreed that in case a decree of this court was had granting a decree of divorce to the Plaintiff,in that event, the personal property of the parties consisting of the following,To the Plaintiff all of the Household furniture including one piano, the custody of the four minor children, together with support money from the Defendant in the sum of Fifty dollars Monthly, save in those periods when Defendant was not able to earn said sums, when in that event, what earning was had should be divided equally between them until such time as normal earning where a gain available,. The Defendant according to the stipulation should have the Community Automobile, and one Pieper Cub Airplane, and pay the Plaintiffs costs of suit and Attorneys fee.

And it further appearing to the court that the Defendant should have the right to vist said Minor children and have them with him, at such times as are agreeable to the Plaintiff,

And it further appearing to the court that for more than one year last past before the commencement of this action the Defendant has been guilty of extreme cruellty toward this Plaintiff, and has caused her grevious mental suffering in the following manner;

That the Plaintiff was frequently left alone by the Defendant who would leave home for weeks at a time and not advise the Plaintiff of his whereabouts, and upon returning home when questioned by the Plaintiff would brush the matter aside as the it were none of her business to know,

That the Plaintiff at times was compelled in order to maintain order and disipline in the home to take in hand the unruliness of the children, and this would greatly incense the Defendant who would hotly call her down and at one time he became enraged to that extant that he the Defendant seized the Plaintiff by the wrist and twisted her wrist until she cried with pain, and greatly humilitating her before her children. That living together as man and wife has become a burden to this Plaintiff because of the constant irritation and disagreement of purpose between the the Plaintiff and the Defendant, and the incompatibility that exists between them, and the children observing this condition were pursuing a course that would not be for their best good, to that extant that it became necessary that their living together as man and wife was terminated to that extant that the parties have not lived together as man and wife since December of 1947.

That this condition as aforesaid has completely rendered their living together as impossible and for a continuance of the marriage relation between them an impossibility and the legetimate re-

--legimate objects of matrimony, and a continuance of the marriage relation between the Plaintiff and the Defendant unhappy and miserable.

And it further appearing to the court that the equities are with the Plaintiff, and that the allegations set forth in Plaintiffs verified complaint are true, That the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of divorce dissolving the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, and the Court being fully advised in the Premises-----

It is therefore Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed by the Court, That the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, be and the same are hereby totally dissolved.

That in accordance with the stipulation her tofore entered into between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, it is further ordered and decreed that the Plaintiff have the care custody and control of the Minor children, as aforesaid. with the right of Defendant to visit them at suitable times and places, that the Plaintiff have the Furniture and Household effects including the piano, that the Defendant shall have the old Automobile and Flying Machine, and shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $50,00, per month, on the Ist of each and every Month for the maintainance of the said minor children, and pay the costs of this proceeding and the Plaintiffs attorneys fees taxed at $ settled and is so ordered.

Defendant.

- - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned, District Judge, in open court in the County Court House at Jerome, Jerome County, Idaho, on the _____ day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorney of record, Frank M. Rettig. And the defendant having been duly and regularly served with process and having failed to appear within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law, which entry of default is hereby ratified and confirmed, it appearing that said defendant has been duly and regularly served with process and that such service was in all respects duly and legally made.

Witnesses on the part of the plaintiff having been examined and testimony having been submitted free from objections, and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by virtue of said default, and the court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and to the facts; and

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court that all the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that she is entitled to the relief sought in her complaint, and that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto should be wholly dissolved, and plaintiff granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, and that she should be awarded the custody, care and control of the minor children, the issue of the marriage between plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of reasonable visitation by the defendant, and that plaintiff should be awarded the sum of Fifty Dollars per month toward the support and maintenance of said minor children, and that plaintiff should be awarded the community property acquired by the parties during coverture.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, William Kenneth Davis, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and how existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved, and each party is hereby released and freed from all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded, and she shall have the custody, care and control of Michael LeRoy Davis and William Kenneth Davis, Jr., the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That defendant pay to plaintiff the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month as and for the support of said minor children, the first of said payments to be made on the 1st day of December, 1948, and continuing in monthly installments on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter during the minority of said children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the community property of the parties be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, and the title thereto is hereby transferred to the plaintiff and divested from the defendant.

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 15th day of November, A. D. 1948, before the Honorable O. C. Wilson, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, upon the Complaint of the plaintiff and the Answer of the defendant. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Robert E. Brown, Esq., of Kellogg, Idaho, and the defendant appeared by his attorney, R. N. Elder, Esq., of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Notice of trial was waived by both parties acting through their attorneys and thereupon witnesses were sworn and examined for and on the part of the plaintiff and after the close of plaintiff's case the defendant did not introduce any proof and the matter was then submitted to the Court for its decision.

And the Court having considered all of the evidence and testimony and the records and files in said action and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and now being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant on the grounds of continuous separation and living apart, without cohabitation by plaintiff and defendant for a period of more than five continuous years.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the property settlement entered into between the parties hereto under date of September 10, 1938, be, and the same is hereby allowed, approved and confirmed by this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff's name prior to marriage of Pauline Kimmel be, and the same is hereby restored to her.

DECREE

DEC 1 1948

THIS MATTER having come on regularly to be heard on this 22nd day of November, 1948 before the undersigned District Judge; the plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by her attorney, Wm. S. Hawkins; the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel; the defendant having admitted and acknowledged service of a true and correct copy of the complaint and summons herein on the 17th day of November, 1948 and his acceptance of service being on file in the above entitled Court; the defendant having filed herein his answer and waiver of notice of time and place of hearing said action on its merits; the plaintiff and her witness having been duly and regularly sworn and examined, testified on behalf of herself in support of the allegations of her complaint and corroborative evidence having been submitted as to the residence of said plaintiff; the Court having heard and considered all of the evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises and having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce upon the grounds of Extreme Cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant; now, therefore, upon motion of Wm. S. Hawkins, attorney for the plaintiff, it is, by this Court,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, ETHEL J. STARK, and the defendant, R. 8. STARK, be, and the same are, hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the ground of Extreme Cruelty; and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor children, Donna Rae, Patricia Marie and Elaine Julianna; subject to the right of reasonable visitation on the part of the defendant; and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for the sum of $100.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of said minor children, to continue until said children have attained the age of majority or are sooner married or self-supporting; said monthly contribution to be diminished pro-rata as the children attain independency; and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff is hereby awarded, as her sole and separate property, the household furniture, furnishings and effects; and the defendant is hereby awarded, as his sole and separate property, the 1942 Nash Coupe automobile.

ROBERT K. GUSTAFSON,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ELEANOR R. GUSTAFSON,

Defendant.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by publication of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, Attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, ROBERT K. GUSTAFSON, and the Defendant, ELEANOR R. GUSTAFSON, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground that the Plaintiff and Defendant have lived separate and apart and that there has been no cohabitation between them for a period of more than five years continuously next immediately preceding the filing of this action.

Defendant.

STATE OF IDAHO, County of Kootenai, ss. NOV 29 1948 at ... JAS. A. FOSTER ... Recorder

DECREE

This matter having come regularly on for hearing this day the Court finds that an appearance was duly entered herein by the Defendant in person as well as proper proof showing the service of Summons and Complaint upon the Defendant. The Defendant having appeared and filed a written consent that the case could be set at any time after November 27, 1948, and the case having been duly set for this time came regularly on for hearing. The Plaintiff appeared in person with her attorneys Whitle & Knudson but the Defendant did not appear. Oral and documentary evidence was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff and after hearing said evidence and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been specifically waived the Court finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the Defendant on the ground of cruelty.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff and Defendant were married at Pullman, Washington, June 6, 1936, and every since have been and now are husband and wife, and that there was born of the marriage of Plaintiff and Defendant a daughter SUSAN CLARE WALLER four years of age June 30, 1948, and a son RICHARD MICHAEL WALLER born January 6, 1946, both of whom have always been and now are in the custody of the Plaintiff at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action and now is such resident; that the Defendant has pursued such a course of action against the Plaintiff which by reason of its constant, persistant and continuous character impaired the Plaintiff's health and peace of mind and inflicted upon her great and grevious mental suffering to such an extent that she became highly nervous, her health was impaired and the actions of the Defendant were such that it is no longer possible for the Plaintiff and Defendant to live together as husband and wife and by reason thereof the Defendant has been guilty of cruelty.

The Court finds that the Plaintiff and Defendant have entered into an agreement settling their property rights the substance of which is included in this Decree, and by reason of all of said facts the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the Defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Plaintiff VIRGINIA PENNEY WALLER be and she hereby is granted a Decree of absolute Divorce from the Defendant RICHARD CONRAD WALLER on the ground of cruelty and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are vacated, annulled and set aside.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff be and she hereby is granted the exclusive custody, care and control of the minor children SUSAN CLARE WALLER and RICHARD MICHAEL WALLER, she to take care of and provide for them at her own cost and expense.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the property settlement made between the parties wherein the property owned by them situate at 4014 Logan Street, Richmond, Virginia, shall be sold and out of the proceeds of the sale there shall be first paid the unpaid balance of the note or notes secured by a first lien deed of trust on the property, which balance is approximately $5,300.00, together with any other liens or incumbrances and costs and expenses in connection with said sale, and that the net proceeds of said sale shall then be divided into two equal shares or portions, one of which shall be paid to Robert C. Duval, Jr. attorney of Richmond, Virginia, as the representative of VIRGINIA PENNEY WALLER and the other to William Eldridge Spain an attorney representing RICHARD CONRAD WALLER, and that the share paid to Robert C. Duval, Jr. shall be for the sole use and benefit of VIRGINIA PENNEY WALLER and all of the share paid to William Eldridge Spain which is in excess of $1,000.00 shall be for the sole use and benefit of RICHARD CONRAD WALLER. That the sum of $1,000.00 of the proceeds of said sale held by William Eldridge Spain ( or all of such proceeds if the amount thereof is less than $1,000.00) shall be, by him, paid to Robert C. Duval, Jr. as attorney for VIRGINIA PENNEY WALLER, which said sum when so paid is to be in full satisfaction of any and all claim which the said VIRGINIA PENNEY WALLER may have, make or claim against the Defendant RICHARD CONRAD WALLER on account of expenses, legal fees or any claim whatsoever in connection with this suit or any claim for support and maintenance which she shall have or claim against the said Defendant by reason of their marriage and that if any other or further instruments are necessary to be executed to make effective the provisions of the said property settlement agreement, that the same shall be made and executed by each or both of the parties hereto, whichever is necessary for the purposs of completing said property settlement agreement and carrying the same into effect.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that all claims of the said Plaintiff against the Defendant for dower, curtesy, inheritance, descent, distribution, and all other property rights, claims or duties growing out of the marriage relation between them, except as herein and by said property settlement agreement otherwise expressly provided, be and the same are forever barred and extinguished.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said VIRGINIA PENNEY WALLER shall, at her own expense, raise the two infant children and make no claim whatever against the Defendant therefore.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that if the said Defendant desires to see said children he shall have the right of visitation at all times and places as may be proper but that if he desires to have them left at any particular place for his visitations he shall notify the Plaintiff a reasonable time in advance and if any costs are incurred on account of any party being required to look after and care for said children during said visitation that the Defendant shall pay the same in advance before being entitled to such right.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court this 23 day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record, Robert T. Felton, and the defendant appearing neither in person nor by attorney.

On said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that service of Summons was duly and regularly made by personal service as appears by the Return of Service of Summons and Complaint filed herein, and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said complaint within time allowed by law and his time for appearing having expired and the default of said defendant having been entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony adduced on behalf of said plaintiff and in support of her complaint and the cause having been finally submitted to the Court for decision, the Court finds that the allegations stated in plaintiff's complaint on file herein are true and supported by the evidence.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by this Court as follows:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the above named plaintiff, Edith Violet Dillman and the above named defendant, Harold Orvil Dillman, be and the same hereby are dissolved and the said parties, and each of them, are free from the married relation.

(2) That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the sole care and custody of the minor children, Clifford Orvil Dillman and Loretta June Dillman, subject to the right of reasonable visitation in the defendant.

(3) That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the plaintiff's and the minor children's clothing and personal effects.

(4) That the defendant be, and he is hereby required and directed to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the care and support of the minor children, commencing on 10th day of December, 1948, and a like sum on the 10th day of each and every month thereafter until the said children have attained their majority or until further order of this Court.

(5) That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff or to Robert T. Felton, her attorney, the plaintiff's attorney fees in the amount of $150.00, together with the plaintiff's costs in the amount of $18.75.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 22nd day of September, 1948, at Salmon, Idaho, upon the Complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant on the proof herein taken, and upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant herein was duly served with Summons herein according to law; and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint of the plaintiff and the time for answering having expired, and no answer or other pleading having been filed, the default of the defendant, Jesse Hutchinson, was duly entered according to law, and on this day the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said Complaint, by which it appears and the Court found:

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 8th day of February, 1947, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America.

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by competent testimony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and the matters so alleged and proved were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of her marriage;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and each party returned to the status of a single person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard this 22nd day of September, 1948, before the Honorable Guy Stevens, District Judge, at Salmon, County of Lemhi, State of Idaho, sitting without a jury; Fred H. Snook, Attorney at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant made no appearance, either in person or by attorney, and his default having been regularly entered and an affidavit having been filed in compliance with the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and its amendments, witnesses were duly sworn and testified, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief hereinafter granted; written findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived and the court, being now fully advised in the law and the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Dexter J. Nilsson, and the defendant, Floyd A. Nilsson, be, and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught and said parties are, and each of them is, released from all obligations thereof and restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the custody of the minor children of said plaintiff and defendant, namely, Jacqueline Nilsson and Barbara Nilsson, shall be and the same are hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Dexter J. Nilsson, she being a fit and proper person to have and be awarded the said custody, with the right reserved to the defendant to see and visit said children at reasonable and proper times; and it is further ordered that the custody of the minor child of said plaintiff and defendant, namely Steve Nilsson, shall be and the same is hereby awarded to the defendant, Floyd A. Nilsson, he being a fit and proper person to have and be awarded the said custody, with the right reserved to the plaintiff to see and visit said child at all reasonable and proper times.

3. That the defendant, Floyd A. Nilsson, shall pay to the plaintiff, Dexter J. Nilsson, for the support and maintenance of the said minor children, Jacqueline Nilsson and Barbara Nilsson, the sum of $50.00 per month and the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, Dexter J. Nilsson, the sum of $1,000.00 being the unpaid balance of the $2,000.00 set forth in the property settlement agreement between said parties, and the said property settlement agreement admitted herein as plaintiff's Exhibit "A" is hereby approved and confirmed.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 24th day of September, 1948, at Salmon, Idaho, upon the Complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant on the proof taken herein, and upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant herein was duly served with Summons according to law; and the defendant having failed to appear and answer said Complaint of the plaintiff and the time for answering having expired, and no answer or other pleading having been filed, the default of the defendant, Geneva Withington, was duly entered according to law, and on this day the plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said Complaint, by which it appears and the Court found:

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 1st day of May, 1930, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now in the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America.

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by competent testimony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of desertion; and the matters so alleged and proved were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of his marriage.

That it appears that the property settlement agreement settling the custody of the children of the parties hereto, the amount for care and custody thereof, and the division of the community property of the parties hereto, is just and equitable and should be confirmed.

That it further appears that Geneva Withington, the defendant, is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of the minor child, Patricia Bates Withington, during the nine months school term of each and every year, the defendant, Vernon H. Withington, paying to the said Geneva Withington $35.00 each and every month that such minor child is residing with the said defendant; and that Vernon H. Withington is a fit and proper person to have thecare and custody of the minor child, Patricia Bates Withington, during the three months vacation term of each and every year, the plaintiff paying the travel expenses of such child to and from the parties hereto, and to further have the care and custody of the minor child,, Lowell Vernon Withington, with the privilege to the defendant of having said minor child visit her at such times as such child shall so desire.

WHEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, returning each to the status of a single person.

2. That the defendant, Geneva Withington, be, and she hereby is, awarded the care, custody and control of the minor child, Patricia Bates Withington, during the nine months school term of each and every year with the privilege to the plaintiff of visiting such child at any and all reasonable times.

3. That the plaintiff, Vernon H. Withington, be, and he hereby is, awarded the care, custody and control of the minor child, Patricia Bates Withington, during the three months vacation term of each and every year, with the privilege to the defendant of visiting such child at any and all reasonable times, the plaintiff paying the travel expense of such child to and from the parties hereto.

4. That the plaintiff, Vernon H. Withington, shall have the care and custody and control of the minor child, Lowell Vernon Withington, with the privilege to the defe ndant of having such minor child visit her at such times as said minor child shall so desire.

5. That the plaintiff, Vernon H. Withington, pay to the defendant, Geneva Withington, the sum of $35.00 on or before the 15th day of each and every month that the minor child, Patricia Bates Withington, is residing with the defendant, Geneva Withington.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the community property of the parties hereto be, and the same hereby is, equitably divided as follows, to-wit;

1. That the plaintiff, Vernon H. Withington, shall receive as his sole and separate property,

One 1936 Oldsmobile Coupe Sedan, Motor No. 533448, Serial No. K 226734.

2. That the plaintiff, Vernon H. Withington, shall have as his sole and separate property, an undivided three-tenths (3/10) of the hereinafter described property, and the defendant, Geneva Withington, shall have as her sole and separate property, an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in and to such hereinafter described property, the same being situated in the City of Salmon, County of

Lemhi, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Lots 11 to 18, inclusive, Block 15;
Lots 1 to 20, inclusive, Block 16;
Lots 15 to 20, inclusive, Block 17;
Lots 1 to 15, inclusive, Block 19;

DECREE

No. 3234

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 18th day of October, 1948, at Salmon, Idaho, upon the complaint herein taken as confessed by the defendant on the proof taken herein, and upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant herein was duly served in person with summons herein, attached to a copy of the complaint on file in this action; and the defendant having filed written appearance herein stating he did not wish to demure, answer, or plead in this action or place testimony before the court, and the defendant having further waived notice of hearing and consenting that the matter may be heard at the convenience of the Court, and the default of the defendant, Harold Dean Ankrum, was duly entered according to law, and on this day the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, C. Walker Lyon, and introduced evidence in support of said complaint, by which it appears and the court found:

That the plaintiff now is and has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 22nd day of June, 1947, and afterward resided together as husband and wife; that the defendant is not now a member of the Military or Naval Service of the United States of America;

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the Complaint are sustained by competant testimony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and the matters so alleged and proved were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of her marriage;

That the parties hereto have no community property excepting one lot of household furniture which is needed by the plaintiff in caring for the minor child of the parties hereto;

That there is one child, the issue of said marriage, Micheal Dean Ankrum, of the age of ~~five~~ five months; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of said minor child, Micheal Dean Ankrum, and it is for the best interests of such child that he should be with his mother;

That the defendant is an able bodied man and should contribute at least the sum of THIRTY and NO/100 ($30.00) DOLLARS per each and every month towards the care and support of the minor child, Micheal Dean Ankrum;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony that exist between the parties hereto, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, returning each to the status of a single person;

2. That the plaintiff, Delores Christina Ankrum, be, and is hereby, awarded the custody of the minor child, Micheal Dean Ankrum, until further order of the court;

3. That the defendant, Harold Dean Ankrum, forthwith pay to the plaintiff, Delores Christina Ankrum, the sum of THIRTY and NO/100 ($30.00) DOLLARS, and the further sum of THIRTY and NO/100 ($30.00) DOLLARS on or before the fifteenth day of each and every month hereafter, until further order of the court, towards the care and support of the minor child, Micheal Dean Ankrum;

4. That the lot of household property, the community property of the parties herete, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Delores Christina Ankrum, as and for her sole and separate property.

This cause came on regularly to be heard at Chambers, in Blackfoot, County of Bingham, State of Idaho, this 10th day of November, 1948, before the Honorable Isaac McDougal, District Judge, sitting without a jury; the issue was framed by the complaint filed by the plaintiff and the answer thereto filed by the defendant; Fred H. Snook, Attorney at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff, and the matter was heard pursuant to a stipulation filed in this action between Fred H. Snook, attorney of record for the plaintiff, and Charles Herndon, attorney of record for the defendant; witnesses were duly sworn and testified, from which it appeared that the plaintiff is entitled to relief hereinafter granted; written findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived and the Court being fully advised in the laws and premises, now, and on motion of Fred H. Snook, counsel for plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between the plaintiff, Annie McCallum Miner, and the defendant, Charles S. Miner, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved and held for naught, and said parties are, and each of them is, released from all obligations thereof and restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the maiden name of Annie Pollock McCallum is hereby restored to the plaintiff.

3. That the property settlement agreement admitted herein as plaintiff's Exhibit "A" dated September 1, 1948, shall be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed, and it is ordered that the defendant pay to the plaintiff for her support and maintenance the amount therein provided.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in Open Court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable A. H. Featherstone on the 9th day of November, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 11th day of October, 1948, and twenty days having expired since said service and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the case.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises enters the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause at Lewiston, County of Nez Peree, State of Idaho, on the 11th day of October, 1948.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Manda Lee Casey, and the defendant, Ellsworth Casey, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved; and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 9th day of November, 1948, at ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Owen L. Knowlton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the County of Clallam, State of Washington, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 15th day of October, 1948, and twenty days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default, and his default having been entered and a Mon-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in Clallam County, State of Washington, on the 15th day of October, 1948.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Lee Donna Schoonover, and the defendant, Adrian J. Schoonover, be, and the same hereby are, wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DATED this 9th day of November, 1948.

Albert H. Featherstone
District Judge

I, PHILIP WEISGERBER, Clerk of the above entitled Court do hereby certify the foregoing to be a full, true and correct copy of the original Decree in the above entitled cause as the same now appears on file and of record in my office.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, on the 13th day of November, 1948, at Ten o' clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant, having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 7th day of October, 1948, did appear, and having regularly filed his Appearance in said cause waiving his rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 and all laws amendatory thereof, consented to the entry of his default by said court in said cause.

The Court proceeded to hear the cause and witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following Orders, Judgments and decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 7th day of October, 1948; and thereafter appeared in said action by an Admission of Service and Waiver of Appearance on the part of the defendant and refused to plead to the plaintiff's Complaint and agreed that his default for failure to plead may be entered by the Court at any time without notice of any kind of nature in or concerning any of the proceedings in said cause; that twenty days have passed since the Acceptance of Service by the defendant, and therefore, the default of said defendant is ordered to be entered on the records of the Clerk of said Court.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Johanne Rae Hadley, and the defendant, Robert C. Hadley, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Johanne Rae Hadley, be, and she hereby is restored her maiden name, that of Johanne Rae Rogers.

Featherstone, Judge of the First Judicial District of the State of Idaho, presiding Judge in the above entitled court and cause.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her counsel of record, V. R. Clements, of Lewiston, Idaho, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the defendant, Richard Andrew Grimm, and it appearing to the Court, and the Court having found that the defendant herein was duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this action in the manner provided by law, and that said defendant having failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead to said Summons and Complaint within the time provided by law, and the defendant having been in default and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered herein pursuant to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Acts as required by law, and the cause having been duly and regularly set for trial and having come on for hearing upon the complaint of theplaintiff, and witnesses having been called, sworn and examined, and oral and documentary evidence having been adduced, heard and considered, and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court and the Court having fully considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and finding that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and that the allegations of the complaint, and each and all of them are true and supported by the evidence,

NOW, THEREFORE,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Bonnie Kennedy Grimm, and the defendant, Richard Andrew Grimm, be and the same are hereby forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded and granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, and that the plaintiff and defendant be and each of them are hereby restored to the status of single and unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, to-wit: NOREEN SUSAN GRIMM. That the plaintiff, Bonnie Kennedy Grimm, be and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the above named minor child of the parties, with the right granted to the defendant of visiting said child at all reasonable and proper times, and having said child visit him.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that until further order of this Court, the defendant, Richard Andrew Grimm, shall pay to the plaintiff, Bonnie Kennedy Grimm, the sum of Thirty-five ($35.00) dollars per month, for the support, maintenance and education of the minor child of the parties hereinabove named, said payments to be made on or before the 10th day of each month, beginning with the month of December, 1948, and monthly thereafter until said child shall reach her majority, or until further order of this court.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in Open Court on this 19th day of November, 1948, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorney of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint outside the state pursuant to order of this Court, and having failed to appear, answer, or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the plaintiff having filed an affidavit showing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of the defendant having been made and entered by the Clerk of this Court, and the plaintiff having submitted proof in support of the allegations contained in his complaint, and the Court being fully advised, both as to the law and the facts, FINDS:

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action in Spokane, Washington, on October 13, 1948, pursuant to an order of this Court duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court, as appears from the affidavit of service of summons on file herein; that the defendant is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended.

That plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Lewiston, Idaho, on February 24, 1948, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than five years last past a bona fide resident of Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho.

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

That the parties to this action have acquired no community property during the existence of said marriage and no property rights need be adjudicated herein.

That the defendant, in total disregard of her marital obligations toward this plaintiff, has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That the plaintiff and the defendant lived together as husband and wife for a period of 30 days; that at the expiration of said thirty day period the said defendant, without just cause or provocation, left this plaintiff and deserted him; that prior to the desertion of the plaintiff by the defendant and during the time that the plaintiff and defendant lived together as husband and wife said defendant refused to speak to this plaintiff or to have anything to do with him other than to quarrel with this plaintiff without just cause or provocation, which course of action was calculated to by the defendant to cause this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering, and which action on the part of the defendant did cause this plaintiff grievous mental suffering and anguish; that the course of action practiced by the defendant during the time plaintiff and defendant resided together as husband and wife and her deserting this plaintiff at the expiration of thirty days from the date of said marriage caused this plaintiff great humiliation and suffering.

The Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing in open court on the 22nd day of November, 1948, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, Russell S. Randall, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the defendant Hazel L. Vieira. It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Hazel L. Vieira, was duly and regularly served with process of Summons and Complaint in Latah County, Idaho, on the 28th day of October, 1948, and that said defendant has failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law, and that the defendant having been in default and her default having been duly and regularly entered herein and this cause having been duly and regularly set for trial and evidence oral and documentary submitted and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court and the Court having duly considered same, and it appearing to the Court that all of the allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true,

NOW, THEREFORE, BASED THEREON,

IT IS HEREBY ORD RED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and that the plaintiff Victor E. Vieira is hereby granted an absolute

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 22nd day of November, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause in the County of San Francisco, State of California, pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction, on the 22nd day of October, 1948; and twenty days having expired since said service, and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and she being in default and her default having been entered; and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause at San Francisco, in San Francisco County, State of California, on the 22nd day of October, 1948.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of the Plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

That the property settlement agreement entered into by the Plaintiff and Defendant is fair and equitable.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Lester C. Prine, and the defendant, Myra A. Prine, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the plaintiff be, and he hereby is awarded the care, custody, charge and control of the minor children of the parties, namely, Sandra Ann Prine and Karen Lee Prine, subject to the rights of reasonable visitation by the defendant.

That the Property Settlement Agreement entered into between the plaintiff and defendant and submitted to the Court, be, and the same is hereby approved by the Court.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on this ___ day of November, 1948, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through one of her attorneys of record, and the defendant having been served with summons and complaint in this action by publication of summons, pursuant to the order of this Court, and the defendant having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant having been entered for his failure to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by Law, and the plaintiff having filed herein her affidavit setting forth that said defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity, and the Court having heard the evidence introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

I.

That the said defendant was served with summons in this action pursuant to the order of this Court by publication of summons in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, the first publication being on August 25, 1948, and the last publication being on September 22, 1948, as appears from the Affidavit of Publication on file herein; that a copy of said summons and complaint was mailed to the defendant at his last known address, to-wit, Pasco, Washington; that the said defendant failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all.

II.

That the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States in any capacity whatsoever and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended.

III.

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Atchinson, Kansas, on December 25, 1946, and are now and ever since have been, husband and wife.

IV.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than six weeks immediately filing the complaint in this action an actual bona fide resident of Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho.

V.

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

VI.

That the plaintiff and the defendant have acquired no property during the existence of said marriage and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action.

VII.

That the said defendant, C. Norman Kirk, has during the year last past been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That the defendant has been subject to uncontrollable paroxysms of rage and violence during which he has struck this plaintiff; that the defendant has refused to remain with any one employment but has unnecessarily moved the plaintiff seven times during the past year; that on or about the 5th day of March, 1948, the defendant, in total disregard of his marital obligations toward this plaintiff, did wilfully and without cause desert and abandon this plaintiff, and ever since has and still continues to so wilfully and without cause desert and abandon said plaintiff and to live separate and apart from her, without any cause or reason.

RAY E. DURHAM
LAWYER
LEWISTON, IDAHO

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court condludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

This cause coming on regularly for trial before the court this day, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, J. H. Felton and William J. Jones; the defendant appearing by his attorney, John W. Cramer; issue having been joined herein by filing of the complaint and by the filing of an answer; findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the parties; and an agreement, for the purpose of dividing the community property and providing for the support of the parties' minor child, Alice Delores Stapleton, having been entered into on November 8, 1948, by the parties to the action, the signed original of which is attached to the complaint and made a part thereof by reference; and the court finding that plaintiff's complaint is supported in the manner provided by law; that the property agreement and child support provisions are fair and equitable, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Mae Stapleton, and the defendant, N. H. Stapleton, be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff is awarded an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the agreements entered into between the parties on the 8th day of November, 1948, are approved by the court.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED that the plaintiff, Mae Stapleton, is a fit and proper person and is entitled to have the care, custody and control of the minor child, Alice Delores Stapleton; and the defendant, N. H. Stapleton, is ordered to pay to the ~~Clerk of the Court of the Tenth Judicial District~~ Sheriff of Ney Perce County the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) on or before the 5th day of each month hereafter until further order of the court, as support money for Alice Delores Stapleton. Action No. 2607

Filed and entered Nov. 5, 1948

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 5th day of November, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Brady V. Faris, was duly and regularly served with process herein by service made upon him in the County of Elko, State of Nevada, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit, showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either Army or Navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and this Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceeding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that Plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 22nd day of February, 1948, and continuously since that date have lived and are now living separate and apart; that the defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel manner as alleged in said complaint and caused her great mental suffering, humiliation and shame, and that such acts were wilful; that none of the acts of the defendant were caused by any act or thing on the part of the plaintiff; that the defendant for more than one year last past has been guilty of habitual intemperance and during that time used intoxicating liquor to that degree that he was during said period of time disqualified a great portion of the time from properly attending to business, and also to that degree which did in fact the whole of such time inflict a course of great mental anguish upon the plaintiff; that all the property rights between the plaintiff and defendant have been fully taken care of by them and there is now no property right to be determined by this court; the Court, therefore, finds plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant upon the grounds of habitual intemperance of the defendant.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Alta Faris, and the defendant, Brady V. Faris, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of habitual intemperance of the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby, relieved of all obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

That the party of the first part will also convey to the party of the second part, as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, the lease, business, trade fixtures and personalty incorporated in and known as:

The Service Grill, located at 25 North 8th, Payette, Idaho;

It is further understood between the party of the first part and the party of the second part, that payments of $1293.50 have been paid on the real estate which has this date been deeded to the party of the first part, and further that the party of the second part shall make a payment on or about the 8th day of October, 1948, of $1,000.00 upon said realty, and that $293.50 of this $1,000.00 payment shall be subtracted from the one-half share of the bank account of the party of the first part, and that except that $293.50, which is to be deducted from the share of the party of the first part, the bank account on deposit in the First Security Bank of Idaho, in Payette, Idaho, shall be divided evenly between the party of the first part and the party of the second part.

From this time hence the parties hereto will live separate and apart from each other, and it is further provided and agreed that all property which each or either of the parties shall receive from the terms of this agreement shall hereafter constitute his or her separate property, and that the community interest of the parties hereto in all property now owned or hereafter acquired by either of them is hereby dissolved, and all property which either of the parties may hereafter acquired shall be the sole and separate property of the party so acquiring the same. It is expressly understood and agreed that any and all other property not heretofore described which was accummulated by the parties hereto since their marriage is by this instrument set over and assigned to the party of the first part as her sole and separate property, free and clear of any claim on the same by party of the second part.

It is further expressly understood and agreed that this instrument shall constitute and be considered a complete property division between the parties, defining the futurs rights and demands upon each other, and that in the divorce action there shall be no claim for alimony, as attorney's fees, court costs and alimony have been adjusted by these presents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

HELEN H. ROBBINS, :

Plaintiff, :

vs. : DECREE OF DIVORCE

WALLACE E. ROBBINS, :

Defendant, :

THIS CAUSE came regularly on for hearing upon the plaintiff's verified complaint, before the Court this 10th day of November, 1948, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, L. E. Haight, and the defendant failing to appear, either by counsel or in person, the default of defendant having heretofore been entered according to law, and the defendant having by his default waived Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and the Court having heard the testimony of the Plaintiff and her witness, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the defendant has been regularly served with summons and complaint in this case, and that he has failed to answer or demur or in anywise plead to plaintiff's complaint; and the Court further finds,

That all of the allegations of the Plaintiff's complaint are true and have been proven by competent testimony, and the Court further finds,

That the cause of action set forth in Plaintiff's complaint arose within the State of Idaho, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, Helen H. Robbins, and the Defendant, Wallace E. Robbins, be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant be required to pay to the Plaintiff, for her support, and the support of her minor child of this marriage, the sum of $25.00 per month.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Defendant, Wallace E. Robbins, has no claim whatsoever of any kind or nature against the Plaintiff, Helen H. Robbins, for monies, property-real or personal, or anything arising out of or by reason of the said marriage relation.

DATED this 10th day of November, 1948.

Case No. 2551
Judgment No. 5
Filed Nov. 22 1948
Lyal Stuart Clerk
Helen Clemmetts Deputy

This matter coming on for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge, sitting without a jury, the plaintiff being present in person and by her attorney, Samuel Adelstein, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by an attorney, and said defendant having heretofore duly made and executed his Appearence and Waiver, and pursuant thereto a Clerk's Default having been duly taken and entered herein in the manner as provided by law;

Thereupon the Court proceeded to examine the files, records and proceedings had in this cause, and from such examination it appears that summons duly issued, and that said defendant accepted personal service thereof, and thereafter duly made and executed his Appearence and Waiver; and that the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject-matter hereof;

That thereupon plaintiff and her witness as to her residence, each were duly and regularly sworn and each testified in support of the allegations of the complaint; and after hearing such testimony so offered and received and after being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are hereby severed, and each of the said parties released from the obligations thereof, and each be restored to their status of unmarried persons. And that plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of: Mae Young.

Dated, this 19th day of November, 1948, at Chambers, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho.

This cause came on regularly to be heard the 1st day of November, A. D. 1948, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above-entitled court, sitting without a jury upon a complaint of the plaintiff herein taken as confessed by the defendant for failure to appear and answer to the verified complaint of plaintiff on file herein. W. L. Tuson appeared as attorney for plaintiff and defendant did not appear. It appeared to the above-entitled court that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process and that said service was duly made by being served upon the defendant personally and the default of the defendant for not appearing, answering or in anywise pleading in said cause, was duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of his complaint and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, the court considering the aforesaid testimony together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and that the plaintiff be and he is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, THat defendant be and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of Ronald E. Hakala, minor child of plaintiff and defendant with right of visitation at reasonable times in plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That plaintiff pay to defendant the amount of Sixty ($60.00) Dollars per month as support for the care, education and maintenance of said minor child until the further order of this court.

Millie C. Tipton, Plaintiff, No. 10576

vs. DECREE

John H. Tipton, Defendant.

The above entitled action came regularly on to be heard at Wallace, Idaho, before Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, judge of the said court, in chambers. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her counsel, H. E. Worstell. The defendant did not appear in person and was not represented by counsel.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the court from an examination of the record and files in this case that, pursuant to an order by the clerk for the service of the summons herein by publication, the summons herein had been duly and regularly published for the statutory time in the newspaper designated in the said order of publication and in the manner stated in said order. That also a copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint were mailed to the defendant at his last known address on August 17, 1948, as required by the said order, and proof thereof filed herein, together with the publisher's affidavit of publication of the summons.

That the defendant did not appear in said action or demur to or answer the complaint within the time allowed by law after the completion of the service of the summons by publication, and the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered and endorsed upon the complaint.

The plaintiff and a witness on her behalf were called, sworn and examined and testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises and of the facts of this action, and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law by the court having been waived by the failure of the defendant to appear at the trial and the entry of his default, the court now makes, renders and causes to be entered the following judgment and decree, to wit:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Millie C. Tipton, and the defendant, John H. Tipton, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and annulled, and that the said parties be, and they hereby are, restored to the state of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the name of Millie C. Clark, which was the name of the plaintiff prior to her marriage to the defendant, be, and the said name hereby is, again given to the plaintiff, with the full legal right to immediately resume the use of the same.

Mr. John J. Peacock appeared as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court, that the defendant was duly and regularly served with process, and that said defendant was served with said process at Iola, Allen County, Kansas, and that the defendant having not appeared or answered said Complaint, the default of said defendant was thereupon duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Complaint, and after having heard the same the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, after a brief statement by the plaintiff's counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony and statement of counsel, together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED,

- - - - -

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 5th day of November, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, H. J. Hull, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that service of Summons herein had been made upon the defendant by the publication and mailing thereof in the manner provided by law and in accordance with the order of this Court entered herein on the 17th day of September, 1948, and the defendany not having appeared herein within the time provided by law, or at all, his default was duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appeared from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint, and the Court being then fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises, and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Thela Murphy Girdner, and defendant, Garlen Girdner, be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. The defendant is required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 as and for attorney's fees herein, together with the costs and disbursements of this action hereby taxed in the sum of $18.20, making a total of $118.20.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the plaintiff do have and take judgment against the defendant for the said sum of $118.20.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above-entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 15th day of November, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, Dale Austin, and the defendant appeared through, and was represented by, her attorney of record, Herman J. Rossi.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process in the County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, and had appeared herein by counsel and answered to plaintiff's complaint. That said cause was set for trial and the Court thereupon proceeded to hear the same.

Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his complaint, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein it's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

Featherstone, Judge of the above-entitled Court, sitting without a jury, and it appearing to the court that the said defendant heretofore appeared in said cause by demurrer and that said demurrer was heretofore over-ruled by the above-entitled court, and the defendant having refused to further appear or plead in said cause, the default of said defendant for his failure to further appear or plead having heretofore been entered, the plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, W. L. Tuson, and the defendant did not appear.

WHEREUPON, the court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint and after having heard the same, the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, the court, considering the aforesaid testimony, together with the papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and that the plaintiff be and is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the Stipulation for Marriage Settlement entered into by and between plaintiff and defendant be and the same is hereby approved, and it is hereby ordered that said Stipulation be made a part of this Decree as though fully set forth herein.

Done in open court this 16th day of November, 1948.

This matter came regularly on to be heard on the 16th day of November, 1948, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Sennett S. Taylor; the defendant did not appear and was not represented by counsel, And it appearing from the records and files herein that summons was regularly and duly served upon the defendant and that thereafter her default was entered herein for the reason of her failure to answer or otherwise plead to the plaintiff complaint within the time allowed her by law for so doing.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were duly called, sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff, and the court having considered the testimony of said witnesses and being now fully advised in the premises, and having heretofore made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

WHEREFORE, in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they hereby are, dissolved and that the plaintiff be, and he hereby is, granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above-entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 18th day of November, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Dale Austin, and there was no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process by publication according to the statutes made and provided in such case. It further appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records, files and the evidence introduced in the cause that the defendant had full and ample opportunity to present any defense that he might have had in this cause as is more fully set out in the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law on file herein.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

DALE AUSTIN
ATTORNEY AT LAW
WALLACE, IDAHO

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Irene E. O'Dell, and the defendant, Grover H. O'Dell, be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. The plaintiff is hereby awarded the exclusive care and custody of Diana Lynn, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, subject only to the right of reasonable visitation at reasonable times in the defendant.

3. The plaintiff is hereby awarded the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) per month as support money for said minor child.

This cause came regularly on to be heard this 18 day of November, 1948, before the Honorable Albert R. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, upon a Complaint of the plaintiff, taken as confessed by the defendant by his failure to appear and answer the verified Complaint of the plaintiff on file herein. Mr. T. P. Wormward appeared as attorney for the plaintiff and the defendant did not appear; and it having been proved to the satisfaction of the above entitled Court that the defendant was duly served with process, and the default of the defendant for not appearing, answering or in anywise pleading in said cause was duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her Complaint and after having heard the same, the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON, the cause was submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court considered the aforesaid testimony, together with all papers, records and files herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby absolutely dissolved, and the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That plaintiff herein be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of said parties, namely: Kathleen Miller of the age of 7 years; Bonnie Jean Trimmer of the age of 6 years; and Clyde James Trimmer, of the age of 2 years, and that defendant is hereby ordered to pay the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 per month for the support of said minor children.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That plaintiff be awarded the community property of said parties, as follows: electric stove; electric; hot-water tank; electric radio and phonograph; radio stand; beds; two dressers and one oil stove.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That defendant herein pay the amount of $150.00 to plaintiff as reasonable attorney's fees for the prosecution of this action.

This matter came on regularly for hearing at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 15th day of ~~November~~ October, 1948, before the undersigned District Judge, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M., sitting without a jury. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and defendant having been duly and regularly served with process herein and having filed herein his acknowledgement of service and consent that his default be entered forthwith, and his default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and by witnesses in her behalf. The Court being fully advised, and having duly considered the evidence, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty and wilful neglect, and is also entitled to the care, custody and control of Denny Hyde, the minor child of the parties.

It is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and each of the parties is hereby restored to the status of a single, unmarried person; and that the care, custody and control of Denny Hyde, the minor child of the said parties be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said minor child at reasonable times.

Entered NOV 19 1948

This matter coming on for hearing before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the Judges of this Court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 29th day of October, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, J. H. Blandford, Twin Falls, Idaho, and it appearing to the Court that defendant has in writing accepted service of summons and has waived the statutory time within which he has to plead to said complaint and has consented to the entry of default against him, and the default of defendant having been duly entered and filed herein, and oral and documentary evidence having been adduced on behalf of plaintiff in support of her complaint and the matter having been submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court having taken said matter under advisement; and it appearing to the Court that the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true, namely, that plaintiff and defendant were married at Great Falls, Montana, on January 31, 1933, and ever since said date have been and now are husband and wife; that during the existence of said marriage relation four children have been born to plaintiff and defendant, namely, Billie Lou Eiselein, 13 years of age; Joe Eiselein, Jr., 7 years of age; James E. Eiselein, 3 years of age; and Robert C. Eiselein, 1 year of age; and that said children are now in the custody of plaintiff who is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor children; that defendant has without cause treated plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner which has caused plaintiff great mental anguish; and that plaintiff has resided in the State of Idaho at least six weeks prior to the commencement of this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. H. Blandford, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are dissolved and said parties forever freed from the obligations thereof; and that plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

2. That plaintiff be and she hereby is given the care, custody and control of Billie Lou Eiselein, Joe Eiselein, Jr., James E. Eiselein and Robert C. Eiselein, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, the defendant to have the right to visit said children at reasonable times; that plaintiff shall not remove said children from the jurisdiction of this Court without the consent of this Court.

3. That defendant shall pay to plaintiff for the support of said minor children the sum of $65.00 per week, beginning November 2, 1948,

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing on the 1st day of November, 1948, before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court, sitting in open court, the plaintiff being represented by her attorneys, Rayborn & Rayborn, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel.

And it appearing to the Court that the defendant has heretofore been duly and regularly served with Summons and copy of Complaint in the above entitled action, and has filed herein his acceptance of Service, and has refused to plead to or answer plaintiff's complaint and has consented that his default may be entered herein, and that the default of said defendant for such failure to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint has been duly entered by the Clerk of the above entitled court according to law;

Thereupon evidence was introduced and admitted from which it appears that each and all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been established by competent evidence and the allegations of plaintiff's complaint as to her residence have been duly corroborated by competent testimpny;

And the Court being fully advised in the premises, on Motion of attorneys for plaintiff;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows, to-wit;

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff Adell Martin, and the defendant, Cecil Martin, be and they are hereby dissolved and the parties hereto restored to the status of unmarried persons.

DISTRICT COURT
ELEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho
FILED NOV 12 1948
Doris Oliver CLERK
DEPUTY CLERK
Entered NOV 12 1948

This cause came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 5th day of November, 1948, before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, District Judge, Leota Don Carlos, plaintiff, appearing in person and by her attorney, Frank L. Stephan, Esquire, and the defendant, Lee Don Carlos, having been served with due and legal process in this action and having on the 19th day of October, 1948, admitted and accepted service of a copy of the Summons issued out of the above entitled Court in the above entitled case attached to a copy of the Complaint filed in the above entitled case, and having entered his appearance in the above entitled action and consented that his default in said action be entered forthwith, and having in said Acceptance of Service acknowledged that he is not now and never has been engaged in the military service of the United States of America, and the default of said defendant in the premises having been entered according to law, witnesses on the part of the plaintiff were regularly sworn and examined in support of the allegations contained in plaintiff's Complaint, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from the evidence in the case that plaintiff and defendant are husband and wife, and that plaintiff and defendant are now and for more than ten year's last past and immediately preceding the commencement of this action have been bona fide residents of the State of Idaho, and that all the material averments of the Complaint in said action are sustained by testimony free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and that matters so alleged in said Complaint and proved on behalf of the plaintiff are sufficient in law to entitle plaintiff to a judgment and Decree of Divorce against the defendant on the grounds of cruelty;

NOW, ON MOTION of Frank L. Stephan, Esquire, Attorney for plaintiff herein,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That by virtue of the power and authority in this Court vested and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the marriage existing between Leota Don Carlos, plaintiff herein, and Lee Don Carlos, defendant herein, be dissolved, and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly, and said plaintiff and said defendant are, and each of them is, hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations and disabilities thereof and hereby restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That plaintiff Leota Don Carlos be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the two minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, Patty Lou Don Carlos, daughter, born July 25, 1941 and William Lee Don Carlos, son, born October 21, 1930, and that defendant, Lee Don Carlos, be and he is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of Sixty Dollars ($60.00) per month commencing December 1, 1948, as alimony for plaintiff and for the support, maintenance and education of said Patty Lou Don Carlos until the said Patty Lou Don Carlos shall have reached her majority or shall have married, which ever event first occurs.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the Property Settlement Agreement dated October 19, 1948, made by and between the above named parties be, and the same is hereby approved, and the said plaintiff, Leota Don Carlos, is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property and estate, free from any community interest of defendant, the following described real and personal property, to-wit:

> Lots One (1) and Two (2) in Block Thirty-three (33) of Filer Townsite, according to the official plat thereof on file and of record in the Office of the County Recorder of Twin Falls County, Idaho, together with the improvements located thereon;
> All furniture, furnishings and equipment used in and about and located in the dwelling house situate on the above described real property, and the said defendant, Lee Don Carlos, is hereby awarded as his sole and separate property, free from any community interest of said plaintiff, the following described personal property, to-wit:

> A 1939 Plymouth Sedan, Motor Number P8-163,677, Serial Number 3233713, Title Number 477867 (Idaho);
> Carpenter tools used by defendant in his trade.

This cause came on regularly for trial before the above entitled Court, at the Court Room thereof, in the County Court House, in the City of Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, upon the date at the foot hereof. The plaintiff appeared in person and by and through her attorneys of record, Rayborn and Rayborn, and the defendant appeared by and through his attorney of record, Ray D. Agee.

Whereupon, witnesses were duly sworn and examined and documentary evidence introduced and admitted, including a property settlement agreement, dated November 3, 1948, made and entered into between the parties hereto, wherein and whereby it is agreed that their property rights and interests have been settled and adjusted, as hereinafter set forth and decreed, including the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties hereto, namely, Ikie Gerald Heidemann, and the evidence, being closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision and, after due deliberation thereon, the Court hereby finds and decides: That there is, as the issue of the marriage, between plaintiff and defendant, one minor child, namely, Ikie Gerald Heidemann; that said minor child is now in the care, custody and control of the defendant, within Twin Falls County, State of Idaho; that the defendant is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor child; that said property settlement is fair, equitable and just and should be approved and confirmed; and the parties hereto having, by written consent filed with the Clerk of this Court, duly waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, and the Court, being now fully advised both in the law and in the premises, hereby makes and enters its judgment and decree as follows:

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Bertha Heidemann, and the defendant, Lauren Heidemann, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligations thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement, a copy of which is annexed to the defendant's cross-complaint herein, be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and that said property settlement, as contained in said agreement, be, and the same is hereby, in all respects, approved and confirmed.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of said minor child, namely, Ikie Gerald Heidemann, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the defendant, Lauren Heidemann, as long as he shall properly care for, raise, educate, support and maintain it; that the plaintiff, Bertha Heidemann, be, and she is hereby, given and granted the right to visit with said minor child, at any and all reasonable times, and that she be, and she is hereby, given and granted the right to have said minor child visit with her for short periods of time from time to time, when such visits do not interfere with the care or education of said minor child, provided however, that the said plaintiff shall never, at any time, take or remove said minor child from Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, and that the plaintiff, Bertha Heidemann, be, and she is hereby, restrained and enjoined from, at any time, taking or removing said minor child from Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, and that the defendant shall not remove said child from said county without advising the plaintiff of its whereabouts.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the restraining order heretofore issued out of the above entitled Court, in the above entitled action, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, vacated and discharged, and that the defendant and the property, hereinafter mentioned and referred to, and each and every part thereof, be, and the defendant and said property are hereby, released and forever discharged of and from said restraining order.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property, hereinafter described and/or mentioned, and each and every part thereof, and each and every interest therein, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the defendant, Lauren Heidemann, as his sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the plaintiff, Bertha Heidemann, therein or thereto, to wit:

That certain real property, lying, situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, particularly described as follows:

> Beginning at a point on the South boundary line of lot seven in block four of Albert Tract, which point is seventy-five feet East of the Southwest corner of said lot seven, and running thence East, along the South boundary line of said lot seven, a distance of sixty-two and one-half feet; thence in a Northerly direction, parallel with the West boundary line of said lot seven, to the Northerly boundary line of said lot seven; thence in a Northwesterly direction, along the most Northerly boundary line of said lot seven, to a point which is due North of the point of beginning; thence in a Southerly direction, parallel with the West boundary line of said lot seven, to the point of beginning; together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, water rights and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining; together with the rents, issues and profits thereof.

And that certain personal property, now situate and being in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, or elsewhere, described as follows:

Six thousand one hundred pound bags of potatoes, more or less. All beans, now in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or the partnership of said Lauren Heidemann and Gerald Heidemann. All beets now owned by, in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership. All hay and grain now in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership. Three tractors. Two hay balers. One combine. All cultivators, plows, farm machinery and equipment of every kind, character or description now in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership. One GMC truck. One GMC pickup. One 1947 Buick convertible automobile. One Dodge coupe. One Ford tractor. Three rugs. One radio. All household and kitchen furniture, fixtures and equipment now in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership. One bedroom set. One electric stove. One refrigerator. One livingroom set. One diningroom set. One washing machine. All baled hay now in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership. All accounts and obligations receivable, which are owing to, payable to, or owned by said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership. All bank accounts in the name of, belonging to, owned by, or payable to said Lauren M. Heidemann, Gerald Heidemann and/or said partnership. Fifteen head of cattle. All of the entire interest of said Lauren M. Heidemann and Bertha Heidemann of, in, and to the partnership of Lauren M. Heidemann and Gerald Heidemann, of, in, and to all property of said partnership. Together with any and all stocks, bonds, checks, notes, drafts, mortgages, crops, machinery, tools, equipment, household furniture, rings, cash, jewelry, livestock and/or other personal property of every kind, character and/or description now in the possession of or under the control of said Lauren M. Heidemann and/or said partnership.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the sum of five thousand dollars, which has heretofore been paid by the defendant to the plaintiff, be, and the same is hereby, set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Bertha Heidemann, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Lauren Heidemann, therein or thereto.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby, restored to her former name, to wit: Bertha Shaw.

THIS MATTER Came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge, sitting without a jury, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M., on the 19th day of November, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney. The defendant having been duly and regularly served with process herein and the time allowed by law to plead thereto having expired and the defendant having failed to file any appearance or pleading, and his default having been duly entered according to law, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and by witnesses in her behalf. The Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter, finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty as prayed in her complaint; That the parties to this action are the owners of a trailer house and furniture therefor, on which there is an indebtedness of $15.00, also a clock and radio; that the said parties have entered into an agreement whereby the trailer house and furniture, subject to said indebtedness of $15.00, shall be the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, and that said clock and radio shall be the sole and separate property of the defendant.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they hereby are dissolved, and each of said parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person, and plaintiff is hereby restored to her former name of Artie Vada Eaton.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the trailer house and furniture therefor belonging to the parties be, and the same hereby are, awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property; and that the said clock and radio of the parties be, and they hereby are, awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property.

ORDER MODIFYING DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled matter came on regularlly for hearing before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, on Saturday, November 20, 1948, at 10:00 o'clock P. M. on petition for modification of that certain decree of divorce heretofore entered in the above entitled Court on the 15th day of October, 1937, and subsequently modified on August 1, 1944 in the action entitled Velma V. Brown vs Arthur E. Brown, filed in said above entitled Court on the 3d day of September, 1948, and the petition for leave to intervene filed on behalf of Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, plaintiffs in intervention on the 8th day of October, 1948, requesting the modification of said decree of divorce as modified for the care custody and control of Nellie Brown and Rudell Brown, minor children of Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma B. Brown and Arthur E. Brown and the petition for leave to intervene having been, by the Court, granted and the order of intervention herein having limited the effect of any modification thereof as to such custody and control to the cause of action between the said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown and Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, plaintiffs in intervention and said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown, plaintiff and Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, plaintiffs in intervention having by and through their counsel stipulated and agreed that said decree of divorce heretofore entered on the 15th day of October, 1937 and modified on the 1st day of August, 1944, might be modified by granting to said plaintiffs, Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown, the sole custody, care and control of the said minor child, Nellie Brown and by granting to Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, maternal grandparents, the sole custody and control of the minor child, Eudell Brown and have further stipulated to a waiver of time for trial and notice of setting thereof, the said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown appearing in person and by and through her attorneys H. B. Clark and Guy L. Kinney and the plaintiffs in intervention, Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, appearing in person and by their attorney, Lawrence B. Quinn and witnesses having been called, sworn and examined as to the fitness of the said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown, to have the custody and care of the said minor child, Nellie Brown and witnesses having been likewise called, sworn and examined as to the fitness of the said Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, maternal grandparents of Eudell Brown to have the sole care, custody and control of Eudell Brown as between the said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown, plaintiff and Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, plaintiffs in intervention and the Court now being fully advised in the premises;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the said minor child, Nellie Brown, of plaintiff and defendant in said action to-wit, Velma V. Brown, now Velma V. Bodenstab and Arthur E. Brown and that the said Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, Idaho, the maternal grandparents of the minor child, Eudell Brown of Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown and Arthur E. Brown are fit and proper persons to have and to be awarded the sole custody, care and control of said minor child, Eudell, Brown and the best interest and welfare of said minor children, Nellie Brown and Eudell Brown would be best served by awarding the sole care, custody and control of said minor child, Nellie Brown to her mother, Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown and that the best interests and welfare of said minor child, Eudell Brown would be best served by awarding the sole care, custody and control of said minor child to his maternal grandparents, Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, Twin Falls, Idaho;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That said decree of divorce entered in the above entitled Court and cause on the 15th day of October, 1937, and subsequently modified and the decree of modification having been entered in the above entitled Court and cause on the 1st day of August, 1944, be and the same is hereby modified as follows to-wit:

> That Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown, the mother of said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Nellie Brown, be and she is hereby awarded the sole care, custody and control of said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Nellie Brown until further order of this court; and that the plaintiffs in intervention, Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, maternal grandparents, shall not intervene or molest the care, custody and control of said minor child, Nellie Brown as herein granted without the consent of said Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown or visit or interfere with said child without her said consent.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That said decree of divorce entered in the above entitled Court and cause on the 15th day of October, 1937, and subsequently modified and the decree of modification having been entered in the above entitled Court and cause on the 1st day of August, 1944, be and the same is hereby modified as follows to-wit:

> That Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, the maternal grandparents of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit Eudell Brown, be and they are hereby awarded the sole care, custody and control of said minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit, Eudell Brown until further order of this Court and that the plaintiff, Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown shall not interfere or molest the care, custody and control of said minor child, Eudell Brown as herein granted without the consent of said Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, or visit or interfere with said child without their said consent.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff, Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma B. Brown, shall pay to said plaintiffs in intervention the sum of Seventy-five and no/100 ($75.00) D ollars as attorney fees for the services performed by plaintiffs'in intervention attorney in defending against the petition for modification of decree and judgment entered in the above entitled matter on the 15th day of October, 1937, and as subsequently modified on August 1, 1944.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That said decree of divorce entered on the 15th day of October, 1937, and as modified on August 1, 1944, is in all respects retained and confirmed and that said decree as modified on August 1, 1944, having been duly confirmed as provided by the remittature from the Supreme Court of the State of Idaho in said action, filed at Boise, Idaho, January term, 1946, on February 14, 1946, by the taking of evidence as to the fitness and willingness of the maternal grandparents to accept the custody of said minor children, Nellie Brown and Eudell Brown, that said decree heretofore modified on August 1, 1944, is in all respects confirmed as to the parties before this Court, to-wit: Velma V. Bodenstab, formerly Velma V. Brown and Jesse O. Smith and Addie B. Smith, plaintiffs in intervention.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That this decree of modification shall in no wise effect the parental rights of the said Arthur E. Brown as to any matters subsequent to the modification of the decree herein entered on the 1st day of August, 1944 and as provided in the opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of Idaho, entered at Boise, January term 1946, filed February 14, 1946 as shown by the remittatur on file in this action.

Baker, a Judge of the above-entitled Court, sitting in open court, in the Court Room in the County Court House at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 12th day of November, 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, H. B. Clark, Esq., of Twin Falls, Idaho; and the defendant not appearing in person or by an attorney; and

IT APPEARING TO THE COURT that regular and proper summons has been issued and duly served on the defendant; that an instrument acknowledging personal service of said summons and a copy of the complaint herein, waiving time to appear and answer herein, and consenting to immediate entry of default for failure to appear and answer herein, has been executed and acknowledged by defendant and filed herein; and that default of the defendant has been entered herein, which said default is hereby confirmed and approved by the Court;

WHEREUPON, testimony having been introduced by and in behalf of plaintiff in support of her complaint, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks last past has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that there are two children, the issue of said marriage, to wit: Richard James Bishop, son, aged 11 years, and George Lawrence Bishop, son, aged 8 years; that the parties have certain community property as mentioned in plaintiff's complaint; that defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards plaintiff and has wilfully neglected plaintiff for more than one year prior to the commencement of this action; that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have custody of said minor children, and is entitled to custody of said children and to the property of the parties as prayed for in said complaint; that defendant is able to pay plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor children; and that said sum is a reasonable sum for their support according to the ability of defendant to contribute thereto;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED, DECREED AND ORDERED as follows:

1. That the marital relation heretofore and now existing between the said plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff be, and she is hereby, forever divorced from said defendant.

2. That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of said minor children, Richard James Bishop and George Lawrence Bishop, and that the defendant be permitted to visit and see said children at reasonable times, subject to and until the further order of this Court.

3. That the property mentioned in plaintiff's complaint be, and the same is hereby, awarded to plaintiff, except personal clothing and effects of the defendant and a certain second-hand automobile.

4. That the defendant herein pay to the plaintiff herein the sum of $50.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor children, from the rendition of this decree until the elder of said children shall attain his majority, and thereafter the sum of $25.00 per month until the younger of said children shall attain his majority, subject to further order of this Court.

Dated at Twin Falls, Idaho, this 26th day of November, 1948.

By Doris Oliver Deputy Clerk
Entered NOV 26 1948

The above-entitled action came on regularly for hearing at the Twin Falls County Courthouse in Twin Falls, Idaho, on November 26, 1948, before Hon. Hugh A Baker, District Judge, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Graydon W. Smith and Leonard H. Jacob, and the defendant appearing by and through his counsel, Rayborn and Rayborn;

It appearing to the Court that the defendant, by and through his counsel, Rayborn and Rayborn, has made a motion to withdraw his demurrer filed herein and having refused to plead further and having consented that the default of the defendant should be entered for failure to appear and answer within the time allowed by law, and no objection thereto being made by plaintiff and her counsel;

It was ordered that the demurrer be withdrawn, and the default of the defendant be entered for failure to appear and answer within the time allowed by law, and said default is hereby confirmed and approved by the Court;

WHEREUPON, Witnesses were sworn for and on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and evidence introduced in support thereof, and it appearing to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are supported by substantial and competent evidence; and it further appearing that plaintiff and defendant have entered into a Property Settlement Agreement approved by their respective counsel, and said Property Settlement Agreement, copy of which was introduced in evidence as plaintiff's

Exhibit "A" and which is hereinafter set out in full by attaching a copy of said Property Settlement Agreement to this decree of divorce and incorporated herein by reference as though set out at length herein, and which agreement is found by the Court to be just and fair,

WHEREUPON, the matter was submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. That plaintiff be divorced from the defendant,

2. That the Court finds to be just and equitable that certain Property Settlement Agreement between plaintiff and defendant, and hereby approves and confirms said Property Settlement Agreement, and in conformance with said agreement orders defendant to pay to plaintiff for the support of said minor child the sum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month, the first payment due on the 26th day of December, and a like sum on the sameday of each succeeding month.

This cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of this the 4th day of November, 1948. Plaintiff was present in person and by Ed. R. Coulter, his attorney of record, and the following proceedings were had:

It appearing from the return of the sheriff of Washington County that personal service of summons and complaint was had upon the defendant Edna Marie Newsome, within Washington County, Idaho, on the 29th day of May, 1948, and that said defendant has failed to answer or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff;

On motion of Ed. R. Coulter, the attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant Edna Marie Newsome hereby is duly entered.

Thereupon a trial of said action is had. Witnesses are sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff, the taking of evidence is closed and the cause is submitted to the Court for decision.

After due deliberation thereon by the Court the Court finds that the material allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true.

WHEREFORE, by reason of the law and the evidence, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, Jack Noah Newsome, be and hereby he is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Edna Marie Newsome.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the following community property to-wit: Two head of horses, one 1940 Chevrolet sedan, miscellaneous lot of household and kitchen furniture, bedding and equipment, mechanics tools, one saddle and crop of grain grown in 1948 are awarded to the plaintiff, Jack Noah Newsome.

DECREE.

On this the 17th day of November, 1948, the above entitled action came on for trial before the Court, plaintiff being present in person and by her attorney, Frank D. Ryan. The defendant failed to appear in person or otherwise, and is in default, and an affidavit of non-military service having been furnished showing that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or otherwise, on motion of attorney for plaintiff, the default of said defendant is thereupon duly and regularly entered. Thereupon, the plaintiff introduced her evidence, and the Court finds therefrom that there are no children born to said marriage, and that all the allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff sets forth in her complaint and has established by competent evidence that she is entitled to a divorce from said defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty. The Court further finds that the parties hereto did under date of the 17th day of September, 1948, enter into a written agreement pursuant to which they divided the personal property of plaintiff and defendant in accordance with the provisions of said agreement, and defendant paid plaintiff a certain sum in cash as provided in said agreement, pursuant to which plaintiff conveyed to defendant the real estate described in said agreement and described as follows, to-wit:

The Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter and lots three (3) and four (4), which said lots are otherwise described as the West Half of the Northwest Quarter, all said lands being in Section 8, Township 10 North, Range 5 W. B. M. in Washington County, Idaho, consisting of 80 acres more or less, but excepting therefrom a strip of land 25 feet wide used for roadway, described in detail in Book 62 of Deeds at Page 594 of the Deed Records of Washington County, Idaho.

That in accordance with said agreement, the plaintiff is entitled to receive and she has had title conveyed to her of a certain 1948 model Kaiser sedan, and the Court finds that the terms of said agreement and the division of property made therein between the parties is fair and reasonable, and hereby approves the same, and that the property so received by each party in such settlement is the sole and separate property of the one receiving it.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that said plaintiff be and she is hereby divorced from said defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties hereto is hereby dissolved, and the parties restored to the status of single persons, and the parties and each of them is hereby enjoined and restrained from inheriting from or through the other, and from setting up or claiming any interest in the property or earnings one of the other, and that each of the parties shall be entitled to receive and own as his or her separate property, the property agreed upon in said property agreement, which said agreement has been introduced in evidence and marked exhibit "A" and is hereby referred to for further particulars, it being however, decreed that an undivided one have interest in and to the following described real estate situated in Washington County, Idaho, is hereby awarded and decreed to defendant as his sole and separate property, to-wit:

The Northeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter and lots three (3) and four (4), which said lots are otherwise described as the West Half of the Northwest Quarter, all said lands being in Section 8, Township 10 North, Range 5 W.B.M. in Washington County, Idaho, consisting of 80 acres more or less, but excepting therefrom a strip of land 25 feet wide used for roadway, described in detail in Book 62 of Deeds at Page 594 of the Deed Records of Washington County, Idaho.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that by reason of said property settlement so entered into between the parties, that such settlement is in full of all claims of the parties one against the other, and by reason thereof, said plaintiff is not entitled to any alimony or suit money in this action.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the court, sitting without a jury, at Boise, Idaho, September 21, 1948, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M.

The plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorney and witnesses. The defendant appeared in person and with his attorney and witnesses.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of plaintiff, and cross-examined on behalf of the defendant, and documentary evidence was received, and plaintiff rested her case. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of defendant and cross-examined, and documentary evidence was received and defendant rested his case. All the testimony being closed, the case was submitted for decision and was taken under advisement by the court.

The court being now fully advised, all matter considered makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

The court finds as facts:

1. The plaintiff is now and for more than one year before the commence ment of this action has been a bona fide resident of Ada County, State of Idaho.

2. The plaintiff Lela Smith and the defendant George Smith intermarried at Boise, Idaho, October 1, 1939, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

3. There are no children living the issue of said marriage.

RIEL L. CROWLEY
BOISE, IDAHO

4. During the course of the said marriage, the parties hereto have acquired and own the real property consisting of Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in Block 26, Dundee First Subdivision, in Ada County, State of Idaho, as community property.

5. During the course of the said marriage, the parties hereto have acquired, and own, as community property, one 1947 Dodge Automobile.

6. The Plaintiff is the owner in her own right of a savings account, which is her separate property, and in which defendant has no interest whatever.

7. The plaintiff and defendant have acquired household furnishings and equipment located in and about the premises aforesaid, which are community property; and except as hereinafter specifically set forth, the remainder of the said household goods, furnishings and equipment are the separate property of the plaintiff, acquired before her marriage to the defendant, or with proceeds of her separate property, and in such separate property the defendant has no interest.

8. The defendant has received of the separate property and estate of the plaintiff, the sum of $2,211.00, out of the proceeds of the sale of the previous residence of the plaintiff, owned by her before the marriage of the parties, located at 1706 North 23rd Street, in Boise, Idaho and improved during the marriage.

9. The defendant borrowed from the plaintiff, has never repaid, and is indebted to her in the sum of $500.00 advanced to him as a loan out of her separate savings account.

10. The plaintiff and defendant, out of the community earnings, paid off, on the premises located at 1706 North 23rd Street, in Boise, Idaho, a mortgage of $1750. 00, and improved the said premises.

11. The defendant has a bank account standing in his name of $600.84.

ARIEL L. CROWLEY
BOISE, IDAHO

12. The parties own, as community property, 5 shares of Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mining Company stock, and 83 shares of Sunshine Mining Company stock.

13. The plaintiff is 44 years of age, and is unwell, and not able to support herself fully by her own labor.

14. The defendant is an able bodied man of the age of 35 years, fully able to support himself, mentally and physically.

15. The defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty to the plaintiff, as charged in the complaint, and in particula r has treated the plaintiff with such cruelty as to inflict upon her great mental and physical suffering and distress, particularly in that he maintained an offensive, argumentative and unreasonable attitude toward plaintiff; he has told her he didn't love her; he has told her he intended to get a divorce on grounds which he would pretend, but which did not in fact exist; he has become violent in exhibition of unreasonable displays of temper and failed to keep himself in control; he broke in the door of the residence of the parties; violently assaulted a pet dog of the plaintiff to which she was much attached, striking it on the head with a heavy instrument; he has left the plaintiff for long periods without kissing her good-bye or writing to her; he neglected her when ill; he failed to keep appointments by reason of his ungoverned temper; and he permanently left the plaintiff, while giving way to a fit of temper, on July 6, 1948, since which time the parties have not cohabited.

16. The plaintiff's former name was Lela Roberts.

17. The defendant is the owner in his separate right of his clothing , his personal books; 1 typewriter, 2 blankets, 1 small radio, the said bank account in the sum of $600.84, 1 heirloom table, 1 walnut desk, 1 painting of Central Park.

18. Except as herein stated, the court finds the evidence insufficient to identify any items of the property of the parties as separate property of either.

RIEL L. CROWLEY
BOISE, IDAHO

19. The household goods which are community property, with the separate property of the plaintiff, and the whole of the residence property, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in Block 26, Dundee First Subdivision, in Ada County, State of Idaho, are necessary for the use and support of the plaintiff,

20. The court finds against the defendant on his cross-complaint, and specifically finds that the defendant did not do all he could, as alleged by him, to make his step-son happy and provide him with proper education and raising; that the plaintiff did not contimually side with her son and object to efforts of defendant to make the boy obedient and considerate of others; the plaintiff did not continually nag at nor quarrel with the cross-complaint except by his fault; that the plaintiff did not become unreasonably angry with the defendant by reason of her son's proposed engagement and marriage; that the plaintiff has not sought at any time to deprive the defendant of any part of his separate property.

UPON THE FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACTS, THE COURT makes the following

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The court concludes, as conclusions of law:

1. The plaintiff is entitled to a decree of absolute divorce upon the ground of extreme cruelty inflicted upon her by the defendant.

2. The plaintiff is entitled to an award of the whole of Lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in Block 26, Dundee First Subdivision, in Ada County, State of Idaho, with the appurtenances, and except as set forth in paragraph 3, below, all of the contents of the buildings situate thereon, furniture, fixtures, appliances an appurtenances thereof; and all of the said items are found and adjudged community property, except as to the items thereof which arethe separate property of the plaintiff, and the items set forth in paragraph 3, below.

This cause came on regularly for trial before the court December 3, 1948, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Charles S. Stout, and the defendant appearing by his attorney, Pete Leguineche, whereupon evidence was introduced in support of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, and a property settlement agreement dated November 19, 1948, between said parties was offered, and no evidence was introduced by defendant in support of his answer, and the parties appearing in open court this day by their respective counsel and upon stipulation of counsel a certain property settlement agreement dated December 21, 1948, was offered and admitted in evidence in lieu of said agreement dated November 19, 1948, and the cause submitted to the court for decision, and it appearing to the court that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty as prayed for, and that that certain property settlement agreement dated November 19, 1948, is not fair and equitable and should be disapproved and held for naught, and that that certain property settlement agreement of the parties dated December 21, 1948, is fair and equitable and should be approved as the property settlement agreement of the parties, and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the property of the parties hereto shall be divided as follows:

The wife shall receive and be entitled to all the household furniture, furnishings, draperies, dishes, kitchen utensils and all other personal property of every kind and nature in or used in connection with the family dwelling, or otherwise, except the Radio and Deep Freeze, which Radio and Deep Freeze the husband shall receive and be entitled to.

That the community real estate described as follows, to-wit:

> All of Lot Six (6) and the North Fourteen (14) feet of Lot Five (5) in Block "B" of the Amended Plat of Brumback's Addition to Boise City, Ada County, Idaho, which is subject to a mortgage to the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Boise, Idaho, in the sum of approximately $2400.00 will be sold as soon as possible by the wife, at a price to be determined by her, and from the proceeds of the sale thereof, over and above said mortgage indebtedness, the following debts shall be paid: Dr. Harmon Tremaine $95.00; St. Luke's Hospital $32.75; Montgomery Ward, $278.00; $250.00 to Charles S. Stout, attorney for plaintiff, for services rendered in connection with the property settlement agreement of the parties, and for representing plaintiff in this suit; the sum of $22.60 court costs and the costs and expenses of said sale, including real estate agent's commission, if said property is sold by a real estate agent. That after paying the debts aforesaid, the wife shall receive the entire balance of the net proceeds of the sale of said property. Pending the sale of said property the husband shall pay the monthly payments due Montgomery Ward on said $278.00 debt and make the payments on said mortgage to the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, and the wife shall reimburse the husband for any and all payments so made from and after the 19th. day of November, 1948, at such time as the real property is sold and the purchase money paid. The parties shall join in and execute and deliver all necessary contracts, deeds, conveyances and other instruments necessary to effectuate a sale and conveyance of said real property. The wife shall have the exclusive right to the use and occupancy of said dwelling pending the sale thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the wife shall have the care, custody, and control of the minor children of the parties, to-wit: Harland Milton Radomske, born August 12, 1939, Robert Lee Radomske, born June 3, 1942, Dale Radomske, born December 19, 1947, and Linda Christine Radomske, born November 30, 1944, and their education during their minority without any interference whatsoever on the part of the husband, except that the husband shall have the right to see and visit with said minor children and to have the said children visit him at reasonable times, provided, however, that the wife may refuse leave to the husband to see and visit the said children in the event that he is under the influence of intoxicating liquor in whatever degree. Neither of the parties shall attempt to influence said children unfavorable to the other party.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the husband shall pay to the wife the sum of $50.00 per week for the support and maintenance of herself and said minor children, payable on or before Monday of each week, commencing on or before December 27, 1948, until such time as said real property is sold, and thereafter the sum of $40.00 per week, payable on or before Monday of each week for the support and maintenance of said minor children, being $10.00 a week for each child, payable until each child reaches his or her majority.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That that certain property settlement agreement between the parties hereto, dated November 19, 1948, is hereby declared to be void and of no force and effect, and that certain property settlement agreement between the parties hereto, dated December 21, 1948, is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed as the agreement of the parties.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

This cause came on to be heard in open Court on the 3rd day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person by Creed W. Mullins, his attorney, and the defendant appearing not;

The Court having examined the records and files in this cause and it appearing therefrom that a complaint was duly and regularly filed in the above entitled Court and cause on the 27th day of October, 1948, and the defendant was personally served with Summons in Long Beach, California, on the 9th day of November, 1948, that more than twenty days have elapsed since said service, and the said defendant has failed to answer or otherwise appear herein;

And it appearing further from the affidavit of plaintiff on file herein that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States;

WHEREFORE, Upon motion of Creed W. Mullins, attorney for plaintiff, for a default, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered;

After the entry of the default of said defendant, witnesses were sworn and the plaintiff offered proof in the support of the allegations of his complaint, after which the Court being fully advised in the premises, decided that the plaintiff was entitled to the relief prayed for in his complaint.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 3rd day of December, 1948, before the above entitled Court, Richard M. Mitchell appearing as attorney for the plaintiff herein, and no one appearing for the defendant Roy Rothlisberg, and it appearing that the defendant Roy Rothlisberg was duly served with process herein as required by law on the 6th day of November, 1948, and said defendant not having appeared or answered plaintiff's complaint herein within the time provided by law, or otherwise, and the default of the defendant having been duly entered herein in the manner provided by law, and evidence having been duly introduced on behalf of said plaintiff, at said hearing of this cause, both oral and documentary, including corroborating evidence as required by law, and including that certain property settlement agreement made and entered into between Roy Rothlisberg, husband, and Manilla Rothlisberg, wife, on the 5th day of November, 1948, wherein and whereby a complete disposition of all of the community property of the parties hereto was made, and said cause having been submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision; and the Court having determined after considering all the evidence that the material allegations of the complaint are true; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of Wava Fae Rothlisberg, minor child of the plaintiff and defendant who was born on March 13, 1932; that the defendant, Roy Rothlisberg, prior to the hearing of this cause has made provision for the support of said minor child until she reaches the age of eighteen years, and that the property settlement made and entered into by Roy Rothlisberg and Manilla Rothlisberg on November 5, 1948, whereby a complete disposition of all the community property of the parties hereto was made is fair and equitable, it appearing to the Court that each of said parties were represented by counsel in the preparation of said agreement;

As conclusions of law from the foregoing, the Court finds that the plaintiff, Manilla Rothlisberg, is entitled to a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff, Manilla Rothlisberg, and defendant, Roy Rothlisberg, upon the grounds of extreme cruelty and upon the further grounds of willful desertion; that plaintiff is entitled to the care, custody and control of Wava Fae Rothlisberg, minor daughter of the plaintiff and defendant; and that that property settlement made and entered into by the plaintiff and defendant on November 5, 1948 should be approved and confirmed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff, Manilla Rothlisberg and defendant, Roy Rothlisberg, be and they are hereby dissolved and forever held for naught; that plaintiff be and she is awarded the sole and exclusive custody, care and control of Wava Fae Rothlisberg, minor child of the plaintiff and defendant; and that the property settlement agreement made and entered into between the plaintiff, Manilla Rothlisberg, and the defendant Roy Rothlisberg, on the 5th day of November, 1948, be and the same is hereby confirmed and approved.

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly to be heard on the day of December, 1948, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Thornton D. Wyman, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, W. J. Handley, for failing to appear, answer, or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered herein,

WHEREUPON, Evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's amended complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free and clear from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said amended complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree;

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the marriage of said plaintiff and defendant is null and void from the beginning and said marriage is hereby dissolved, annulled and set aside.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came regularly on for trial on the 3rd day of December, 1948, before the Court without a jury, upon the verified complaint of the plaintiff, David Doane appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person nor by counsel, the default of the defendant having been duly entered for his failure to appear and plead to plaintiff 's complaint, within the time allowed by law, after having been duly served, by publication, with summons and complaint herein, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, as required by law. Whereupon plaintiff and her corroborating witnesses were called, sworn and examined and oral and documantary evidence introduced in her behalf and the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision, and the Court having fully considered the same and being duly advised in all of the law and the premises, hereby finds and decides that all of the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce, as prayed for therein;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony existing between said plain-

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the 3rd day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, eithe r in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed, or neglected, to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of the military servic e of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme mental cruelty, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard on the 3rd day of December, 1948, before the Court without a jury, Elam and Burke appearing for said plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring or appearing has expired, and that the default of said defendant, Esther A. Grady, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law, has been heretofore duly entered herein.

WHEREUPON evidence, duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it further appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and the premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree:

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby forever dissolved.

2. That plaintiff pay the sum of $25.00 per month to defendant for support and maintenance of their minor child until said child shall become of age unless said payments are terminated prior thereto by further order of this Court.

Coughlan, his attorney;

WHEREUPON, testimony having been introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and the plaintiff's residence having been corroborated by the testimony of additional witness and plaintiff having rested and the defendant failing to introduce the testimony of any witnesses or present any evidence in his behalf and having rested, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and having made and entered his findings of fact and conclusions of law and having thereby determined that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the grounds of desertion and extreme cruelty, and having further determined that the plaintiff is entitled to full and complete custody and control of the minor daughter of the parties, namely, Dorothy Margaret Williams;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That the plaintiff, Pauline O. Williams, be and she is hereby granted a full and complete decree of divorce from the defendant, Benjamin F. Williams, on the grounds of desertion and extreme cruelty, and the parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons;

2. That the plaintiff, Pauline O. Williams, be and she is hereby awarded full and complete control and custody of Dorothy Margaret Williams, the minor child of the parties, subject only to the right of the defendant to visit said child at plaintiff's home at reasonable hours and on reasonable occasions;

3. That the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded the sum of $30.00 per month beginning on the 1st day of February, 1949, for the support of said child.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the IO th day of December, I948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint as required by law and had failed, or neglected, to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said action, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer, or plead, to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of the military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme mental cruelty, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and be divorced from the defendant; and it appearing to the Court from the testimony of the plaintiff, that it was the defendant's desire to have her former name, Nina L. Carlton, restored.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(1st) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the defendant's former name, Nina L. Carlton, be, and the same hereby is, restored.

This case coming on for trial before the Court without a jury on this 10th day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and with counsel and the defendant having filed his answer and cross-complaint herein and consenting that this case might be tried at this time without any appearance on his part, witnesses were sworn and testified on behalf of plaintiff and the case submitted to the Court and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the allegations in plaintiff's complaint are true and that she is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff is granted a decree of divorce from defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the care, custody and control of the three minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, John Roger Toolson, Michael Fay Toolson and Katherine Ann Toolson be and the same are hereby awarded to the plaintiff with the right of reasonable visitation upon the part of the defendant and that the defendant pay the plaintiff for the support of said minor children the sum of $80.00 on or before the first day of each month, commencing with the first day of January, 1949, for their support and when the oldest shall reach the age of 18 years said payment shall be reduced one-third and when the other two children reach the age of 18 years said payment shall be discontinued.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all the right, title and interest of the defendant in and to that escrow contract entered into on the 25th day of September, 1946, whereby Arthur R. Thiel and Nina Thiel, his wife, agreed to sell and the plaintiff and defendant agreed to purchase the following described property in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, to-wit:

> Commencing 78 feet South of the Northeast Corner of Block 13 of Resseguie Addition to Boise City, in Ada County, Idaho, thence South 52 feet; thence West 121 feet 9½ inches; thence North 52 feet; thence East 121 feet 9½ inches to place of beginning. Except that portion thereof deeded to Boise City by Deed recorded in Book 55 of Deeds at page 479, records of Ada County, Idaho; and of said property and of the household goods, furniture and fixtures therein be, and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

* * * * *

This cause came on for hearing this date before the above entitled court, the Honorable Charles E. Winstead, District Judge, presiding, the plaintiff appearing by her attorney, John A. Carver, Jr., Esq., of Boise, Idaho, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with process as appears in the records and files in this action and the defendant further having filed his General Appearance and Waiver duly executed and acknowledged from which it appears that the defendant is a member of the Naval Service of the United States and that he has expressly waived notice and time and consents that his default be entered in said action without regard to his Naval Service and refusing to plead in said action,

Upon motion of the attorney for the plaintiff the default from the defendant was duly ordered and entered; and

Upon motion of the attorney for the plaintiff the testimony and evidence heretofore on the 29th day of October, 1948, pursuant to leave requested and granted having been perpetuated, was admitted in evidence and it appearing therefrom to the satisfaction of the judge of this court that each and all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and sustained by competent and legal evidence and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for; and

It further appearing from the said testimony and evidence that the plaintiff and defendant have entered into a separation agreement in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

SEPARATION AGREEMENT

This agreement, made and entered into this 10th day of August, 1948, by and between JEAN H. McPHAIL, of Boise, Idaho, hereinafter known as the Wife, and ORVILLE LEE McPHAIL, of Boise, Idaho, hereinafter known as the Husband,

W I T N E S S E T H

1. Whereas, the parties to this agreement, being husband and wife, have heretofore ceased to live together, and irreconcilable differences which have arisen render it impossible for them hereafter to live together as husband and wife; and

2. Whereas, the parties have as issue of said marriage two children, named Sandra Lee McPhail, born November 18, 1937, and Brenda Jean McPhail, born November 28, 1943; and

3. Whereas, the parties have agreed among themselves on a settlement of all property rights existing between them, and for the welfare of the children, and for the purpose of settling all their differences, and in consideration of the premises, they covenant and agree:

4. Neither of them, the husband and wife, shall molest the other of them, or compel, or endeavor to compel, the other of them to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any legal proceedings for restitution of conjugal rights, or otherwise, howsoever;

5. The husband agrees to convey to the wife, by Quitclaim Deed, all his right, title, and interest in and to the following described real property, to-wit:

> Lots Eleven (11), Twleve (12), and Thirteen (13) of Block Fourteen (14) of Hyde Park Addition to Boise City, in Ada County, Idaho.

6. The husband agrees that all household furniture within the house located on the above described real property shall be the sole and separate property of the wife, and by these presents does grant and convey the same unto her; the wife hereby assumes and agrees to pay all or any portion of the purchase price of (Jean H. McPhail - Orville Lee McPhail) ~~other encumbrance or debt secured by~~ such household furniture due and unpaid.

7. From and after the date of this agreement, neither the husband nor the wife shall have any interest in or to any property real, personal, or mixed, of the other party, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, save as hereinabove provided.

8. The wife shall have the custody and control of the said children, Sandra Lee and Brenda Jean; the husband shall have the right to visit said children at the place where the children and the wife shall be living at reasonable times and for reasonable periods. Neither the husband nor the wife shall exercise any improper influence over the children calculated to impair the natural love and affection which the children should have for both parents.

9. The husband shall pay to the wife for her support and for the support of the said minor children the sum of $100.00 per month, until the oldest of the said children shall attain the age of 18 years; that thereafter the husband shall pay to the wife the sum of $75.00 per month until the younger of the said children shall attain the age of 18 years; that thereafter the husband shall sustain no obligation to the wife, and the liability of the husband for such payments shall terminate; provided however, that the obligation of the husband shall not at any time exceed the amount which legally may be allotted to the wife, including both the portion of such allotment borne by the husband and that borne by the government, by the husband while he is on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, under the provisions of law for allotment to dependents of military and naval personnel.

10. It is expressly understood that should the situation of the husband materially change rendering him unable to continue the payments in the amount herein provided, and particularly should he be discharged from or otherwise leave the military or naval service of the United States, the husband shall have the right to notify the wife of such material change in circumstances, and of his ability to continue the payments in the amounts herein provided, and he shall notify the wife of the amounts which he is able to pay; if the husband and the wife shall be unable to agree on the amounts which should be paid, the dispute shall be submitted to three arbitrators, one to be selected by each party hereto, and the third by the two so selected, and such arbitrators shall determine the amount which the husband shall thereafter pay, and each party hereto expressly agrees to be bound by the decision of a majority of such arbitrators; the arbitrators so selected shall act in pursuance of Chapter 9, Title 13, Idaho Code Annotated, and the award made shall be entered as a decree of the District Court; provided, that with consent of the court, if the parties hereto shall have been in the meantime divorced, the award shall be entered as a decree of the court in the proceedings for divorce.

11. Provided always, and it is hereby agreed, that if the husband and wife shall be reconciled and return to cohabitation, then, and in such case, all the covenants and provisions herein contained shall become void. In case either party applies for a divorce, this agreement shall be in full settlement of all property rights, and shall be offered as a part of the decree, which therein may be granted; provided, that nothing herein shall divest the court of its right to provide for the continuing care, maintenance and support of the minor children of the parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands.

The court finds that the said separation agreement is fair and equitable and ought to be confirmed;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

a. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff Jean H. McPhail and the defendant Orville Lee McPhail be and the same are hereby wholly dissolved, cancelled, set aside and held for naught and that the parties hereto are absolutely divorced and freed from the obligations thereof and restored to the status of single persons;

b. That the plaintiff Jean H. McPhail shall have and she is hereby awarded the custody and control of the minor children of the plaintiff and the defendant, namely Sandra Lee McPhail and Brenda Jean McPhail, and that the defendant, Orville Lee McPhail, shall have the right to visit said children at the place where the children and the wife shall be living at reasonable times and for reasonable periods;

c. The defendant, Orville Lee McPhail, shall pay to the plaintiff, Jean H. McPhail, for her support and for the support of the said minor children the sum of $100.00 per month till the oldest of the said children shall attain the age of 18 years; and thereafter the defendant, Orville Lee McPhail, shall pay to the plaintiff, Jean H. McPhail, the sum of $75.00 per month until the younger of the said children shall attain the age of 18 years; thereafter the husband shall sustain no obligation to the wife and the liability of the husband for such payments shall terminate; provided however, that the defendant, Orville Lee McPhail, shall pay to the plaintiff, Jean H. McPhail for her support and for the support of the said minor children the sum of $92.00 per month while the said defendant shall be on his current enlistment for active duty in the service of the United States Navy.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This case came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Charles E. Winstead in the above entitled Court on the 10th day of December, 1948, plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Claude Marcus of Boise, Idaho; Defendant not appearing nor being represented by counsel. Upon proper showing of service and failure of Defendant to plead to the complaint herein within the time required by law, the default of Defendant was ordered entered herein. Whereupon, testimoney was introduced in behalf of Plaintiff and no testimony was submitted in behalf of Defendant; the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and facts, finds as follows:

I

That Plaintiff is now and has been for more than six full weeks preceding the filing of this action a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That Defendant, James W. Anderson, is not now in the military service of the United States or of any allie in any capacity whatever.

III

That the proof of Plaintiff free from legal objection, establishes the allegations of her complaint as true, and by reason thereof, Plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the above findings of fact, the court does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE as follows:

That Plaintiff, Mildred Anderson, is entitled to, and she is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the Defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, and the bonds of matrimony existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

CASE NO. 21811

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court on the 17th day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

And upon said hearing it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Niel A. Whitney, was personally and duly served with summons herein attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons and on file in this cause, and the defendant has failed to answer, file a demurrer, or otherwise plead to the said complaint, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the said defendant, Niel A. Whitney, having been duly entered according to law; and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the said plaintiff and in support of her complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of said testimony, the Court finds: That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and for more than one year last past been guilty of wilful neglect and that as a result thereof plaintiff is entitled to be divorced from said defendant;

The Court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six (6) weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action;

The Court further finds that there have been born as the issue of said marriage between plaintiff and defendant five (5) children and that four (4) of the said children are minors and that the names and ages of the said minor children are as follows:

Dan Whitney, a boy, age twenty (20);
Delbert Whitney, a boy, age nineteen (19);
Barbara Whitney, a girl, age seventeen (17)
Roger Whitney, a boy, age five (5).

and that the said Roger Whitney is now in the care, custody and control of the said plaintiff and that plaintiff is the fit and proper person to have such custody and control;

The Court further finds that on the 19th day of August, 1948, plaintiff obtained a Decree of Separate Maintenance from defendant and that by such decree plaintiff was awarded the household furniture and defendant was required to pay the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) as plaintiff's share in a 1941 Pontiac Sedan Automobile, motor No. 16-818924, serial No. P-6J816762, which sum was to be paid at the rate of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month, and that plaintiff and defendant have no other community property.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

THAT the said plaintiff shall have a decree as prayed for in her said complaint, and that she be and is hereby forever divorced from said defendant;

THAT the said plaintiff shall have the absolute custody and control of the said minor child, Roger Whitney and that defendant shall have the custody and control of the said Barbara Whitney;

THAT the said plaintiff shall have for her own use and benefit and as her sole an separate property the household furniture and effects located at Hollister, Idaho, and that the said defendant shall pay to the said plaintiff for her interest in the said motor vehicle, the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) being one-half the value thereof, which said sum shall be paid in equal monthly installments of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) each;

THAT defendant shall pay to plaintiff the sum of ~~~~ ~~~~ Dollars as and for attorney fees and the sum of ~~~~ ~~~~ Dollars for Court costs and disbursements.

JUDGMENT

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly to be heard on the 17th day of December, 1948, before the Court without a jury, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Thornton D. Wyman, and the defendant not appearing in person or by counsel, and it appearing to the Court that summons in the above entitled action has heretofore been duly and regularly issued and due service of process had upon said defendant, and that the time for answering, demurring, or appearing has expired; that the default of said defendant, James G. Vansell, for failing to appear, answer or demur within the time prescribed by law has been heretofore duly entered herein,

WHEREUPON, Evidence duly corroborated, as required by law, was introduced by the plaintiff, from which it appears to the Court that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein are sustained by testimony free and clear from all objections as to competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and it appearing that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in said complaint, and the case being closed, and the law and premises being fully understood by the Court, the Court at this time makes and renders this final judgment and decree;

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby forever dissolved.

2. That plaintiff be awarded, and is hereby awarded, the custody of the two minor children, Robert Vansell and Glenn Vansell.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, on the 24th day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed, or neglected, to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer, or plead, to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of the military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme mental cruelty, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, be divorced from the defendant, and have her former name, Norma E. Hills, restored.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(1st) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the plaintiff's former name, Norma E. Hills, be, and the same hereby is, restored.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly to be heard this 24th day of December, 1948, before the court without a jury, plaintiff appearing by his attorney, T. J. Jones, Jr., Esq., and the defendant not appearing either in person, by attorney, or otherwise, and it appearing that the defendant was duly served pursuant to the manner and method as provided by statute with service of summons and complaint, and that the time for answer has elapsed and that the defendant has refused to lead in this cause within the time allowed by law or at all and that the default of the defendant has been regularly entered thereon, and that the plaintiff having submitted testimony fully corroborated in support of his cause and the court having heard all the evidence or proof submitted and duly considering the same finds all allegations in the plaintiff's complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does order, adjudge and decree that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Frank W. LaQue, and the defendant, Verna Irene LaQue, are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and each of the parties is hereby freed from all the obligations of matrimony thereunder.

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly for trial this 24th day of December, A. D. 1948, Frank F. Kibler, Esq., appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing by counsel or otherwise, and it appearing to the Court that summons in this cause has been heretofore duly and regularly served upon the defendant herein personally in Ada County, State of Idaho, and that the defendant has failed to answer, appear, or plead to the plaintiff's complaint herein within the time allowed by law, or at all, and on motion of Frank F. Kibler, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to so appear, plead or answer plaintiff's complaint herein was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court on December 24th, 1948, pursuant to Order of the Court.

WHEREUPON, Witnesses were sworn and evidence introduced on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause submitted, from which it appears that all of the allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competence, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for;

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Frank F. Kibler, attorney for the plaintiff,

FRANK KIBLER

hereby order, adjudge and decree, that the plaintiff shall have, and she hereby is granted a divorce from the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and that the bonds of matrimony between said plaintiff and defendant are hereby dissolved; and the said parties and each of them, are hereby released from all the obligations thereof, and are hereby restored to the status of single, unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE That the care, custody, control and education of the minor children, to-wit: Marion James Johnson, age about 20 months and Ronald Lee Johnson, age about 6 months, be and the same is hereby awarded, given and granted to plaintiff, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE that the plaintiff Virginia Johnson have and recover judgment against defendant Marion S. Johnson for the partial support and maintenance of said minor children to be payable monthly at the rate of $60.00 per month, retroactive to and commencing with the month of November, 1948 and a like sum of $60.00 per month to paid during each and every calendar month thereafter until said minor children attain the age of legal majority or further order of the Court; and that the sum of $40.00 paid heretofore pursuant to order of this Court shall be allowed as a credit on the payment for the month of November, 1948.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE that the plaintiff Virginia Johnson have judgment against the defendant Marion S. Johnson for the sum of $100.00 as attorneys fees, the said defendant having failed to pay the same pursuant to the order on the Order to Show Cause as hereby ordered by the Court, and that the judgment for said sum shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum and the plaintiff shall have a writ of execution therefore upon

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the court in the County Court House at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 24th day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Edith I. Miller, her attorney of record, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

Upon said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant herein, Alvin H. Sigety, was duly and regularly served with process in the manner required by law; that said defendant in writing acknowledged due and personal service of process and consented that his default be entered herein, and the defendant having failed to otherwise appear and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and the default of said defendant, Alvin H. Sigety, for his failure to otherwise appear and to demur, answer or otherwise plead to said complaint having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff, Lois Jane Sigety, and in support of her complaint, and the cause was thereupon submitted to the court for its decision, and the court having duly considered the law and the evidence and being fully advised in the premises and it appearing therefrom, the court finds on the issues in the cause in the favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

The court further finds that the plaintiff is now, and for a period of more than two years next immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

The court further finds that there has been born as the issue of said marriage one minor child, to wit, a girl, Renee Eileen Sigety, whose birth date is the 29th day of January, 1947, and that both the plaintiff and defendant are fit and proper persons to have the care, custody and control of said minor child.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff, Lois Jane Sigety, be, and she hereby is, forever divorced from the defendant, Alvin H. Sigety, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person;

That the defendant have the care, custody and control of the minor child of the plaintiff and defendant, Renee

Eileen Sigety, during the first six months of each and every year, and that the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of said child during the last six months of each and every year, until said child becomes of school age, at which said time further order with regard to the care, custody and control of said child shall be made by the court; and that during the times such child is in the care, custody and control of one of the parties, that the other party have rights of visitation at all reasonable times and places, and for reasonable periods of time;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor child, Renee Eileen Sigety, the sum of $50.00 per month during the times said minor child is in the care and custody of the plaintiff.

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly to be heard by the Court without a jury, this 31st day of December, 1948, Delana & Delana, appearing as counsel for the Plaintiff, and it appearing that the Defendant had been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and that due and proper proof had been submitted showing the defendant not to have been for more than three years, in the Military Service, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the "Soldiers' and Sailors ' Relief Act of 1940" and that default had been duly and regularly entered in said action, THEREUPON Witnesses were sworn and examined on the part of the plaintiff, and the evidence having been closed, the cause was submitted to the Court for its consideration and decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, renders its decision as follows:

NOW, THEREFORE, By reason of the law and the premises aforesaid, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between plaintiff and defendant be and the same is hereby dissolved.

2. That the contract heretofore entered into between Plaintiff and Defendant, bearing date October, 20, 1948, be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed and made a part of this decree, as follows:

WITNESSETH, That,

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are now and have been for some time immediately last past, husband and wife, and,

WHEREAS, there are two minor children born as the issue of said marriage, LEONA MARJORIE FERGUSON, A daughter, born April 5, 1943, and RICHARD CHARLES, FERGUSON, A son, born June 3, 1945, and,

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are the owner of certain real and personal property accumulated property of said parties, and occupied as a home by first party and said minor children, and,

WHEREAS, certain difficulties have arisen between the said parties whereby they are not now living together as husband and wife, at this time, and,

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are desirous of arranging and settling as between themselves, the matter of said accumulative property and of settling between themselves the matter of the custody, care and support of said two minor children, and of their support,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY AGREED,

That First party shall have as her sole and separate property, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, and for her sole and separate use, the following described real property, in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, to-wit:

> Lot Five (5) in Block One (1) Wymer subdivision in Lot Forty-nine (49) Idaho State Subdivision of Section Sixteen (16), Township Three (3) North, Range Two (2) East B.M., Ada County, Idaho, as Numbered and designated on the official plat of said addition now of record in the office of the Recorder of Ada County, Idaho, together with all water rights and ditch rights appurtenant thereto or used in connection therewith.

First party shall also have as her sole and separate property, together with the rents and profits thereof, all of the personal property of said first party and of said minor children and, IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, That Second party will contribute to the care and support of said minor children, the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars, per month, beginning with November 1, 1948, and a like sum on or before the 1st day of each and every month thereafter until said children shall have attained their majority, PROVIDED, That in the event of the decease of either of said children, prior to attaining their majority, the payments for said deceased child shall cease.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, Between the parties hereto that the parties hereto shall own and hold the property, herein set aside to the other as their own and separate property, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, and either party will make, execute and deliver to the other, any bills of sale or other instruments in writing necessary to place in the other a good title to said property.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, Between the parties hereto, that the foregoing division of the property of the parties hereto and agreement of second party to pay to first party for her support and the support of said minor children, is given and accepted as a full settlement and satisfaction of second party hereto to contribute to her support or to the support of said minor children, and in full satisfaction of each and every obligation arising out of the marital relation of the parties hereto, and parties hereto waive any and all rights which he or she may have in the property of the other during the lifetime of the parties hereto, or at the death of either party, and that neither party hereto will make any claim on the property of the other during their lifetime or their death.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED Between the parties hereto that all property hereafter acquired by either party shall become and be the sole and separate property of the person acquiring the same.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED, Between the parties hereto that neither of the parties to this contract shall hereafter be answerable for any debts or liabilities contracted by the other for the support, maintenance or in any other way, from and after the date of this agreement.

Plaintiff,

Vs.

LEO FRANKLIN KIMM,

Defendant,

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This action came on regularly to be heard before the court sitting without a jury on the 31st day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing by her attorneys J. F. Cromwell and Walter M. Oros, both of Boise, Ada County, Idaho, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or otherwise.

It appearing to the court that the defendant was served personally with summons and copy of complaint herein on the 30 day of ~~October~~ September, 1948, in Ada County, Idaho, and that the default of said defendant for failure to appear and plead to plaintiff's complaint, duly and regularly was entered and filed herein on the 31st day of December, 1948, said defendant then being in default. The records and files of this suit appearing to be in due, regular and proper form, the Court proceeded with the trial of this cause, and witnesses were duly sworn and testified for and in behalf of plaintiff: whereupon the cause was then submitted to the court for consideration and decision;

It further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant and plaintiff intermarried at Weiser, Washington County, Idaho on or about October 1, 1935 and continuously thereafter lived together as husband and wife until the month of February, 1943; that on February 15, 1943, the plaintiff herein, filed an action for divorce against the defendant herein, in the above entitled court; that on June 22nd, 1943 said court entered a decree granting the plaintiff in said action, and

and the plaintiff herein, a divorce from the defendant in said action and the defendant herein; that subsequent to the filing of said decree plaintiff and the children hereinafter mentioned lived separately and apart from defendent until June, 1944, at which time plaintiff and said children returned to live with said defendant; that continuously between June 1944, until September 23rd 1948 plaintiff and defendant lived together as husband and wife and represented themselves to be husband and wife, and thereby consumated a valid common law marriage relationship.

It further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that plaintiff herein for more than six full weeks immediately prior to filing this suit has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that two children, to-wit; Leo Roy Kimm, Age 11, and Donna Arlene Kimm, age 9 were born as the issue of the first marriage of the parties hereto and above set forth herein; that said defendant is not a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of/said children, or either of them and that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care custody and control of said children, and each of them.

It further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the parties hereto, during coverature, acquired personal property in the complaint on file herein, and hereinafter in this decree particularly described; and that plaintiff is entitled to have said personal property awarded to her as her sole and separate property.

It further appearing that each and all of material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are supported by evidence introduced by plaintiff and corraborated by testimony of other witnesses and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendent on the grounds of extreme cruelty; and the Court being fully advised in the premises both as to the law and to the facts:

NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of plaintiff's Attorneys, and good cause appearing therefore;

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE, as follows:

1. That plaintiff be, and she hereby is, awarded the sole and absolute custody and control of the children of the parties hereto, to wit: Leo Roy Kimm, age 11; and Donna Arlene Kimm, age 9.

2. That plaintiff, be and she hereby is, awarded as her sole and separate property the following personal community property, to wit: One Deveno, one five piece bedroom suite, one lamp, one small Zenith radio, one Gibson refrigerator, one Zenith washing machine, one Kenmore portable sewing machine, one small dresser and folding bed, one dining room set with chairs, one coal and wood stove, miscellaneous items of dishes and silverware and the personal clothing and belongings of plaintiff.

3. That the bonds of matrimony heretobefore existing between Bertha Inez Kimm and Leo Franklin Kimm, plaintiff and defendant respectively be and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and that the parties hereto are free from the obligations and duties thereof; and that they, and each of them, are absolutely free from all marital restraint and obligation to each other.

Done in open court this 31st day of December, 1948.

The above entitled matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned district judge in his chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 7th day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney.

From an examination of the files and records herein, it appears that a duly verified complaint was filed, that a summons was duly issued, that the summons was duly served upon the defendant, and the defendant failed to appear or answer the allegations of the said complaint within the time specified in the said summons.

That the summons with proof of service has been filed herein and the clerk of the above entitled court has duly entered the default of the defendant for his failure to appear herein within the time specified in the summons.

The plaintiff and one other witness were duly sworn and from their testimony, it appears that the allegations of the complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for therein.

It is, therefore, ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be and the same hereby are dissolved, and the parties hereto are

- - - - - - - - - - - - -

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 10th day of December, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED from the records and files to the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that the said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARING that the default of defendant for his failure to so appear and plead herein has been duly entered by the Clerk.

Witnesses were sworn, who testified in support of the allegations of the complaint and no evidence was introduced or offered on behalf of defendant. A Stipulation was introduced signed by both parties and from the evidence, both oral and documentary, introduced herein, the Court finds that all of the allegations of the Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of legal objection and that the Stipulation received in evidence was fairly entered into, and the provisions thereof should be set forth in the Decree; it further appearing that the making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law have been waived by defendant's failure to appear herein and by the Stipulation of the parties received in evidence herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises, and on motion of counsel for plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Terry G. George, be and the same is hereby awarded to plaintiff.

3. This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 31st day of December, 1948, at 11:00 o'clock, a.M. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that the Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, and defendant has served and filed an answer herein and that by stipulation of the parties, entered herein in writing, it was stipulated that the case could be set for hearing at any time without other or further notice to defendant and that the parties, in writing, stipulated the waiver of the making and entering of Formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; it further appearing from the affidavit of plaintiff on file that the defendant is not engaged and was not engaged, at the time of the filing of the Complaint, in any branch of the Military Services of the United States and that he is a laborer.

WHEREUPON evidence, both oral and documentary, was introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and one witness, and the Court finds from the evidence, free and clear of all legal objections as to its competency, that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

The above entitled matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 31st day of December, 1948.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, F. E. Tydeman. The defendant appeared not, either in person or by her attorney.

The court proceeding to hear the matter has examined the files and records and received the testimony of the plaintiff and one other witness. It appearing to the court that a duly verified complaint was filed herein and that a summons was duly issued and served upon the defendant in a manner provided by law and that the defendant, having been duly served, failed to appear or answer the plaintiff's complaint within the time specified in the said summons and was in default therefor. That the clerk has duly entered said default and the case being ready for hearing and after the taking of testimony, it appears, and the court finds, that the allegations of the complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint.

Wherefore, It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and set aside, and the parties are restored to the status of single persons.

In this action the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and the time allowed by law for answering herein having expired, and the defendant having failed to appear and either plead or answer to plaintiff's complaint, and the necessary non-military affidavit having been filed and the default of the said defendant having been duly and regularly entered according to law, this cause came on regularly to be heard at the November term of said Court at Blackfoot, Bingham County, Idaho, on the 1st day of December, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff and the default of the defendant as aforesaid, J. H. Andersen, Esq., appearing on behalf of the plaintiff and the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel. The Court proceeded to hear the evidence adduced on behalf of the plaintiff from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are proved by competent evidence, free from objection as to its sufficiency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises;

This cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 27th day of August, 1948, the plaintiff being present, and represented by her attorney, Joseph McFadden, Attorney at Law, and the defendant being present by his Guardian-ad-Litem, duly appointed, and his Attorney at Law, Everett B. Taylor, Esq., the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in the said action on behalf of said defendant by his duly appointed Guardian-ad-Litem, and that the said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that the said action should be tried before the Court at the Chambers at Gooding, Idaho, without a jury, at this time, and that each of the said parties were ready for trial. The Court after hearing the testimony submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, which was duly corroborated, and the documentary evidence introduced on her behalf, and both sides having the evidence all submitted and advised the Court that they rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence, now finds that the material allegations of the complaint are true and correct; that the plaintiff is a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to this action being instituted, and the Court having rendered its decision in writing consisting of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, which said decision is in favor of said Plaintiff, now, therefore, by reason of the law and findings aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said marriage between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is hereby, declared to be wholly null and void from the date of this judgment, and the said parties are and each of them is freed from the obligations thereof.

This cause coming on to be heard before the Court this 10th day of September, 1948, the plaintiff being present in person and being represented by Everett B. Taylor, his attorney, the defendant being represented by Joseph McFadden, her attorney, the following proceedings were had:

It appearing to the Court that a duly verified answer had been filed in the said action by the defendant and that the said action was ready for trial; that the said parties had agreed that the said action should be tried before the Court, without a jury, at this time, and that each of the said parties were ready for trial. The Court after hearing the testimony submitted for and on behalf of the plaintiff, which was duly corroborated, and the issue of the plaintiff's domicile having been contested, and both sides having rested; the Court having considered the law and the evidence, now finds that all material allegations of the complaint are true and correct; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been a resident of Blaine County, State of Idaho, in which County he had his place of residence and domicile, and the Court having rendered its decision herein in writing, consisting of findings of fact and conclusions of law, which said decision is in favor of said plaintiff.

NOW, therefore, in accordence therewith, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff Edward B. McLean, and the defendant Gloria H. McLean, be dissolved and said parties and each of them is freed and released from the bonds of matrimony.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, That the Agreement between the parties made as of the 27th day of August, 1948, marked Plaintiff's Exhibit "A", on file in this Court, as modified by a Letter Agreement between the parties dated August 27, 1948, marked Plaintiff's Exhibit "B", on file in this Court, providing for a property settlement between the parties and for payments by the plaintiff to the defendant for the maintenance and support of the latter, be approved and confirmed, and the parties are each hereby ordered and directed to comply with the provisions thereof and the plaintiff is hereby specifically directed to comply with the terms and provisions thereof on his part to be performed.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly this day to be heard before the Court in Chambers at Boise, Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Davison & Davison, and the defendant appearing not, in person, by attorneys, or otherwise, and the default of the defendant by order of this Court having heretofore been entered, and the Court having heard the evidence and proof submitted in support of the plaintiff's Complaint and after having duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds all the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the defendant has treated the plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner, and has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved and held for naught, and each of the parties are free from any and all obligations of the said marriage.

(2) That the Separation Agreement made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and the defendant under date of October 1st, 1948, be, and the same is, hereby approved and ratified, and the terms of said Separation Agreement, by reference, incorporated as a part of this decree.

(3) That the plaintiff have, as her sole and separate property, and in no wise as the community property of herself and the defendant, the following described real property situate in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, to-wit:

> All of Lots Twenty-three and Twenty-four in Block Twenty-nine of Dundee Second Subdivision in Boise, Ada County, Idaho, together with all appurtenances thereon and appertaining thereto; also the household furnishings in the dwelling located upon the said real property.

(4) That the plaintiff shall have the custody of the three minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, namely: James Alvin Moody, Barbara Joan Moody, and Myrna Lee Moody, and shall maintain a home for the said children on the real property herein decreed to her; that the defendant shall have the right to visit the said children at plaintiff's home, at reasonable times and reasonable intervals, so long as the same does not interfere with the children's schooling or sleep, and provided further, that he shall have the right to have the children with him from time to time so long as it does not interfere with their schooling and is agreeable with the children.

(5) That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff on or before the 5th day of each month hereafter for the maintenance and support of the minor children, the sum of $25.00 per month per child, for so long as the said minor children remain in the plaintiff's custody and are dependent upon the plaintiff for their support. Should any of the said minor children quit school or go to work or marry, then the child support herein provided for such child, shall cease, otherwise to continue during the minority of said respective children; that neither the plaintiff nor the defendant shall remove any of the said children outside the jurisdiction of this Court, either temporarily or permanently, without first obtaining the written consent of the Court so to do.

(6) That the defendant shall have as his sole and separate property and in no wise as the community property of himself and the plaintiff, the 1936 Plymouth Sedan described in the Separation Agreement, and also the life insurance policies therein described, subject however, to the terms and conditions in said Separation Agreement relative to such insurance policies.

RODERICK GEORGE PURVES,
Defendant.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, before the Honorable O. C. Wilson, one of the Judges of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Bonner, on the 15th day of December, 1948, upon the Complaint of plaintiff and and Answer of the defendant, a Stipulation having been filed in the action setting the case for trial on the above date.

Plaintiff appeared in person with a witness and one of her attorneys, O. J. Bandelin; the defendant did not appear nor was he represented by counsel; plaintiff and witness were duly examined relative to said cause, all of which evidence proved the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint. D E C R E E

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Sandpoint, Idaho, before the Honorable E. V. Boughton, one of the Judges of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Bonner, on the 28th day of December, 1948, upon the Complaint of plaintiff, taken as confessed by the defendant who had been personally served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint and whose default for not appearing in the action within the time required by law had been duly entered upon the original Complaint.

Plaintiff appeared in person with a witness and one of his attorneys, O. J. Bandelin; the defendant did not appear, nor was he represented by counsel: plaintiff and witness were duly examined relative to said cause, all of which evidence proved the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by failure of the defendant to appear at the trial, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, dissolved and plaintiff is granted a divorce upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the following described real estate be awarded to the plaintiff, a property settlement having been entered into and quit-claim deed issued by the defendant for same:

> The Northeast quarter of the Northeast Quarter ($NE\frac{1}{4}NE\frac{1}{4}$) of Section 30, Township 57 North, Range 4, W.B.M., with the exception of a strip of land 25 feet wide along the South line reserved by the Humbird Lumber Company for a roadway.
> The East Half of the West Half of the Northeast Quarter ($E\frac{1}{2}W\frac{1}{2}NE\frac{1}{4}$) and the Southeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 30, T57N, R4, W.B.M.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, Marshall Myrvang, be awarded to the defendant, Hazel Myrvang, subject to the right of the plaintiff to visit said child at reasonable and proper times. Defendant has received the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) in payment of support money for said Marshall Myrvang.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, Olaf Myrvang, be awarded to the plaintiff, Eldon Myrvang, subject to the right of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable and proper times.

| JAMES DIAKUN, Plaintiff, -vs- ANNA M. DIAKUN, Defendant. | ) | DECREE OF DIVORCE |

This cause came on regularly for hearing in chambers at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 19th day of November, 1948, Henry S. Martin appearing as counsel for plaintiff and no one appearing for or on behalf of the defendant; whereupon, plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in his own behalf, and thereupon Ross Gillespie was duly and regularly sworn and testified for and in behalf of the above-named plaintiff, and thereupon, the plaintiff rested and the defendant having submitted no proof whatever for or in her behalf, this cause was thereupon submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff and the court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

I.

That the defendant, Anna M. Diakun, is an inmate of the Elgin State Hospital, Elgin, Illinois, and that a certified copy of the Order of Committment has heretofore been filed in the above-entitled cause; that from the said committment dated January 11, 1939, and from the other evidence adduced in this cause, it appears that the said Anna M. Diakun was duly and regularly confined as an insane person, in the Elgin State Hospital for a period of more than six years immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and that the said Anna M. Diakun is permanently and incurably insane; that service was duly and regularly had upon John Ferebauer, Prosecuting Attorney of Bonneville County, Idaho, on the 5th day of October, 1948, and that E. A. Owen of Bonneville County, competent and capable of acting as Guardian Ad Litem of said Anna M. Diakun, has been duly served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint in said action, and that a copy of the said Summons and Complaint has been duly served upon the defendant at the Elgin State Hospital, Elgin, Illinois, and that in all respects the action is regular and according to law, and that all of the statutory requirements in cases of this nature have been complied with; that no appearance herein has been made by either the defendant, said Prosecuting Attorney or Guardian Ad Litem, and that the default of the said defendant has been duly and regularly entered according to law.

Now, therefore on motion of Henry S. Martin, the attorney of record for the above-named plaintiff,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above-named plaintiff, James Diakun, and the above-named defendant, Anna M. Diakun, be, and the same hereby is, forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the plaintiff and defendant, and each of them, be, and they are restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that plaintiff have the care, custody and control of Juliana Diakun, minor child of plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, James Diakun, pay to the Elgin State Hospital, for the care and support of defendant, Anna M. Diakun, for as long as said defendant is confined in said hospital, for her care and support, the minimum sum of $50.00 on the first day of June, 1949, and the first day of December, 1949, and on the first day of June, and the first day of December, of each year thereafter; and that if additional money is required by said hospital for said purpose that plaintiff is hereby ordered to pay said additional amount.

The above entitled cause came before the Court for final hearing this 3rd day of December, 1948, at Chambers of the Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Albaugh, Bloem, Hillman, and Barnard, no appearance being made by or for the defendant, except defendant has entered into a Stipulation in this cause, under the terms of which the defendant admitted that he has been served with a true copy of the summons herein, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint on file, and the defendant by said stipulation entered his general appearance in said action, submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court in said cause, refused to demur, answer,or plead further, and consented that default might be entered against him that said cause might be heard at any time without further notice, and waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein. It further appears that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the Clerk herein, which default is hereby confirmed by the Court.

Evidence in support of the plaintiff's complaint was thereupon submitted, and after duly considering such evidence and the files and records of said cause, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the judgment of this Court as prayed for in said complaint,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing beteen the parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the parties are each restored to the status of single persons.

The above entitled cause came before the Court for final hearing this 3rd day of December, 1948, at Chambers of the Court at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Albaugh, Bloem, Hillman and Barnard, no appearance being made by or for the defendant, except defendant has entered into a stipulation in this cause, under the terms of which the defendant admitted that he has been served with a true copy of the summons herein, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint on file, and the defendant by said stipulation entered his general appearance in said action, submitted himself to the jurisidction of the Court in said cause, refused to demur, answer, or plead further and consented that default might be entered against him that said cause might be heard at any time without further notice, and waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law herein. It further appears that the default of the defendant has been duly entered by the Clerk herein, which default is hereby confirmed by the Court.

Evidence in support of the plaintiff's complaint was thereupon submitted, and after duly considering such evidence and the files and records of said cause, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint are fully sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the judgment of this Court as prayed for in said complaint, subject to the further terms and conditions of said stipulation, which stipulation is hereby approved and adopted by the Court.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the parties are each restored to the status of single persons.

2. That the defendant, Jim E. Tracy, have as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, one Chevrolet automobile owned by him, and any and all money which he may have on his person or in the bank, together with any insurance which he may now have.

3. That the plaintiff shall have as her sole and separate property and for her sole and separate use and benefit her personal clothing, household linens, jewelry, and other personal effects.

4. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, in lieu of any and all other claims by way of suit money, alimony, attorneys' fees or otherwise, the sum of $400.00, which the defendant shall pay at times and in amounts as follows: $100.00 on or before February 10, 1949; $100.00 on or before March 10, 1949; $100.00 on or before April 10, 1949; and $100.00 on or before May 10, 1949.

5. That the plaintiff have restored to her her maiden name of Agnes R. Stroud.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for trial before the Honorable C. J. Taylor, Judge of the above entitled Court, in chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on the 10th day of December, 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person and W. K. Naylor appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by counsel, whereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in his own behalf, and thereupon one Chester C. Ellicott, witness for the plaintiff, was duly and regularly sworn and testified for and in behalf of the plaintiff and thereupon the plaintiff rested, and no proof whatsoever having been submitted for or in behalf of the defendant, this cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the evidence submitted for and in behalf of the plaintiff, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, now finds as follows:

I

That the above-named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons issued out of the above-entitled Court, in the within cause, together with and attached to a true copy of plaintiff's Complaint filed herein; that the parties to this action have entered into a written Stipulation, filed herein, and that by said Stipulation the above-named defendant has entered a general appearance in this action and submits herself to the jurisdiction of this Court, in this cause, and said

defendant has refused to demur, answer or plead at all herein and has waived additional time in which to plead and consents that default be entered against her and to an immediate hearing of this cause without further notice, either in term time, or vacation, in open Court, or in chambers; that the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein is waived by the parties to the within action, and that the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint on file herein shall be deemed to be denied; that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein according to law; that this Court has jurisdiction of the person of the above-named defendant and of the person of the above-named plaintiff and of the subject matter of this action; that the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been established by sufficient and competent evidence, free from legal objections, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in his said Complaint filed herein and in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Stipulation of the parties to this action on file herein; that by said written Stipulation, the parties hereto have provided for a full and complete settlement of all of their respective property rights and of all claims and demands of every kind, name and nature which each has had or may have against the other arising out of their marital relation; that the plaintiff has heretofore paid to the defendant the amount provided in said Stipulation to be in settlement of all property rights and claims of the plaintiff against the defendant, and the Court further finds that the terms and provisions of said Stipulation and said property settlement agreement, and each and all of them, are fair, just and equitable and the Court approves and adopts the provisions of said Stipulation and by reference makes the same a part of this Decree.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the marriage now existing between the plaintiff, William Gordon McCrea, and the defendant, Mary Louise McCrea, be, and the same is hereby absolutely dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that they, and each and both of them, be, and they hereby are, restored to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that all property of every kind, name, nature and description now standing of record in the name of the said plaintiff was acquired by the plaintiff prior to his marriage to the said defendant and is his sole and separate property, and that the defendant has no right, title or interest therein, and IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that all community property of the plaintiff and defendant, of whatsoever nature, either real, personal or mixed, including any and all insurance policies wherein the plaintiff is the insured and in which the defendant may have any community interest, be, and the same is hereby awarded and decreed to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit, and that the defendant has no right, title or interest therein.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Stipulation signed by the parties to this action, filed in this Court and cause, is a full and complete settlement and determination of all their property rights and of all claims of every kind, name and nature against each other, arising out of their marital relation, and that the plaintiff has fully complied with the terms of said Stipulation and has paid to the defendant the amount provided therein; it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said Stipulation of the plaintiff and the defendant, on file herein, be, and the same is hereby approved, confirmed and made a part hereof.

EVELYN MARLER

Plaintiff,

vs.

LORAN J. MARLER, Jr.

Defendant.

DECREE

This cause came on regularly for trial at Chambers, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, State of Idaho, on the 17th day of December, 1948, Holden & Holden appearing for and in behalf and as the attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff and A. A. Merrill, appearing for and in behalf and as the attorney of record of the above named defendant, whereupon plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in her own behalf, and thereupon Fay Marler was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in behalf of said plaintiff, and thereupon the above named plaintiff rested, and thereupon the above named defendant was duly and regularly sworn and examined and testified for and in his own behalf as to his ability to pay for the support and maintenance of the two minor children of plaintiff and defendant. This cause was thereupon submitted to the Court for its decision upon the testimony and documentary evidence submitted for and in behalf of the above named plaintiff and the testimony and documentary evidence for and in behalf of the above named defendant and the Court being fully advised in the premises now finds:

I

That the above named defendant has been duly and regularly served with a true copy of the Summons, issued out of said Court in said cause, attached to which was a copy of the Complaint, filed herein; that upon motion of the defendant, the defendant's Answer and Cross-Complaint to plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, was withdrawn; that upon motion of plaintiff, the plaintiff's Answer to defendant's Cross-Complaint was withdrawn; that the default of said defendant was thereupon duly entered, whereupon plaintiff proceeded to introduce her evidence touching the allegations of her Complaint; that the defendant, Loran J. Marler, Jr. is not in the military service of the United States, nor in any branch of the service thereof; that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the person of the above named plaintiff and of the person of the above named defendant and of the persons of the two minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Gail Marie Marler, a daughter, age 5 years and Raymond Eugene Marler, a son, age 18 months; that the defendant now owes said plaintiff the sum of $720.00 for temporary support money from the 24th day of January, 1947, to the 15th day of November, 1947; that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce, as prayed for in her Complaint on file herein.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Holden & Holden, attorneys of record of the above named plaintiff:

I

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the above named plaintiff, Evelyn Marler, and the above named defendant, Loran J. Marler, Jr., be, and the same is hereby forever dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and that the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant and each of them, be, and they are hereby forever absolutely released from all of the obligations thereof.

II

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the above named plaintiff, Evelyn Marler, be, and she is hereby awarded the sole care, custody and control of the two minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Gail Marie Marler, a daughter, age 5 years and Raymond Eugene Marler, a son, age 18 months.

III

IT IS HEREBY FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the defendant, Loran J. Marler, Jr. shall pay to the plaintiff, Evelyn Marler, the sum of $60.00 per month, each and every month, commencing on the 1st day of January, 1949, as and for the support, maintenance and education of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Gail Marie Marler, a daughter, age 5 years and Raymond Eugene Marler, a son, age 18 months, and the aforesaid payments shall continue until the further order of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant in the sum of $720.00.

| Leonard E. Harker, Defendant. | : | |

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the Hon. C. J. Taylor, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in the said Judicial District, this 31st day of December, 1948, at the hour of 10:30 A.M., of said day, plaintiff appearing in person and by Gilbert C. St.Clair, one of her attorneys, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him.

The Court having examined the files of this action and finding that service of Complaint and Summons upon the defendant, Leonard E. Harker, has been legally made, he having filed his Waiver and Appearance, specifically waiving time in which to plead and consenting that his default be entered herein, and the default of said defendant having been heretofore duly and regularly entered, the Court proceeded to hear the case upon the verified Complaint herein and the testimony of the plaintiff and the testimony of a corroborating witness as to plaintiff's residence, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the defendant having submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court herein, and the Court having considered all the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, and it appearing that all material allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and the Court finding the same to be true, the parties having waived findings of fact and conclusions of law, and all and singular the laws and premises being by the Court considered, and the Court having jurisdiction of the matter and the parties hereto.

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant herein be, and the same are hereby, dissolved and each of said parties freed from the obligations thereof and each restored to the status of a single person. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the custody of the two minor children, the issue of the marriage between the said plaintiff and the said defendant, to-wit: a girl, Joyce F. Harker, aged sixteen years, and a boy, John D. Harker, aged two years. Except that the defendant shall have rights of visitation at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED,AND DECREED:

1. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff Twenty-five and No/100($25.00) Dollars per month for the support and maintenance of each minor child of the parties, totaling $50.00 per month, commencing on or before the 1st day of January, 1949, and continuing each and every month thereafter until further order of this Court.

2. That the defendant pay to the plaintiff Twenty-five and No/100 ($25.00) Dollars per month as alimony for the support and maintenance of the plaintiff, commencing on or before the 1st day of January, 1949, and continuing each and every month thereafter until further order of this Court.

3. That the defendant pay the costs incurred in this action, and attorneys fees therein in the amount of One Hundred and No/100 ($100.00) Dollars, that being adjudged a reasonable attorney's fee.

Plaintiff,

vs JUDGMENT AND DECREE

Pauline H. Allen,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause came before the undersigned Judge of said District Court, at Chambers of the Court, at Idaho Falls, Idaho, this 31st day of December, 1948, Geo. L. Barnard of the firm of Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman appearing as attorney for the plaintiff, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, except that defendant has entered into a stipulation on file herein, under and pursuant to which the defendant admitted that she has been served with a true copy of the Summons in said cause, attached to which was a true copy of the complaint filed herein, submitted herself to the jurisdiction of the Court in this cause, and refused to demur, answer, or plead further, and consented that default be entered against her and to an immediate hearing of this cause without further notice, waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law, and denied the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, which stipulation further provided that the parties have settled between themselves their community and separate property rights, and that in the event of a divorce being granted the court need make no determination thereof, provided also that the court may find the defendant is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of the minor children of the parties, and may award the same to defendant, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see and visit said children at reasonable times and intervals, and to have the care and custody of said children during summer school vacations, any order of the court with respect to said children to be subject to any future order that the court may make in the event of any substantial change in the circumstances of the parties, and providing further that the plaintiff will contribute to the care and maintenance of said children to the extent of Thirty Dollars per month, and the default of the defendant having been heretofore entered by the Clerk of this Court, evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint was adduced, and upon due consideration of such evidence and the files and records of this action, the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded in said complaint, subject to the provisions of said stipulation, which the court finds just and equitable, and hereby adopts.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the care and custody of the minor children of the parties, James Allen and Barbara Allen be, and the same hereby is, awarded to the defendant, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see and visit said children at reasonable times and intervals, and to have the care and custody of said children during summer school vacations, and that the plaintiff shall pay to defendant, as and for the support of said children, the sum of Thirty Dollars per month during such times as the defendant shall have said children in her care and custody, and that the order and decree of the court with respect to the care and custody of said children and the support thereof shall be subject to any further order that the court may deem necessary or advisable at any future time.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled District Court on the 27 day of Dec., 1948, CALDWELL AND ALEXANDERSON appearing as counsel for plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and defendant having failed to appear herein, in person or by counsel, and said defendant having failed to appear or plead to said Complaint within the time required by law, or at all, and his default having been duly entered, witnesses were sworn and testified:

AND THE COURT having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in said action, and it thereby having been made to appear to this Court that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Salem, County of Marion, State of Illinois on the 1st day of July, 1940, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife; and that the plaintiff is now, and for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there are no children the issue of said marriage;

That there are no community property interests to be adjudicated between the parties hereto;

And the Court having further found that the plaintiff and the defendant herein for more than five (5) years prior to the filing of this complaint, to-wit: since on or about July 4, 1940, have continuously lived separate and apart without cohabitation between the parties hereto.

That all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by the evidence and proofs submitted upon said hearing and that plaintiff is entitled to the Decree of Divorce and to the relief as prayed for in her complaint, and that said Decree should be entered accordingly;

That all of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by said defendant by his refusal to plead to or to answer plaintiff's complaint in said action and by said defendant's refusal and failure to appear in said action or to appear at the trial of said action or to offer any evidence at the hearing and trial of said action;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does order, adjudge and decree:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Roberta Jones and the defendant, Floyd J. Jones be dissolved and held for naught and that said parties be absolutely divorced from each other.

(2) That plaintiff be restored her maiden name, Roberta Bertrand.

-O-

JANE PACKHAM NEILSON,

Plaintiff,

vs.

EARNEST HENRY NEILSON,

Defendant.

-O-

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing at the request of the plaintiff in open court at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho on this 3rd day of December, 1948, before the Honorable James W. Porter, one of the Judges of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Lawrence H. Duffin, and the defendant did no appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had by an instrument in writing, duly signed and acknowledged by him, admitted due and legal service of Summons and Complaint upon him within the State of Idaho and had expressly waived the time allowed by law for appearance in said action, had refused to appear in said action or to answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint on file herein and that the Clerk of said Court upon the filing of said acceptance and waiver had duly and regularly entered the default of said defendant.

Witnesses on the part and behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and certain documentary evidence was offered and the plaintiff rested and the cause was submitted to the Judge for consideration and decision, and it appearing to the Judge that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by evidence free from all objections as to its competency, relevancy and admissibility and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant and to a decree awarding the temporary custody of the minor children of the parties hereto hereinafter named, to Henry Neilson and Merab Neilson, husband and wife, and paternal grandparents of said children.

And it further appearing that the parties hereto had entered into an agreement settling, adjusting and dividing their property and property interest and that said agreement was reached and entered into without fraud, undue influence or coercion on the part of either thereto against the other, but was entered into by the parties after due consideration and deliberation and after each party had consulted with and obtained the advice of persons of his or her selection and that said agreement is not contrary to the public policy of the State of Idaho, is in all respects fair, just, reasonable and equitable and should in all respects be ratified, approved and adopted by the decree of this Court.

WHEREFORE By reason of the law and the premises aforesaid:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Jane Packham Neilson, and the defendant, Earnest Henry Neilson, be and the same are hereby dissolved, cancelled, set aside, and held for naught, and the said plaintiff, Jane Packham Neilson, be, and she is hereby, forever divorced from the said defendant, Earnest Henry Neilson, and the plaintiff and defendant are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the property settlement made between the plaintiff and the defendant, a copy of which is attached hereto, be, and is hereby, in all respects therein, confirmed, ratified, and approved, as a just, fair, reasonable and equitable settlement and division of the property rights and interest of the parties hereto.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the temporary care, custody, control and education of the issue of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Jay E. Neilson, born on the 3rd day of September, 1943, Jeanette Ruth Neilson, born on the 7th day of September, 1946, and Connie Lynn Neilson, born on the 2nd day of October, 1947, be awarded to Henry Neilson and Merab Neilson, husband and wife, and paternal grandparents of said children, subject to the right of both plaintiff and defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said defendant pay the community debts and obligations of the parties hereto and at all times and in all respects save and hold the plaintiff harmless therefrom.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant pay to the plaintiff or to her attorney for his services rendered in this action the sum of $150.00 together with costs of suit taxes at $15.00.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT

This property settlement made this 6th day of November, 1948, by and between EARNEST HENRY NEILSON and JANE PACKHAM NEILSON, husband and wife.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, differences have arisen between said husband and wife, on account of which they are separated and now live apart, and intend to live apart from each other during the remainder of their natural lives, and,

WHEREAS, the said parties are mutually desirous of severing their marital relations and securing a divorce, each from the other:

NOW, THEREFORE, IN SETTLEMENT, ADJUSTMENT AND COMPROMISE of all property question and rights, the said wife, Jane Packham Neilson, for and in consideration of the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), to her in hand paid by the said husband, Earnest Henry Neilson, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, does hereby assign, transfer and set over to and unto said husband, Earnest Henry Neilson, any interest she may have in and to any and all real and personal property, money, shares of stock, notes, and all other property of whatsoever kind or character standing in the name of the said husband, Earnest Henry Neilson, or belonging to the community estate, except the said wife, Jane Packham Neilson, is to have and retain, as her sole and separate property and estate, the following described personal property now located in the community home in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho:

One (1) Set, Bedroom furniture, complete
One (1) Iron, Sun Beam
One (1) Washing Machine, G. E.
One (1) Vacumn Cleaner
Clothing and Bedding given to the said wife by her father and personal effects.

This agreement is a full and complete settlement of the property rights between the parties hereto as husband and wife, both now and after the death of either party to this agreement. From this time forward neither party shall have any interest of any kind or nature in or to any property, real, personal or mixed of the other party to this agreement, whether now owned by such party or hereafter acquired. In case either party applies for a divorce, this agreement shall be a full settlement of all property rights in such divorce action, and neither party in such action shall have the right to obtain any part of the property of the other or require the party defending to pay any support money other than attorney's fees and costs of Court.

It is expressly understood and agreed, and each party to this agreement hereby solemnly and specifically avers, that this settlement is freely and voluntarily entered into by both parties hereto, and before the execution hereof both parties were fully informed and advised as to their legal rights and obligations in the premises, and has been entered into without influence or fraud or coercion or misrepresentation.

In witness whereof the above named husband and wife have hereto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

| DENA L. SPRAGUE, Plaintiff, vs. WILLIAM BENJAMIN SPRAGUE, Defendant. | DECREE OF DIVORCE |

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court, in the court room thereof, in the Court House, at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, on the 11th day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of her attorneys. The defendant failed to appear either in person or by counsel. Thereupon, it appeared to the court that summons herein had been served, personally, upon the defendant within the State of Idaho; that the defendant had executed and caused to be filed herein his duly verified Waiver of Time to Plead, Consent to the Entry of Default and Consent to the Submission of Cause, wherein it was made to appear that the defendant is not and for more than six months last past has not been in the military service of the United States or its allies.

Thereupon, the default of the defendant for his refusal to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn, examined and documentary evidence introduced and the plaintiff rested.

The Court, being fully advised in the premises, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that the plaintiff have judgment and decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant, awarding the care, custody and control of the minor child to the plaintiff and distributing the property and awarding support money to the plaintiff, in accordance with the provisions of the contract between the plaintiff and defendant offered and received in evidence.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, cancelled, annulled and held for naught, and the said parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Dena L. Sprague, the care, custody and control of Gay Lynne Sprague, the minor daughter of the plaintiff and defendant, subject to the right of the defendant to visit the said child at reasonable times.

That the defendant, William Benjamin Sprague, be required and he is hereby directed and required to pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintenance of the said minor child, Gay Lynne Sprague, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per month until the said child shall have attained the age of 18 years or shall have married, the first such payment to be made on or before the 1st day of January, 1949, and a like sum to be paid on or before the 1st day of each and every calendar month thereafter.

That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Dena L. Sprague, as her sole and separate property, the following specified personal property, to-wit:

> All household furniture, fixtures and equipment heretofore owned by the plaintiff and defendant.

That there is hereby awarded to the defendant, William Benjamin Sprague, as his sole and separate property, the 1942 Studebaker Commander Sedan Automobile heretofore owned by the plaintiff and defendant.

That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Dena L. Sprague, as her sole and separate property, an undivided 1/2 interest in and to the following described real estate in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> Lots Eleven (11) and Twelve (12) in Block Six (6) of the Southgate Addition to Burley, Idaho, as the same is platted in the official plat thereof, now of record in the office of the County Recorder of Cassia County, Idaho, together with all improvements thereon and all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, which said undivided 1/2 interest is subject to a mortgage in favor of the Idaho Bank and Trust Company, Burley Branch, Burley, Idaho.

That there is hereby awarded to the defendant, William Benjamin Sprague, as his sole and separate property, an undivided 1/2 interest in and to the following described real estate in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> Lots Eleven (11) and Twelve (12) in Block Six (6) of the Southgate Addition to Burley, Idaho, as the same is platted in the official plat thereof, now of record in the office of the County Recorder of Cassia County, Idaho, together with all improvements thereon and all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, which said undivided 1/2 interest is subject to a mortgage in favor of the Idaho Bank and Trust Company, Burley Branch, Burley, Idaho.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard on this 11th day of December, 1948 at Burley, Idaho, before Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the District Judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Cassia.

The plaintiff appeared with her counsel, Henry W. Tucker; and the defendant appeared neither in person nor by counsel; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant has been duly served with process herein according to law; and that the defendant has filed herein his waiver of statutory time in which to plead, with consent to entry of his default for his failure to plead; and that the Clerk of this Court has duly filed the default of the defendant according to law;

WHEREUPON, the Court proceeded to the hearing. Witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint were duly sworn and testified, and the evidence being closed; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, after deliberation did order the plaintiff to have judgment against the defendant as herein set forth:

WHEREUPON, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff is hereby relieved from all further obligation thereof, and is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

2.

That plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded sole control and custody of the child Michael Jones during the minority of said child, born issue of this marriage.

3.

That defendant pay unto plaintiff monthly the sum of $25.00 each and every month during the minority of said child Michael Jones, for the support and maintenance of said child.

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 18th day of December, 1948, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by S. T. Lowe, one of her attorneys, and the defendant having failed to appear, either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and legal personal service was had upon the defendant at Port Hueneme, in the State of California, on the 22nd day of November, 1948; that the defendant had duly filed in the above entitled court and cause an acceptance of service of the summons, together with a copy of the complaint thereto attached, in the above entitled action, by him personally; that the defendant is now in the Navy of the United States; that he had duly filed in said court and cause a waiver of all of his rights under and by virtue of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, and that the time for appearing or pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff had expired, on motion of S. T. Lowe, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant was by the Court ordered entered.

Thereupon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested and it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in her complaint.

That the bonds of matrimony that now exist between the plaintiff, Bernyce Fairchild, and the defendant, Loyal Fairchild, be and the same are hereby dissolved, discharged, released and held for naught, and the parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

That the plaintiff, Bernyce Fairchild, is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor children, issue of said marriage, and it is to the advantage and best interests of said children that she be awarded their sole care, custody and control. That she is hereby given and granted the sole care, custody and control of the minor children, issue of the said marriage, to-wit:

Daniel B. Fairchild, a son, born October 20, 1946; and Thomas N. Fairchild, a son, born November 21, 1947.

That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support, maintenance and education of the minor children, issue of said marriage, the sum of $50.00 per month; the first payment of $50.00 to be made on the 20th day of December, 1948, and a monthly payment of $50.00 to be made on the first day of January, 1949, and a monthly payment of $50.00 to be made on the first day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the oldest minor child shall attain his majority. Upon the oldest minor child attaining his majority, the monthly payments shall be reduced to $25.00 per month and on the first day of the month succeeding the day on which the oldest child attains his majority the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, for the support and maintenance of the youngest child, the sum of $25.00, and shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $25.00 per month until the youngest child shall attain his majority.

That the plaintiff be and she is hereby given and granted all of the community property that is now owned by the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit; one electric washing machine.

STANLEY D. VALLETTE,
Defendant.

- - - - - - -

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Court on the 18th day of December, 1948, on the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by S. T. Lowe, one of her attorneys, and the defendant having failed to appear, either in person or by an attorney, and it appearing to the Court that due and legal personal service of the summons, together with a copy of the complaint thereto attached, was had upon the defendant in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 12th day of October, 1948; that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff has expired and that no appearance has been made or entered by the defendant and it further appearing to the Court that the defendant is not now engaged in the military service of the United States, on motion of S. T. Lowe, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant was by the Court ordered entered.

Thereupon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested and it appearing to the Court that all of the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff were true and had been supported by the evidence, and it further appearing to the Court that the defendant, since the institution of this action, has been annoying, molesting and interfering with the plaintiff, it was by the Court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in her complaint and that the temporary injunction issued at the time of the institution of this action be made permanent and perpetual.

That the bonds of matrimony that now exist between the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, and the defendant, Stanley D. Vallette, be and the same are hereby dissolved, discharged and released, and the parties are hereby restored to the status of single persons.

2.

That the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child, issue of the said marriage, and that it is to the advantage and best interests of the said child that she be awarded its sole care, custody and control. That the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, is hereby given the sole care, custody and control of the said minor child, to-wit, David Michael Vallette, who was born on the 18th day of February, 1948, with the right of the defendant to visit the said child once a week, at such time as the plaintiff shall direct.

That the defendant, Stanley D. Vallette, shall pay to the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, for her support and the support and maintenance of the minor child, David Michael Vallette, the sum of $75.00 per month; the first payment to be made on the 20th day of December, 1948, and a payment of $75.00 to be made on the 20th day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, shall remarry or the minor child, David Michael Vallette, shall attain his majority. In the event that the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, shall remarry before the minor child attains his majority, then the payment to be made by the defendant shall be reduced $37.50 and on the 20th day of the first calendar month succeeding such remarriage the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff, for the support and maintenance of the minor child, the sum of $37.50 and shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of $37.50 on the 20th day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the minor child shall attain his majority.

In the event that the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette, does not remarry and the minor child shall attain his majority, then the payment to be made by the defendant to the plaintiff shall be reduced $37.50 and the payment to be made by the defendant to the plaintiff on the 20th day of the first month succeeding the date that the minor child attains his majority shall be $37.50, and a payment of $37.50 shall be made on the 20th day of each and every calendar month thereafter by the defendant to the plaintiff during the natural life of the plaintiff or until she shall remarry.

That the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded all of the community property now owned by the plaintiff and defendant, particularly described as follows, to-wit:

One (1) Daveno, One (1) Chair, One (1) Oil Heater, One (1) Kitchen Chair, One (1) End Table, (Two (2) Chests of Drawers, One (1) Radio, One (1) Electric Iron, One (1) Electric Toaster.

That the defendant shall pay to S. T. Lowe, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the sum of $100.00, which sum is hereby found and adjudged to be reasonable as an attorney's fee to be allowed for the institution and prosecution of this action.

That the temporary injunction issued at the time of the institution of this action be made permanent and perpetual and the defendant, Stanley D. Vallette, is hereby permanently and perpetually enjoined, restrained and estopped from annoying, molesting, attacking or in any manner interfering with the plaintiff, Wilma Vallette.

7.

That the plaintiff have and recover from the defendant $20.00 costs and disbursements of suit.

---

DORIS HOLLINGER,

Plaintiff and Cross-Defendant,

vs.

LLOYD HOLLINGER,

Defendant and Cross-Complainant.

---

The above entitled cause of action came on to be heard in open court during the regular September term of said court on this 22nd day of December, 1948. Answer and cross-complaint having been heretofore filed by the defendant in said cause and the matter being set for trial on this date, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause; and the court after listening to all testimony offered for and on behalf of said plaintiff and plaintiff's witnesses, and after due examination thereof, and the defendant offering no testimony in support of his answer and cross-complaint, and the court after carefully considering all testimony offered in said cause finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of her action is and was an actual and bona fide resident of the County of Cassia, State of Idaho.

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried at Huron, State of South Dakota, on the 12th day of September, 1935, and that both the plaintiff and defendant herein for more than five years next preceding the filing of plaintiff's action have been actual and bona fide residents of Cassia County, Idaho.

That the court finds that there was born the issue of said marriage two minor children, Gary Hollinger, now aged 11 years, and Herbert Hollinger, now aged 7 years.

That the court further finds that the said plaintiff Doris Hollinger and the defendant Lloyd Hollinger have heretofore entered into a contract for the settlement of all community properties acquired by the said plaintiff and defendant during their coverture, and that the said contract makes certain provisions for the care, control and custody of the minor children, subject to the approval of this court.

And the court after being fully advised in the premises, and after due consideration of the contract, and after listening to testimony offered therein, the court fully ratifies and approves said contract in all respects, and in accordance therewith

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the contract offered in evidence in this court and herein admitted and made a part of the records and files thereof, be and is hereby in all respects ratified and approved.

The court finds that the plaintiff having fully proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, and the court after being fully advised in the premises deems it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce therein.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved and a decree of divorce be and is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Doris Hollinger, and against the defendant Lloyd Hollinger.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant Lloyd Hollinger be and is hereby granted the care, control and custody of the minor children, Gary Hollinger and Herbert Hollinger, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see said minor children at all reasonable times, and subject to all rights and provisions as set forth in said contract herein ratified and approved by the court.

Be it further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that all of the community property of the parties hereto, set forth and described in the complaint of the plaintiff and the answer of the defendant, be and the same is hereby distributed to the defendant, Lloyd Hollinger, subject to the indebtedness of the community, and further subject to a lien securing the payment by the defendant to the plaintiff of the sum specified in the contract between the said parties herein and hereby ratified, confirmed and approved, as the sole and separate property of the said Lloyd Hollinger.

Made and entered in open court this 22nd day of December, 1948.

ZOE DICK,

Plaintiff,

vs.

SAM DICK,

Defendant.

This cause came regularly on for hearing in the court room of the above entitled court, in the Court House, at Rupert, in the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, on the 30th day of December, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein, before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of her attorneys. The defendant failed to appear, either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that due and legal personal service of summons was had upon the defendant on the 9th day of December, 1948, by delivering to and leaving with him, personally, within the County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, a copy of the summons, together with a copy of the complaint attached thereto, and it further appearing that the defendant is not now and has not been engaged in the military service of the United States or its allies for six months last past. That the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff has expired and no appearance, answer or demurrer had been made or filed by the defendant, either in person or by an attorney, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff has been entered by the clerk.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and it appearing to the Court therefrom that all of the allegations of the complaint of the plaintiff are true and have been supported by the evidence, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, it was by the court ordered that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed for in her complaint.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, annulled, and held for naught.

That there is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Zoe Dick, as her sole and separate property, an undivided one-half interest in and to the 1937 Pontiac 4-door sedan owned by the parties as their community property.

That the defendant be, and he is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 attorney's fee.

4.

That the defendant be, and he is hereby required and directed to pay to the plaintiff $50.00 per month alimony for her support and maintenance, the first such monthly payment to be made on or before the 1st day of January, 1949, and a like sum to be paid on or before the 1st day of each and every calendar month thereafter, during the life of the plaintiff, or until her remarriage.

JUDGMENT

THIS CAUSE, Coming on regularly for trial this 3rd day of December, A.D. 1948, Frank F. Kibler, Esq., appearing as counsel for the plaintiff, and the defendant not appearing by counsel or otherwise, and it appearing to the Court that summons in this cause has been heretofore duly and regularly served upon the defendant herein by publication, and that the defendant has failed to answer appear, or plead to the plaintiff's complaint herein within the time allowed by law, or at all, and on motion of Frank F. Kibler, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for his failure to so appear, plead or answer plaintiff's complaint herein was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court on December 3, 1948, pursuant to order of the Court.

WHEREUPON, Witnesses were sworn and evidence introduced on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause submitted, from which it appears that all of the allegations of the complaint are sustained by testimony, free from all legal exceptions as to its competence, admissibility and sufficiency, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for;

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Frank F. Kibler, attorney for the plaintiff,

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does hereby order, adjudge and decree, that the plaintiff shall have, and she

DECREE OF DIVORCE

THE ABOVE ENTITLED CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard and tried before the above entitled court in chambers, at the court house at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 10th day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, Anderson and Thomas, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

AND, Upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Frank L. Jones, was personally and duly served with summons herein, attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in said summons and on file in this cause, and the said defendant having acknowledged service and entered his general appearance, and having refused to plead further and authorized entry of default against him for his failure and refusal to plead further, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to the complaint having expired, and no answer, demurrer or other plea having been filed; and the default of the defendant, Frank L. Jones, having been duly entered according to law, and the court, having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff, Nina Harris Jones, and in support of her said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of the said testimony, the court finds upon the cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant, and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff as set forth in said complaint, and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from the said defendant;

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of, and has continuously resided in, the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of the above entitled action;

The court further finds that there are no children born as the issue of said marriage;

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have no community property;

The court further finds that the maiden name of the plaintiff was Nina Harris;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED By this court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff be, and she hereby is, divorced from the said defendant, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the maiden name of the plaintiff, to wit: Nina Harris, be, and the same hereby is, restored to plaintiff.

Leave of the Court having first been granted this matter came on to be heard before the Court at Gooding, Idaho on the 24th day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of Record C. H. Higer of Emmett, Idaho, and based upon the affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the defendant was not in the Military Service of the United States the Court entered her default for failure to answer, plead or demur to said complaint within the time allowed by law for so answering, pleading or demurring.

THEREUPON, the Court heard the sworn testimony of the plaintiff and her corroborating witness and from said testimony the Court finds that the defendant deserted the plaintiff more than one year next preceeding the date of the filing of this action; and the Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of Verla Ott age 8 years, Lawrence Ott, age 6 years, Connie Ott age 4 years and Milton Ott age 10 months, they being the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be and they are hereby dissolved and plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced from one anther; and it is the further judgment of the Court that the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

DECREE.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 18th. day of November, 1948, before the Court without a jury, the plaintiff appearing personally, and by her attorney, T.E. McDonald, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by his attorney. And it appearing from the files in this cause, that the defendant having been served by a personal service of summons to which was attached a copy of the complaint:

And it further appearing that the default of the defendant herein, the plaintiff having submitted evidence and proof in support of her cause, and the Court having heard all the evidence and proof submitted and duly considering the same, finds that all of the allegations are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, And this Court does order, adjudge and decree that the said marriage between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same hereby is declared to be wholly and absolutely dissolved between the plaintiff and the defendant.

That the custody and control of the said minor child, Michael Keith Clark, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff in her sole custody, the defendant, however, to have the right to visit the said minor child, Michael Keith Clark, at reasonable times, and after the said minor child becomes of school age, said visits may be extended by mutual arrangements of plaintiff and defendant, and said minor child, MICHAEL KEITH CLARK, may visit with defendant at such times as the Court may authorize and/or order or direct. DEWAYNE FALLERT, Defendant.

DECREE.

Case No. 4797

This cause coming on to be heard before me, D.H. SUTPHEN, Judge of the District Court in and for Gooding County, State of Idaho, on this 20 TH DAY of NOVEMBER, 1948, a regular court day of the SEPTEMBER term of said court, upon the complaint of plaintiff herein, and the defendant having been duly served with summons in this cause on the thirteenth (13th.) day of November, 1948; and having filed a special appearance in said cause, and waived the time by law to answer, and consents and requests that his default be entered forthwith.

The court therefore in compliance with said waiver, consent, and request enters the default of said defendant; and the court having ordered that the allegations contained in said complaint be taken as confessed, and having heard the oral testimony of witnesses, sworn and examined in open court, and submitted to the court by plaintiff, and being fully advised of the premises, and on consideration thereof, finds that all material facts alleged in plaintiff's complaint are true; that plaintiff at time of filing of complaint was and had been an actual resident in good faith of this State for more than SIX (6) weeks next preceding the filing of said complaint and was at the time of filing the complaint a resident of this State; that the parties in this action had been married, as in the complaint set forth.

The court further finds that said defendant wilfully abandoned, deserted, and neglected plaintiff and her minor child for more than one year next preceding the filing of said complaint, and that said wilfull abandonment, desertion, and neglect was continuous from June Fifth (5th.), 1945, by the defendant, and without fault of plaintiff.

The court further finds that there is no community property.

And the court finds that plaintiff is without fault, and that by reasons of the sets of the defendant and the fault of the defendant, plaintiff is entitled to A DECREE OF DIVORCE as prayed for.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by this court, that the said marriage relation heretofore existing between the said DORA ELIZABETH FALLERT and DEWAYNE FALLERT be, and the same is hereby dissolved, and both parties are released from the name, and both parties are restored to their statue of single persons, and both parties are released from all obligations, for or against the either, growing out of their said marriage, and each is fully released therefrom.

It is further ordered that the care, custody, and education of said minor child, KELLEY DON FALLERT, the issue of said marriage between DORA ELIZABETH FALLERT and DEWAYNE FALLERT, be awarded to the plaintiff exclusively, permanently and absolutely, and the defendant is hereby enjoined from interferring with the said minor child or with plaintiff in her custody of him.

The plaintiff's complaint or prayer fails to ask for judgment for child support or alimony, it is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that plaintiff be denied child support or alimony against the defendant.

This cause came on regularly for hearing on the 27th day of November, 1948, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person or by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required by law to demur to, answer or plead to said complaint has expired, and this her default for so failing to plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married in Boise, Idaho on the 1st day of July, 1946 and the plaintiff has been, for more than six weeks preceeding the commencement of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff much mental and physical suffering, pain, and anguish and is such as to constitute extreme cruelty as defined by the statutes of the State of Idaho.

The court ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

That there is awarded to the defendant the full care, control and custody of the said minor child, Gail Lynn Haverfield, subject to the right of visitation by the plaintiff at reasonable times and under reasonable conditions.

Dated this 27 day of November, 1948.

Defendant.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session at Gooding, Idaho, this 8th day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, David Doane, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appears further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the clerk of the court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

JESSE E. WISE,
Plaintiff,
vs
GERTRUDE M. WISE,
Defendant.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open Court this 9th day of December, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff, Jesse E. Wise, and the answer of the defendant, Gertrude M. Wise; Pasco B. Carter appearing for plaintiff, and Willis E. Sullivan appearing for the defendant. Oral and documentary evidence was introduced, and the cause submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds, concludes, decides and decrees:

1.

That Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by Stipulation in writing filed with the Clerk of this Court.

2.

That the plaintiff now is, and for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action, has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

3.

That said plaintiff and defendant intermarried in the City of Everett, State of Washington, on September 1, 1934, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife.

4.

That the only issue of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant is a daughter, named Marie Wise, age twelve years, who now is in the custody of defendant.

5.

That pursuant to the terms of an agreement in writing between plaintiff and defendant, bearing date the 3rd day of December, 1948, provision is made for the said defendant and for the care and maintenance of their minor daughter during her minority; that the provisions of said agreement relative thereto, are reasonable and fair, and are found and decreed to be for their best interests.

That the said agreement in writing, dated December 3, 1948, between plaintiff and defendant, determines the property rights of the parties, and the terms of said agreement, with reference to their respective property rights, are approved by the Court.

7.

That for many months last past said defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, and has inflicted upon him grievous mental suffering, which conduct has impaired plaintiff's happiness and well being and has caused him great worry and misery. That to continue to maintain marital relations with the defendant would serve no useful purpose and by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce.

WHEREFORE IT IS NOW ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

(a) That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved upon the ground of defendant's extreme cruelty to the plaintiff, and that the parties are, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and that the plaintiff and defendant are restored to the status of single persons.

(b) That the agreement made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant, dated December 3, 1948, be, and the same is, hereby approved, confirmed and ratified; that said agreement is a full, complete and final settlement of all the property and property rights of plaintiff and defendant, community and separate, and said property and property rights of plaintiff and defendant are hereby awarded and decreed in conformity therewith;

(c) That the defendant herein, Gertrude M. Wise, be, and she hereby is, awarded the custody and control of their minor daughter, Marie Wise; that plaintiff shall have the right to visit his said daughter at all reasonable times.

(d) That the plaintiff is hereby ordered and directed to pay to defendant for the support and maintenance of their said minor daughter, Marie Wise, the sum of $25.00 per month, during her minority, said payments to start December 15, 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing before the court at Gooding, Idaho, December 15TH, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorney, Ariel L. Crowley. No person appeared for or on behalf of the defendant.

Appearing to the satisfaction of the court that due and lawful service of process has been had and made for the time and in the manner provided by law upon the defendant, Edward E. Miles; that the said defendant has made no appearance within the time limited by law; that no cause of military service precluding entry of default herein exists; and that the default of the defendant in the premises has been regularly entered heretofore:

Now upon the motion of the plaintiff the court proceeds to reception of testimony on behalf of the plaintiff and being fully advised, express findings of fact and conclusions of law, being waived, the court finds generally for the plaintiff and against the defendant, and finds the plaintiff entitled to a decree of divorce and to restoration of her former name.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged, and decreed, that the plaintiff, Grace Miles and the defendant, Edward E. Miles be and they are absolutely divorced.

~~2. That the plaintiff be and she is restored to her former name of Grace Maughan.~~

| LOREN E. EWING, Defendant. | ) | |

THIS CAUSE, came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Doran H. Sutphen, District Judge, in open Court in Gooding, Gooding County, State of Idaho, on the 18th day of December, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein, George L. Ambrose, Esquire, appearing as counsel for the plaintiff and no appearance having been made by the defendant and no one appearing for him, the Court did then and there proceed to hear and did hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint; and it appearing at that time that the defendant, Loren E. Ewing, had been duly and regularly served with Summons and that the default of the defendant has been duly entered herein; that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to the relief prayed for in her complaint; and it appearing from the testimony so submitted, that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Meridian, Ada County, Idaho, October 11, 1946 and were on the date of the commencement of this action, husband and wife, and that during the entire period of the intermarriage of the plaintiff and defendant; the plaintiff has continuously resided in the County of Ada, State of Idaho; that there is no issue of said marriage; that the plaintiff's name prior to her marriage to the defendant was Elouise Lenaghen and she is entitled to have the same restored to her as her true and lawful name; that the plaintiff and defendant have made, prior to the commencement of this action, by written agreement dated October 12, 1948, proper disposition and settlement between themselves of all their community property rights, and of all rights, claims and demands of every kind and character one against the other, including separate support and maintenance for the plaintiff; that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been proven and are true; and it further appearing that said agreement between the plaintiff and defendant is fair and reasonable and that no further disposition of property rights and claims of the plaintiff and defendant, one against the other, remains to be made; and the Court being fully advised in the premises, on motion of George L. Ambrose, Esquire, attorney for the plaintiff:-

IT IS ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this Court by virtue of the power and authority therein vested, and in pursuance of the Statutes of Idaho in such case made and provided, does order, adjudge and decree as follows, to-wit:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are, hereby wholly dissolved and the parties freed from the obligations thereof.

(2) That the plaintiff be, and she is, hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Loren E. Ewing, and the plaintiff shall receive no award of alimony or separate support and maintenance from the defendant who is hereby relieved of all obligations in this regard.

(3) That the settlement of property rights, including community property, and the settlement of all claims, rights and demands of the parties hereto of whatever kind or character one against the other, as made between the plaintiff and defendant, October 12, 1948, is hereby ratified, approved and confirmed and the same is hereby made a part of this decree.

(4) That the plaintiff's name prior to her marriage to the defendant, to-wit, Elouise Lenaghen, be and the same is, hereby restored to her as her true and lawful name.

THIS CAUSE, COMING on regularly to be heard in Open Court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Davison & Davison, and the defendant appearing not, either in person, by attorney, or otherwise, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, upon the records and files herein, that the defendant was personally served with Summons and Complaint in Ada County, Idaho in the manner prescribed by law, and that she failed to appear and plead to said Complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, the default of the defendant was duly entered and the Court having heard the evidence and proof submitted in support of the plaintiff's Complaint both oral and documentary, and having duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that the allegations of the plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that the defendant has wilfully and without cause deserted and abandonded the plaintiff, and against his consent and wish has lived seperate and apart from plaintiff without sufficient cause or reason for more than two years immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and has been guilty of wilful desertion;

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and each of the parties hereto are freed from all obligations of said marriage.

(2) That the terms of that certain agreement made and entered into by and between the parties hereto, under date of January 28th, 1946, and the terms of that Supplemental Agreement, made and entered into by and between the parties hereto under date of October 28, 1948, be, and the same are, hereby approved and by reference, the terms thereof incorporated as a part of this decree.

(3) That the defendant, Veste R. Polley, shall have the custody of the minor child of said marriage, to-wit: Ronald Dean Polley; that the plaintiff Merion C. Polley, shall have the right to visit the said minor child in the home of the defendant at reasonable times, and at reasonable intervals and also shall have the right to have said minor child for extended visits from time to time in plaintiff's home, provided that such visits, both to defendant's home and the visits by the minor child to plaintiff's home do not interfere with his education or rest.

(4) That the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant for the maintenance and support of the said minor child, the sum of $30.00 per month, to continue until such time as the said minor child reaches the age of majority or is able to support and maintain himself, provided, however, that in view of the fact that under said Original Agreement the defendant, in the past, has refused to accept such monthly payments, it is the order of this Court that such payments will not commence until such time as the defendant, Vesta R. Polley, has served upon the plaintiff, Marion C. Polley written notice of her request for the resumption of such payments and a true copy of such notice, together with proof of service thereof upon the plaintiff, is filed with the Clerk of this Court.

(5) That the defendant shall have, as her sole and separate property, and in no wise as the community property of herself and the plaintiff, the property set forth in said Original Agreement between the parties, as and for the separate property of the defendant; that the plaintiff shall have, as his sole and separate property, and in no wise as the community property of himself and the defendant, all that property described in the said agreement between the parties, as being plaintiff's separate property, including, but not limited to the following described United States Savings Bonds, Series "E":

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 23 day of DECEMBER, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the clerk of the court.

Whereupon evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for several years last past and immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. The court further finds and adjudges that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America, and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and hereby are dissolved and each party is restored to the status of a single person. That the custody of the minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant, to-wit, John William McAfee, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 23 day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process in Elmore County, Idaho, and that through his attorneys, Bissell & Bird, he had demurred to the complaint and had thereafter withdrawn such demurrer and refused to plead further to the complaint and that the default of the defendant for his failure to plead further has been duly entered by the clerk of the court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person. That the property settlement agreement made between the plaintiff and the defendant on the 1st day of October, 1948, as amended by supplemental property agreement dated the 17 day of December, 1948, is hereby approved and confirmed by the court and the property described in said agreement is awarded and decreed to the plaintiff and defendant in accordance with the terms of said agreement as amended. That the home of the plaintiff and the defendant, described as Lots 6, 7 and 8, Block 34, Hammers Addition to Glenns Ferry, County of Elmore, State of Idaho, together with all the household goods, furniture and miscellaneous household furnishings therein is hereby awarded and decreed to the defendant as his sole and separate property. That the automobile of the plaintiff and defendant described as a 1940 Buick Chevrolet Coupe, Serial #13758275, is hereby awarded and decreed to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property. The defendant is hereby directed and required to make the balance of the payments on said automobile and the plaintiff is hereby given a lien upon the land of the defendant's above described as security for the payment of the balance due on said automobile.

KATHYRN SHELTON HATCH RUMMERFIELD,
Plaintiff,

vs.

EARLE WYATT RUMMERFIELD,
Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable D. H. Sutphen, Judge of the above-entitled court, on the 29th day of December, 1948, Jess B. Hawley, Jr., Esquire, of Messrs. Hawley & Hawley, attorneys for Plaintiff, representing the Plaintiff throughout the trial. The Defendant, having been lawfully served with summons and complaint and having filed an answer thereto, was represented by Carl Burke, Esquire, of the firm of Elam and Burke, attorneys for Defendant, throughout the trial. Testimony was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff, but the Defendant did not introduce any testimony, excepting through cross examination. The court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and facts, does hereby find as follows:

I

That the Plaintiff is now and for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint herein and for many years prior thereto was and is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

II

That said Defendant is now now in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever.

III

That the allegations of cruelty made by the Defendant toward the Plaintiff as alleged in said complaint are true.

IV

That prior to the commencement of this action, the Plaintiff and the Defendant, each being represented by their respective attorneys, agreed upon a settlement of property, and thereupon, made and entered into a written agreement, dated the 27th day of December, 1948, and an additional agreement thereto of the same date, under which all of the rights and interests of both the parties in the real and personal property owned by them, as a community or separately, were fully covered and agreed upon. That a true and correct copy of said property settlement and supplemental agreements were introduced in evidence and are on file in this court as part of the record thereof. That said settlement was arrived at without aversion and oppression and is a fair settlement and division of property of the Plaintiff and Defendant.

V

In conformity with the said agreements, and as provided therein, the Defendant is entitled, as his sole and separate property, and a deed has been made to him by the Plaintiff confirming this provision, to the following described real property situate in Ada County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Block 2 of John McMillan's First Subdivision, situate in Ada County, State of Idaho.

The North Half of the South Half of the Northeast Quarterof the Southeast Quarter, Section 12, T. 3 N., R. 1 E., B. M., Ada County, Idaho.

The West 40 feet of Lot 5, Block 77, of the Original Townsite of Boise, Ada County, Idaho.

VI

In further conformity with the said agreements, and as provided therein, the Plaintiff is entitled, as her sole and separate property, and a deed has been made to her by the Defendant confirming this provision, to the following described real property situate in Ada County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Lot numbered three (3), in Block numbered G, of the amended plat of Cruzen Mountain View Addition to Boise, Idaho, according to the plat of said addition on file in the office of the Recorder of said County and State.

In further conformity with the terms of said agreements, the community real estate of the Plaintiff and Defendant was divided, and each has delivered a deed to the other in conformity with the provisions of said agreement. That the Plaintiff is entitled to and is hereby decreed as her sole and separate property and estate, together with the income, profits, and rents thereof, to the following described property situate in Ada County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Commencing at the southwest corner of the Southeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 1, T. 3 N., R. 1 E., B. M.; thence East parallel to the section line, along Highway #30 a distance of 792 feet to a point; thence in a northerly direction, parallel to the township line common to Ranges 1 and 2 East, to the north boundary of said Southeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 1, T. 3 N., R. 1 E., B. M., thence west, parallel to North boundary of said township, to the northwest corner of said Southeast Quarter of Southeast Quarter; thence in a southerly direction to place of beginning.

That the Defendant is entitled to and is hereby decreed as his sole and separate property and estate, together with the income, profits, and rents thereof, the following described property situate in Ada County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> The Southeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 1, Township 3 North, Range 1 East, B. M.,
> excepting therefrom that portion described in the foregoing paragraph of this Decree and specifically decreed as the sole and separate estate of the Plaintiff.

That the said Deeds have been recorded in the office of the Recorder of Ada County, State of Idaho, and specific reference is hereby made to the same.

VII

That the personal property of Plaintiff and Defendant has been divided according to its appraised value, and the Plaintiff is hereby awarded as her sole and separate property and estate all of the personal property described and set forth in the said Supplemental Agreement, and the Defendant is entitled to and is hereby decreed all of the remainder of the personal property of the Plaintiff and Defendant which is listed in and as a part of the said Supplemental Agreement and not apportioned to the Plaintiff.

VIII

That the Plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the complaint by reason of said proof submitted in the trial of this cause.

NOW THEREFORE, the court being fully advised as to the law and facts, does hereby order, adjudge, and decree as follows:

I

That the Plaintiff, Kathyrn Shelton Hatch Rummerfield, is entitled to and is hereby granted a full and absolute decree of divorce from the Defendant, Earle Wyatt Rummerfield, upon the grounds of extreme cruelty, as defined by the statutes of the State of Idaho, and the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby dissolved, and each of them is restored to the status of single persons.

II

That the Plaintiff is entitled to and shall use the name of Kathyrn Shelton Hatch hereafter, and is restored to that name.

III

That the property settlement agreement made by the parties hereto and the written deeds of real property passing between them in conformity with said decree, and the written bills of sale to the personal property also passing between them, are hereby approved as fair and just and in accordance with the provisions of the said settlement agreement, and the supplement thereto, and that the same and each of them are hereby fully ratified, confirmed, and approved and the Plaintiff is decreed to be the owner of the real estate described heretofore in these findings, and in said deeds, as her sole and separate property, together with the income, rents, and profits therefrom, and the Defendant is decreed to be the owner of the real estate described heretofore in these findings, and in said deeds, as his sole and separate property, together with the income, rents, and profits therefrom.

- - - - - -

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 30th day of December, 1948, before the court without a jury, on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. Plaintiff appeared personally and with her attorney, Mary Schmitt. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint had expired, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered herein; whereupon, the court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the court for final determination and decision; and the court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were married at Caldwell, Idaho on or about April 11, 1945; that plaintiff and defendant have one minor child, Linda Ann Lyda; that plaintiff and defendant have no community property, and that plaintiff owns as her sole and separate property the real and personal property hereinafter described and that defendant has no right, title, claim or interest therein; and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of his extreme cruelty, and that plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks prior to the time of the filing of her complaint,

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Edna Patrick Lyda, and the defendant, Roshell J. Lyda, be, and the same hereby are dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed, and this does order, adjudge, and decree that the following described real and personal property is awarded to the plaintiff as her own, sole and separate property, and that the defendant does not have any right, title, claim or interest in or to said real and personal property, or any part, portion, or parcel thereof, said real and personal property being as follows, to-wit:

The East Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 9, Township 5 North, Range 4 West of the Boise Meridian, Canyon County, Idaho.

Together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, including all water and ditch rights.

Also

One 1936 Ford four-door sedan, motor No. 2,744,557, bearing Idaho license No. 2C-6441.

Miscellaneous household furniture.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed and this does order, adjudge and decree that the sole and absolute custody and control of Linda Ann Lyda, the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, be awarded to the plaintiff. Plaintiff is also given permission to use her former name of Edna Patrick.

DECREE OF COURT.

On this 6 day of December, 1948, this cause came on regularly to be heard, at Rigby, Idaho, at the regular term of court, to-wit; the regular December term, the Defendant herein having failed to demur or answere said complaint as duly verified and of record within the time stated in said summons, and the default of the Defendant having been had and placed of record, and the Plaintiff appearing in court in person and by Attorney, and the Defendant failing to appear, either in person, or by Attorney, or at all, and no legal reason existing therefor, the court proceeds to hear said cause, whereupon the Plaintiff was duly sworn and examined in her own behalf in said cause, and thereafter Luella Owens was duly sworn and examined in behalf of the Plaintiff as A Witness in said cause in her behalf, whereupon Plaintiff rests, and the case being submitted to the court for decision, whereupon The court finds; That the plaintiff is and has been a boni fide resident of the County of Jefferson, State of Idaho for more than one year last past before the bringing of this suit and complaint and the commencement of this action; that the Plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Dillon, State of Montana, on the 21st day of January, 1946, and ever since said date have been and now are Husband and Wife;

That during said Marriage and Coverture, there has been no children born to them of said Marriage, and that no property interests are involved in this action, as none either real or personal was acquired by their joint efforts as Man and Wife.

And it appearing to the Court that almost continously from the time of said marriage as aforesaid, the defendant has been guilty of Habitual Intemperance, from the excessive use of Intox-cating liquors to that extant that it has inflicted great mental and physicial anguish upon this Plaintiff, That while under the influence of said Intoxicating Liquirs, he became surly, brutal and menacing in his attitude towards said Plaintiff, that this Plaintiff has been an innocent party and not in any way has she merited the abuse and injury heaped upon her by the drunkenness, and constant intoxication that has been her wont to bear up to the time that association became un-bearable and she has ceased to live with him. That this Plaintiff is of the opinion that there will not be any improvement in the relations existing between them, and that the equities of the case are with the Plaintiff, and that she is entitled to a decree---Wherefore it is hereby Decreed by the Court, that the Bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff, be and they are hereby totally dissolved That the Plaintiff have her costs taxed at $16,80,

This cause having been heard before the undersigned Judge of the above Court in the courtroom at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho, on the date hereof, plaintiff appearing in person and by J. Ward Arney, attorney therefor, and the default of defendant having been duly entered; whereupon competent and corroborative evidence was received, substantiating the allegations of the complaint; and written findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived, under §7-304; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, CONCLUDED AND DECREED THAT:

(1). Plaintiff, during the pendency of this action has been and, for over six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action, was a resident of and domiciled in the State of Idaho.

(2). The defendant is in default herein, after due service, as shown by the records herein.

(3). Plaintiff is hereby granted divorce from defendant on the grounds of extreme mental cruelty.

(4). The care, custody and control of Robert Thomas Mullinix, Jr., son, aged approximately 3 1/2, is hereby vested in plaintiff and the defendant shall contribute the sum of $30.00 per month toward the support, maintenance and/or education of said son, during the minority or dependency of the son, the defendant to have reasonable rights of visitation with the child.

(5). The parties have settled their property rights, being represented, respectively, by the attorney of record and Mr. Harold S. Purdy, counsel for defendant; the agreement being on file herein and is hereby approved, excepting that title and right of possession to one electric bench saw is not settled, defendant claiming it as his separate property, but plaintiff not claiming it as her separate property, relinquishing all of her interest therein to the partnership and this decree not determining title or right of possession to that saw.

ENTERED, at Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho, this 2nd day of December, 1948.

| MILDRED ETTA GILLASPY, Defendant. | ) | |

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant by personal service of the Summons, in accordance with the law and order of this court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the Defendant herein, and the Defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the Defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The court further finds that the Defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. HAMILTON, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, GEORGE GILLASPY, and the defendant, MILDRED ETTA GILLASPY, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of mental cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the three minor children of these parties, to-wit: RICHARD MARSHALL GILLASPY, GERALD EUGENE GILLASPY, and ROBERT LEE GILLASPY is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the privilege on the part of the defendant of visitation with said children at all reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following described property, to-wit:

Lot 8, 9 and 10, all in Block 10 of Northwest Townsite, First Addition to the City of Coeur d' Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho be, and the same hereby is decreed to the plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

DECREE

This cause having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, C. J. Hamilton, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant within the State of Idaho. That the Defendant has regularly filed herein his appearance by Demurrer to the Plaintiff's Complaint and has also filed herein a Stipulation wherein it is stipulated that the Defendant's Demurrer to the Plaintiff's Complaint may be submitted to the Court without argument and, if overruled, that the Defendant declines to further plead and that the Defendant waives notice of time and place of hearing on the Complaint.

The Court finds that the Defendant's Demurrer to the Plaintiff's Complaint has been overruled and that the Defendant declines to further plead in this action.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of C. J. Hamilton, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, JEANETTE McGRADY, and the Defendant, GARMOND HICKS McGRADY, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff is hereby restored to her former name, to-wit: JEANETTE WINTERS.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the following described property is the sole and separate property of the Plaintiff and that the Defendant has no right, title, interest or equity therein, to-wit:

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the Plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the Defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the Defendant and that the Defendant has regularly filed herein his Answer to the Plaintiff's Complaint, together with a "Consent and Waiver" signed by the Defendant whereby the Defendant consents to the hearing of this cause, upon its merits, at any time on or after ten o'clock A.M. on Monday, November 22, 1948, and he expressly waived any further notice of the time or place of the hearing of said cause upon its merits.

The Court further finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein as prayed for in Plaintiff's Complaint and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for Plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, GERTRUDE B. MANSERGH, and the Defendant, WILLIAM A. MANSERGH, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor child of these parties, to-wit: WILLIAM A. MANSERGH JR., is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff with the privilege on the part of the Defendant of visitation with said child at reasonable times.

Done in open Court this 10th day of December, A.D., 1948.

DECREE Sue Lang Jones

THIS MATTER having come on regularly to be heard on this 10th day of December, 1948; before the undersigned District Judge; the plaintiff appearing in person and being represented by her attorney, Wm. S. Hawkins; the defendant not appearing either in person or by counsel; the defendant having admitted and acknowledged service of a true and correct copy of the complaint and summons herein on the 8th day of December, 1948 and his acceptance of service being on file in the above entitled Court; the defendant having filed herein his answer and waiver of notice of time and place of hearing said action on its merits; the plaintiff and her witness having been duly and regularly sworn and examined, testified on behalf of herself in support of the allegations of her complaint and corroborative evidence having been submitted as to the residence of said plaintiff; the Court having heard and considered all of the evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises and having made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law herein, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce upon the grounds of Extreme Cruelty, dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant; now, therefore, on motion of Wm. S. Hawkins, attorney for the plaintiff, it is, by this Court,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, NANCY K. NELSON and the defendant, ENER J. NELSON, be, and the same are, hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside upon the grounds of Extreme Cruelty; and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the minor son of the parties, David Henry; subject to the reasonable visitation on the part of the plaintiff.

DEC 23 1948

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing this 23rd day of December, 1948, the Plaintiff, Betty Middleton, appearing in person and by her attorney, Robert McFadden, and the defendant, Paul Middleton, not appearing either in person or by attorney, and it appearing that the defendant, Paul Middleton, was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in this action, by personal service within the jurisdiction of this Court, on the 2nd day of December, 1948; and it further appearing to the Court that the said defendant did not plead to said complaint, and the time in which he might plead to said complaint has expired, and that the default of said defendant for his failure to plead to said complaint has been heretofore regularly entered herein; and the Court having heard the testimony of the Plaintiff, Betty Middleton, and corroborative testimony on behalf of plaintiff, as to her residence; and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been heretofore made and filed herein; and the Court being fully advised in the premises:

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises, and by reason of the said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the Plaintiff, Betty Middleton, and the Defendant, Paul Middleton, be, and the same are, absolutely dissolved, and the Plaintiff, Betty Middleton, is hereby given and granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, Paul Middleton.

FURTHER, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor child, Mark William Middleton, is awarded to the plaintiff, Betty Middleton, and that the defendant has the right to see and visit said child at reasonable times and places; and FURTHER, IT IS ORDERED, that the defendant, Paul Middleton, pay to the plaintiff for the support and maintainance of said minor child, the sum of $50.00 per month, said payments to commence in the month of January, 1949, and to continue during each and every month thereafter, so long as the Plaintiff, Betty Middleton, remains unmarried.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the defendant, Paul Middleton assume and pay all existing indebtedness of the marital community, including current open accounts, and contracts or accounts incurred with respect to the electrical and wiring business of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, that the maiden name of Plaintiff, to-wit: Betty Hickman, be, and the same hereby is, restored to the Plaintiff.

DECREE

The above entitled action came on regularly for hearing this 21 day of December, 1948, before the undersigned, A. L. Morgan, District Judge, the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorney of record, Laurence E. Huff, and the defendant not being present in Court, either in person or by attorney; and

It appearing to the Court that Service of Process was accepted in writing by the defendant, Pearl E. Perry, on November 30, 1948, and that by such written instrument the said Pearl E. Perry entered her appearance in the above entitled action for all purposes; and

It further appearing that the said defendant has failed, neglected and refused to answer or demur to plaintiff's Complaint on file herein, and that she is not a person in the military service of the United States or United Nations within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of October 17, 1940, and the amendments thereof; and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law, and the plaintiff having introduced evidence on his behalf, and corroborating evidence having been introduced on behalf of plaintiff, which evidence is free and clear of all legal objections thereto, and the matter having been submitted to the Court and the Court being fully advised in the premises makes the following conclusions of law:

1. The Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action.

2. The plaintiff is entitled to a decree of absolute divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant upon the grounds that the parties have lived separate and apart without cohabitation for a period of more than five years last past.

NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of Laurence E. Huff, attorney for plaintiff, that a decree be entered;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter of this action.

2. That the marriage heretofore existing between the plaintiff, John J. Perry, and the defendant, Pearl E. Perry, be and the same is hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff, John J. Perry, is hereby granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Pearl E. Perry, upon the grounds that the parties have lived separate and apart without cohabitation for a period of more than five years last past.

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me, the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Minidoka, at the October term of Court, on this 18th day of November, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and with his witnesses, and the defendant appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the time of appearance of the defendant has expired and the said defendant was not in a military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act and that no bond was required on behalf of said plaintiff; and that the default of the defendant had been duly and regularly entered as provided by law; and that it is a proper matter to be heard.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and against the defendant, free of all legal objections thereto, and the court after listening to the said testimony finds as follows:

1. That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeksnext preceding the filing of this action was and is an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. That the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 9th day of August, 1945, and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

3. That there was born the issue of said marriage one minor child, Delores Quinn, now of the age of two years.

4. That the said plaintiff and defendant did not acquire any community property during their coverture, but that the plaintiff is the owner and holder of the following described personal and real property as his sole, separate and individual property and estate, which said property was acquired by the plaintiff with his separate moneys wholly earned and acquired by him before entering into the bonds of matrimony, which said real property found by this court to have been the separate property of the plaintiff is described as follows:

Lot Ten (10) in Block Seventy-seven (77) of the Original Townsite of Rupert, Idaho, together with all tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto appertaining and belonging thereto.

That plaintiff also owns as his sole, separate and individual property certain household goods, consisting of stove, refrigerator, bedroom suite, and other miscellaneous household goods.

5. That the defendant is a proper person to have the care, control and custody of said minor child, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

6. The court finds that the said plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of his complaint and it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Phillip Quinn, and the defendant, Remola Quinn, be and are hereby dissolved.

2. It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be and is hereby decreed to be the owner of the following described real and personal property as his sole, separate, individual property and estate: Lot Ten (10) in Block Seventy-seven (77) of the Original Townsite of Rupert, Idaho, together with all tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto appertaining and belonging thereto; also, certain household goods, consisting of stove, refrigerator, bedroom suite, and other miscellaneous household goods.

3. That the defendant have the care, control and custody of the minor child, Delores Quinn, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

FERN B. PLATTS and CHAUNCEY WILLIAM PLATTS, Jr.,

Defendants in Intervention.

DECREE

-o-

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable James W. Porter, one of the Judges of the above-entitled Court on the 14th day of December, 1948, on the complaint of the plaintiff, the answer and cross-complaint of the defendant, the answer to cross-complaint of the plaintiff, the complaint and intervention of the intervenors and the answer to complaint in intervention of the plaintiff.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by Sherman J. Bellwood, her attorney, and the defendant and intervenors appeared in person and by S. T. Lowe, one of their attorneys.

And upon witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn, examined and cross-examined, and the plaintiff rested. Witnesses on behalf of the defendant and intervenors were sworn, examined and cross-examined and documentary evidence was introduced, and the defendant rested. The evidence being closed after hearing the arguments of counsel, the cause was submitted to the Court for its deliberation and decision.

The Court, having fully considered the same and having duly made and filed herein his findings of fact and conclusions of law, and having concluded that the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree of this Court for a divorce from the defendant, and for custody, care and control of Steven Platts and Sharon K. Platts, minor children of the plaintiff and defendant; and that the defendant is not entitled to judgment and decree of divorce on his cross-complaint; and that intervenors are not entitled to the care, custody and control of said minor child, Steven Platts on their complaint in intervention,

Now therefore, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed:

I.

That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Fern B. Platts, and the defendant, Chauncey William Platts, Jr., be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and each of said parties be, and the same hereby is, restored to the status of a single person.

II.

That the plaintiff, Fern B. Platts be, and she hereby is, granted the care, custody and control of Steven Platts and Sharon K. Platts, minor children of the plaintiff and Chauncey William Platts, Jr., the defendant, subject, however, to the right on the part of the said defendant to visit said children if he so desires at reasonable times.

III.

That the said defendant, Chauncey William Platts, Jr., shall pay to the plaintiff, Fern B. Platts, for the maintenance and support of said Steven Platts and Sharon K. DECREE

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me, the Honorable Hugh A.Baker, one of the judges of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Minidoka, in open court on this 15th day of ~~November~~ October, 1948, at the regular October session of court. The plaintiff appeared in person and with her witnesses, the defendant appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the defendant is in the military service of the United States of America and has waived his objection to the trial of this cause; and the time of appearance of the defendant having expired and the default of the defendant having been duly and regularly entered as provided by law; and that it is a proper matter to be heard.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and against the defendant, free of all legal objections thereto, and the court after listening to the said testimony finds as follows:

1. That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

2. That the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried at Rupert, Idaho, on or about the 21st day of August, 1948.

3. That no issue was born of said marriage.

4. That the said plaintiff and defendant have not acquired any community property.

5. The court finds that the said plaintiff having proven all of the material allegations of her complaint and it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff Bernice Moncur and the defendant Harold Moncur be and are hereby dissolved and a decree of divorce entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

2. That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Bernice Stapelman.

Made and entered in open court this 15 day of ~~November~~ Dec, 1948.

DECREE

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing in open court on this 03rd day of December at the regular October term of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her witnesses and the defendant appearing not. The examination of the records and files in said cause discloses that the defendant is not in a military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act and that it is not necessary that the plaintiff furnish bond; and it further appearing that the time of the defendant to answer has expired and the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered in said cause.

And the matter coming on regularly to be heard upon plaintiff's complaint, and witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the said plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to said testimony free of all legal objections thereto finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceeding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of Minidoka County, State of Idaho.

The court further finds that no issue was born of said marriage.

The court further finds that there is no community property, and the court finds that prior to the filing of plaintiff's complaint the said plaintiff and defendant had entered into a contract of full and complete settlement of any and all property interests and in lieu of any and all claims of either of the respective parties, and which said agreement of settlement has by this court been fully examined, ratified and approved.

And the court after listening to said testimony offered free of all legal objections thereto finds that it is a proper matter for entry of a decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Russie E. Corless, and the defendant, A. E. Corless, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and a decree of divorce be and is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Russie E. Hartstine.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the property agreement heretofore entered into between the plaintiff and defendant on the 6th day of October, 1948, be and is hereby ratified and approved in all respects and made a part of this decree by reference as though fully herein set forth.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

---oOo---

This cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Rupert, Minidoka County, Idaho, on the 28th day of December, 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, A. H. Nielsen, Esq., and the defendant appearing by and through his attorney, Lawrence H. Duffin, and his guardian ad litem, Lawrence H. Duffin; and it appearing to the Court that an answer duly verified by the defendant is on file in this matter; that evidence on the part of the plaintiff was submitted and the agreement between the plaintiff and defendant was filed in said action and entered as an exhibit, and the defendant not submitting any evidence, and the matter having been submitted for judgment and the Court having considered all of the evidence in this action, from which it appears that all the material allegations of the complaint are true and as such are found to be the facts, and findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived, and the premises being by the Court understood and considered.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Clea Maye Gibbons, and the defendant, John F. Gibbons, be and the same are hereby discharged, dissolved and annulled and the said plaintiff is hereby relieved and discharged from any and all obligations by reason of said marriage, and that the parties hereto are hereby restored to the status of single persons;

That the sole care, custody and control of Preston Dean Gibbons, the minor child of said marriage, is hereby granted and given to the plaintiff, Clea Maye Gibbons; provided, however, that the right of the defendant, John F. Gibbons, to visit the said child at all reasonable times is hereby granted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the agreement between husband and wife entered and marked Exhibit A between the said plaintiff and defendant is a fair, equitable and proper settlement and said agreement is hereby confirmed as to all its conditions.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant, John F. Gibbons, pay to the plaintiff, Clea Maye Gibbons, for the care and support of the said minor child, Preston Dean Gibbons, the sum of Thirty Dollars per month commencing on the 10th day of January, 1949, and the sum of Thirty Dollars per month on the 10th day of each and every calendar month thereafter until the said Preston Dean Gibbons shall have attained the age of sixteen years, and that the plaintiff have execution to carry out the terms of this decree;

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the Chevrolet panel truck shall henceforth be considered the separate property of the said defendant and that the plaintiff shall not have any right, title or interest in and to said truck.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than one year immediately prior to the commencement of this action a bona fide resident of Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho.

That there has been born as issue of said marriage one child, to-wit, Gregory Scoggin, of the age of two years, which child resides with this plaintiff in Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho.

That the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That the defendant's attitude toward the plaintiff is one of indifference; that said defendant has told this plaintiff that he does not want to be tied down by marriage; that the defendant has told this plaintiff that he does not want her with him and ordered her to return to the home of her parents; that plaintiff did so and has been compelled to make her own way for herself and minor son; that plaintiff has attempted reconciliations with the defendant but each time plaintiff has found defendant's attitude unchanged, being one in total disregard of his marital duties, all of which has caused this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering.

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties to this action, but that the defendant shall have the right of visitation at reasonable times and occasions.

The Court concludes:

1. That the plaintiff is entitled to an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

2. That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the sole care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties to this action, but that defendant shall have the right of visitation at reasonable times and occasions.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

Docketed Vol. _____ Page _____

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Lee McCarty on the 6th day of December, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul G. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause in the State of Idaho, on the 5th day of November, 1948, and twenty days having expired since said acceptance; and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereto, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant accepted service of Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on the 5th day of November, 1948.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV and V of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference, with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Bertha Louise Boswell, and the defendant, John Patrick Boswell, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty on the 9th day of December, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney and he having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho on the 16th day of November, 1948; and twenty days having expired since said service; and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all, and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereto, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, at Riggins in Idaho County, Idaho, on the 16th day of November, 1948.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV, V and VI of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Marian L. Summerville, and the defendant, James P. Summerville, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the property settlement agreement entered into between the parties and submitted to the Court, is fair and equitable, and the same is hereby approved by the Court.

DATED at Lewiston, Idaho, this 9th day of December, 1948.

District Judge

I, PHILIP WEISGERBER, Clerk of the [illegible] Court do hereby certify the foregoing to be a full, true and correct copy of the original Decree of Divorce in the above entitled cause as the same now appears on file and of record in my office.

SEPARATION AND PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WITNESSETH:

THAT WHEREAS, the parties hereto are husband and wife and differences have arisen between them, which have made it impossible for them to continue that relationship

NOW THEREFORE, the parties do agree to and with each other as follows:

That from and after this date neither shall attempt to force or require the other to return to the status and relationship of husband or wife;

That each shall retain, except as herein provided, all property, money, personal effects and rights, which he or she had in possession and assumed at the time of their separation, which is hereby agreed to have occured on or about the 20 day of August, 1945; there having been a division at that time of their assets;

3.

That neither shall hold the other accountable for any matters or obligations prior to this date and each shall save the other from any claim or obligation arising from or incured by either of them from the time of their separation to this date and henceforth;

As a full, complete and final settlement of property rights between them, the party of the second part has on this day paid to the party of the first part the sum of $300.00, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the party of the first part;

Each of the parties promises and agrees with the other that each of them may from this time live in such place and under such circumstances and conditions as she or he may see fit to do without interference from the other, and that any and all property personal or real, acquired by either of them since the date of their separation shall be and remain the separate property of the one so acquiring the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have set their hands and seals in duplicate this 26 day of October , 1948.

DECREE

The above entitled cause came on duly and regularly for trial in open Court, without a jury, on the 9th day of December, 1948, before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court. The Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, V. R. Clements, and no person or persons appeared for or on behalf of the Defendant, Robert Wilson Hobson. It appeared to the Court that the Defendant, Robert Wilson Hobson, was duly, regularly and personally served with process of Summons and Complaint, in the manner provided by law, pursuant to order of the above entitled Court, and that the said Defendant has failed to appear, demur, answer or otherwise plead within the time provided by law, and it appearing to the Court, upon reading and filing the Affidavit of Betty Darleen Hobson, the Plaintiff in the above entitled action, which said Affidavit is filed herein pursuant to the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Acts from which it is found, that the Defendant, Robert Wilson Hobson, is not now in the military service of the United States of America, in accordance with the terms of said Acts, and the Defendant having been in default, and his default having been duly and regularly entered and filed herein and this cause having been duly and regularly set for trial, and evidence, oral and documentary submitted, and the cause having been fully submitted to the Court, and the Court having duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and finding that the Defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the Plaintiff, and that the allegations of the complaint, and each and all of them are true and supported by the evidence,

NOW, THEREFORE, based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage of the plaintiff, Betty Darleen Hobson, and the defendant, Robert Wilson Hobson, be and the same is hereby forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded and granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant, and that the plaintiff and defendant be, and each of them are, hereby restored to the status of single and unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties, to-wit:

Michael Wilson Hobson, born January 25, 1942
Holly Rae Hobson, born January 30, 1944

That the plaintiff, Betty Darleen Hobson, be and she is hereby awarded the absolute care, custody and control of the above named minor children of the parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that, until further order of this Court, the defendant, Robert Wilson Hobson, shall pay to the plaintiff, Betty Darleen Hobson, the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per month as support, maintenance and education of the minor children of the parties hereinabove named; said payments to be made on or before the tenth day of the month following the date, that a certified copy of this Decree shall have been personally served upon the defendant and monthly thereafter until said children, and each of them, shall reach their majority or until further order of this Court.

Dated and signed this 9th day of December, 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for trial before the Honorable Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, upon the complaint filed by the plaintiff and the answer filed by the defendant, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney of record, and the defendant appearing by and through his attorney of record, and the Court having heard the evidence, both oral and documentary, and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Yakima, Washington, on October 3, 1942, and are now and ever since have been husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and was for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of the complaint in this action a bona fide resident of Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho.

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

That the plaintiff and the defendant have settled their property rights as between themselves and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action.

That the defendant, in total disregard of his marital obligations toward this plaintiff, has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following:

RAY E. DURHAM
LEWISTON, IDAHO

That for more than a year prior to February 1, 1948, while the plaintiff and the defendant were residing together as husband and wife, the said defendant has and did, without just cause or provocation, use vile and obscene language toward this plaintiff, and has on numerous occasions during said period called this plaintiff vile and obscene names; that the said defendant did, during said period of time, without just cause or provocation, use physical violence against the body of this plaintiff, all of which has caused this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering.

From the foregoing Findings of Fact the Court concludes that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, and was for more than six weeks immediately preceding the filing of this complaint; that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial before the Court at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 21st day of December, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Owen L. Knowlton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and he having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause on the 14th day of August, 1948, in Nez Perce County, Idaho, and twenty (20) days having expired since said service, and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law or at all, and he being in default, and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, the Court proceeded to hear the case. Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted, and the Court being advised in the premises, enters the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

NOW, THEREFORE, by reason of the law and the premises, and by reason of the testimony of the witnesses examined by the Court in this action, be it and it hereby is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, PANSY LEE SMITH, and the defendant, ERNEST EDWARD SMITH, be and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and annulled and the plaintiff is granted and given a decree of annulment from the defendant upon the grounds that plaintiff was under the age of legal consent and said marriage was contracted without the consent of plaintiff's parents.

That plaintiff shall be allowed to resume the name of Pansy Lee Reynolds, which was the name of said plaintiff prior to her marriage with said defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court before the Honorable Leo McCarty at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 22nd day of December, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by his attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney, and she having been regularly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause by publication pursuant to Affidavit and Order for service in a foreign jurisdiction or by publication; and said Summons having been published on the 3rd day of November, 1948, and on each succeeding Wednesday thereafter to and until the 1st day of December, 1948; and twenty days having expired since said service; and she having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and she being in ddfault and her default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereof, the Court proceeded to hear the case.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and

That the defendant was duly and regularly served by publication in the Lewiston Morning Tribune, by publication of said Summons on November 3, November 10, November 17, November 24, and December 1, 1948, and by mailing of a copy of Summons and Complaint to her last known post office address, being that of 1304 South 11th Street, Fort Smith, Arkansas, within ten days of the first publication of said Summons, as shown herein by Affidavit of Mailing filed on behalf of the plaintiff.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III and IV of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

That the Court finds that the plaintiff acquired certain property prior to the time of said marriage, being an equity in a 1936 Chrysler four-door Sedan, Motor No. C8-3781, Serial No. 6712931, which is hereby set over to said plaintiff as his sole and separate property.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Herman J. Mueller, and the defendant, Juanita J. Mueller, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the automobile described herein is awarded to the plaintiff to hold the same as his sole and separate property.

DATED at Lewiston, Idaho, this 22nd day of December, 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled cause came on regularly for trial in open court at Lewiston, Idaho, before the Honorable Leo McCarty on the 22nd day of December, 1948, at Ten o'clock A.M. The plaintiff appeared in person and was represented by her attorney, Paul C. Keeton. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney and he having been regularly and duly served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho on the 6th day of September, 1948, and twenty days having expired since said service; and he having failed to appear, demur or answer within the time allowed by law, or at all; and he being in default and his default having been entered and a Non-Military Affidavit having been filed by the plaintiff as required by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and all laws amendatory thereto, the Court proceeded to hear the cause.

Witnesses were sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and testimony and corroborating testimony was admitted; and the Court being advised in the premises, makes the following Orders, Judgments and Decrees:

That the defendant was served with Summons and Complaint in this cause within the State of Idaho, at Lewiston, Idaho, in Nez Perce County, on the 6th day of September, 1948.

That the allegations contained in Paragraphs I, II, III, IV and V of the plaintiff's Complaint are true as alleged, and are incorporated in this Decree as Findings of Fact by reference with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

The Court concludes from the Findings of Fact that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE PREMISES, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the Court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter of this action.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Marie E. Downs, and the defendant, Robert F. Downs, be, and the same hereby are wholly and forever dissolved and the parties are released from each other and from all matrimonial obligations and they are restored to the status of single, unmarried persons; and the plaintiff is granted and given an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

That the plaintiff be, and she hereby is restored her former name, that of Marie E. Riggins.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the following described real property and the personal property located thereon, situate in Nez Perce County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

> Lots Five (5), Six (6) and Seven (7), Block Four (4), Lewiston Vineyards Tract No. 1, Lewiston Orchards, according to the recorded plat thereof, EXCEPTING THEREFROM the following described parcel:
> The East 76 feet of Lot Five (5) and the East 76 feet of Lot Seven (7), Block Four (4), Lewiston Vineyards Tract No.

No. 1, Lewiston Orchards, according to the recorded plat thereof.

is the separate property of the plaintiff and the same is hereby set over unto the plaintiff to hold the same as her sole and separate property.

DATED at Lewiston, Idaho, this 22nd day of December, 1948.

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing in Open Court before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, on this 27th day of December, 1948, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through one of his attorneys of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint on the 29th day of November, 1948, by the Sheriff of Lewis County, Idaho, and having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the plaintiff having filed an affidavit showing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of the defendant having been made and entered by the Clerk of this Court, and the plaintiff having submitted proof in support of the allegations contained in his complaint, and the Court being fully advised, both as to the law and the facts, FINDS:

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action by the Sheriff of Lewis County, Idaho, on November 29, 1948, as appears from the return on summons on file herein; that the defendant is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended.

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Asotin, Washington, on June 18, 1948, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than a year last past an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

That the parties to this action have acquired no community property during the existence of said marriage and no property rights need be adjudicated herein.

That the defendant has during the existence of this marriage been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That the defendant has, without just cause or provocation, nagged and criticised this plaintiff; that the defendant has on several occasions in public places called this plaintiff abusive, vile and obscene names, all without cause or provocation; that the defendant has, without just cause or provocation, fought with the plaintiff in a public place and attempted to claw and scratch the plaintiff's eyes and did claw and scratch the plaintiff's nose; that the defendant told the plaintiff that the only reason that she married him was for a meal ticket; that the defendant's actions have been calculated to and did cause this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering.

The Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Hon. Leo McCarty, Judge of the above entitled Court, in Open Court, on this 27th day of December, 1948, plaintiff appearing in person and by and through one of her attorneys of record, and the defendant having accepted service of summons and complaint in this action at Lewiston, Idaho, on the 2nd day of December, 1948, in which Acceptance of Service the said defendant certified that he was not in the military service of the United States and not entitled to the benefits under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and said defendant having failed to appear, answer or demur to plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and the default of said defendant having been duly and regularly entered, and the plaintiff having submitted proof in support of the allegations contained in her complaint, and the Court being fully advised, both as to the law and the facts, FINDS:

That the plaintiff and the defendant intermarried at Chehalis, Washington on July 13, 1946, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than one year last past an actual bona fide resident of Nez Perce County, Idaho.

That no children have been born as issue of said marriage.

That the plaintiff and the defendant have settled their property rights as between themselves and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action.

Entered Vol. 7 Page 6
Docketed Vol. 10 Page

That the said defendant for more than six months last past has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward this plaintiff in the manner following, to-wit:

> That without just cause or provocation the said defendant has constantly quarreled with and nagged at this plaintiff about trivial matters; that said quarreling and nagging has made it impossible for this plaintiff to longer reside with said defendant and has rendered this plaintiff's life burdensome; that said constant nagging and quarreling has caused this plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering.

The Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds of cruelty.

DECREE

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above Court sitting in regular session in Shoshone, Idaho this 4th day of November, 1948, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Howard E. Adkins, and the Defendant appearing not at all. It appeared thereat and the Court finds that the Defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the Default of the Defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears, and the Court finds, that the allegations of the Complaint are sustained by testimony free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility, and sufficiency and that the matters so alleged in said Complaint and proved on behalf of the Plaintiff are true and correct and are sufficient in law to entitle Plaintiff to a Judgment and a Decree of Divorce against the Defendant, and that the Defendant is guilty of extreme Curelty as charged in said Complaint, and that the Plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint herein, has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. The Court further finds and adjudges that the Defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America, that he is not in the military service as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or the Act of Congress approved June 24, 1948, and cited as the Selective Service act of 1948, or in any other Act of Congress, or of the Legislature, duly adopted and approved, and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person;

That the custody of the said Dorothy Ann Green and Danny Lynn Green the minor children of Plaintiff and Defendant be and the same is hereby awarded to the Plaintiff.

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above Court sitting in regular session in Shoshone, Idaho this 4th day of November, 1948, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Howard E. Adkins, and the Defendant appearing not at all. It appeared thereat and the Court finds that the Defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the Default of the Defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff in support of her Complaint from which it appears, and the Court finds, that the allegations of the Complaint are sustained by testimony free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility, and sufficiency and that the matters so alleged in said Complaint and proved on behalf of the Plaintiff are true and correct and are sufficient in law to entitle Plaintiff to a Judgment and a Decree of Divorce against the Defendant, and that the Defendant is guilty of desertion as charged in said Complaint, and that the Plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint herein, has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. The Court further finds and adjudges that the Defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America, that he is not in the military service as defined in Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or the Act of Congress approved June 24, 1948, and cited as the Selective Service act of 1948, or in any other Act of Congress, or of the Legislature, duly adopted and approved, and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

Lots one (1), two (2) and three (3) in Block Seven (7) in Mountain View Addition to the Village of Shoshone Lincoln County, Idaho, together with her personal effects and the furniture and fixtures located in the dwelling on said premises, as her sole and separate property and

1 1934 Chevrolet two door Sedan,
1 7' X 14' trailer house,
1 7' X 10' trailer house; as her sole and separate property;

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 20th day of December, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Emma Lorene Grant, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service of summons upon her in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, according to law, and that she has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army or navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon her, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon her, the said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in his behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff, as set forth in his complaint herein, are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action, was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about October 21st, 1948 and since that time have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel manner over a long period of time of said marriage and has caused him great mental suffering, humiliation and shame, some of such acts being as follows: That the defendant had no interest in her home or in helping in the home; that she neglected the plaintiff and the children and was constantly wanting to spend her evenings someplace other than the home; that the defendant at various times during the marriage seemingly had fallen in love with other men and at various times did try to start affairs with such other men with some success; that during the month of August, 1948, defendant committed indiscretions with a certain other man at a time when the family, with such other man, were camping in the mountains; that the defendant had such other man come to the home and visit her there at times when plaintiff was not at home and she told plaintiff that she was in love with such other man and such other man told plaintiff that at one time the defendant wanted to have her home and leave with him; that there were many other such acts by the defendant toward the plaintiff; that none of such acts were caused by any act of the plaintiff, and were calculated to and did cause plaintiff great mental suffering;

That there were born as the issue of said marriage the following named children, to-wit: Yvonne Jean Grant, born March 11th, 1931; Phyllis Ivene Grant, born August 20, 1932; Inez Darleen Grant, born June 17th, 1934; Sharon Grant, born October 19th, 1939; and Veda Rose Grant, born December 16th, 1942; which children are with the plaintiff and being taken care of by him in his home in Fayette County; that he is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of each of said children;

That the property rights between the plaintiff and defendant have all been voluntarily taken care of by them prior to the commencement of this action;

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between himself and the said defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the said minor children of said marriage should be awarded to the plaintiff as to care, custody, control and education.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between plaintiff, Charles M. Grant, and the defendant, Erma Lorene Grant, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody, control and education of the minor children of the marriage of the parties to this action, to-wit: Yvonne Jean Grant, Phyllis Irene Grant, Inez Darleen Grant, Sharon Grant and Veda Rose Grant, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children at any and all reasonable times and places.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing this 20 day of December, 1948, on the complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant, whose default for not answering has been duly entered in said cause this day.

It appearing to this Court that the said defendant, Charles Hudson, has been duly and regularly served with Summons in the above entitled cause according to law, and that more than twenty (20) days have elapsed since said service.

Witnesses were duly sworn and examined on behalf of the plaintiff and the evidence being closed, the case was submitted to the Court for its decision and after due deliberation the Court finds:

That the plaintiff has filed her affidavit as provided under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, in which plaintiff states that the defendant, Charles Hudson, is not in the Military Service of the United States, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940; that pursuant to said affidavit, an order allowing default was entered by the Court herein ordering that in case of proper service, default judgment be entered against the said defendant, Charles Hudson.

That all of the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint are true and supported by evidence; that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Payette, County of Payette, State of Idaho, on or about the 18th day of August, 1936, and ever since said time have been and now are husband and wife;

That plaintiff is now and has been for more than three (3) years last past preceeding the commencement of this action a resident of the State of Idaho.

That there is one child the issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, to-wit; Beverly Jean Hudson, age 8 years, and the child has been at all times in the care and custody of said plaintiff;

That there is no community property of the plaintiff and the defendant;

That the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect and extreme cruelty as more particularly set forth in plaintiff's complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED and this DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the marriage bonds between the plaintiff, Violet Hudson, and the defendant, Charles Hudson, be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that the parties of each of them, are free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all obligations thereof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the custody of the minor child, to-wit; Beverly Jean Hudson, age 8 years, be awarded to the plaintiff.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 20th day of December, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Ray Riggs, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service of summons upon him, together with a copy of the complaint, in the County of Payette, State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, the said defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff, as set forth in her complaint herein, are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 10th day of November, 1948 and since that time have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel manner over a long period of time of said marriage and has caused her great mental suffering, and also physical suffering, humiliation and shame, some of such acts being as follows: That the defendant has repeatedly beaten plaintiff with his fists and has knocked her down and then kicked her when down; that he continually curses plaintiff and called her vile and indecent names, oftentimes in front of other persons and the children of the parties; that he continually told her that she was so good; that he continually accused plaintiff of infidelity; and other similar acts; that such actions on the part of the defendant were without cause on the part of the plaintiff; that there were born as the issue of said marriage the following named children, to-wit: Raymond Lee Riggs, a son, now of the age of 14 years, and Robert Carl Rigg a son, now of the age of 12 years, and that the care, custody and control of said sons and of each of them should be awarded to the plaintiff; and that the property settlement agreement of said plaintiff and defendant should be approved and confirmed, except as such agreement relates to the custody of said children.

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between herself and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the said minor children and each of them should be awarded to the plaintiff, subject to the right of visitation by the defendant; and that such property settlement between said parties should be approved.

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Mabel Riggs, and the defendant, Ray Riggs be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all the obligations of said marriage and are returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff is hereby awarded the care, custody and control and education of the minor children of the marriage of the parties to this action, said children so hereby awarded being Raymond Lee Riggs and Robert Carl Riggs, minor sons of said plaintiff and defendant; but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the property settlement agreement between said parties heretofore made and entered into be, and the same is hereby, approved, except as such agreement relates to the custody of said children.

W I T N E S S E T H:

That the parties hereto are husband and wife and unfortunate and irreconcilable differences have arisen between them, as a result of which they are now living separate and apart; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the parties that their respective rights in property not heretofore otherwise disposed of be settled; and

WHEREAS, each of the parties are fully advised and informed of the property, estate and prospects of the other, and have been fully advised and informed of the respective rights and liabilities against and to the other and to the estate of the other; and

WHEREAS, there are no minor children, the issue of said marriage between the parties hereto:

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the respective covenants and agreements of the parties hereto, it is hereby mutually agreed as follows:

FIRST: That First Party shall on the first day of July, 1948, pay to Second Party the sum of ONE HUNDRED ($100.00) DOLLARS, and said First Party shall pay to said Second Party the sum of ONE HUNDRED ($100.00) DOLLARS on the first of each and every month thereafter for and during the period of twelve (12) months, and ending on the first day of June, 1949, as and for support and maintenance of said Second Party.

SECOND: That Second Party shall accept said payment, as herein provided, in full and complete settlement and release of all claims and demands of every kind or nature against the husband.

THIRD: Each of the parties hereto waives, releases and surrenders all rights and claims of every nature or description which they now have, or might at any time hereafter have by reason of said marital relation, against each other, this waiver to include any interest in any real, personal or mixed property wheresoever situated which the parties may now own or at any time hereafter hold or acquire either by devise, bequest, inheritance, purchase, gift or otherwise, including any right or claim to inheritance from the estate of either party by virtue of any right of community or any right in lieu thereof and any right or claim arising by virtue of any tenancy by the entireties or otherwise. This waiver and release to include any right of family allowance or support of any kind whatsoever; and any interest held by either party in life insurance policies covering the life of the other, as beneficiary or otherwise, issued by the New York Insurance Company or any other company or organization; said waiver and release to be of the same effect as though said marriage relation had never existed between the parties hereto, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to vary or affect the rights of the parties as set forth in the provisions of this agreement.

FOURTH: Neither of the parties hereto shall at any time hereafter contract any debt or debts, charge or liability whatsoever for which the other party shall or may at any time become personally or otherwise answerable or liable.

FIFTH: The parties of this agreement shall at any time and at all times hereafter make, execute and deliver any and all such further or other instruments, papers, or things as the other of said parties shall require for the purpose of giving full effect to these presents and to the covenants, provisions and agreements hereof.

SIXTH: It is further agreed that this property settlement may be presented in any divorce action between the parties hereto, and if approved by the Court, made a part of any Decree of Divorce, in event such Decree of Divorce is granted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this agreement in duplicate on the day and year first above written.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause coming on regularly for hearing before the above entitled court on the 20th day of December, 1948, upon the plaintiff's complaint, service of the same and of the another summons in this action having been duly and regularly and in the manner provided by law, served upon the defendant, and the defendant failing to appear herein or to plead herein within the time allowed by law, as specified in said another summons, application for entry of default of said defendant for failure to so appear was duly made.

And it appearing to the court that the said defendant, Lawrence Loy, is not in the military service of the United States of America or in the military service with the forces of any country with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of any war in which the United States is engaged, as defined in Sections 101 (1) and 104 of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, as amended, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, order was duly issued directing the clerk of this court to enter the default of said defendant herein for failure to so appear or plead to said complaint within the time allowed by law.

Thereafter said default of said defendant for failure to so appear and plead within the time allowed by law, pursuant to the order of this court, was duly and regularly entered in the above entitled cause and prior to the hearing on this matter, said defendant then being in default, and the plaintiff appearing at said hearing in person and by Dunlap & Dunlap, attorneys, and the defendant not appearing in said cause, the court proceeded to the hearing thereof.

Witnesses were called, duly sworn and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the cause was submitted to the Court for consideration and decision, and the Court, having duly heard and considered the evidence and being duly advised as to the premises, and finding that the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint were true as shown by the evidence herein, that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried at Winnemucca, in the State of Nevada, on or about July 20, 1946, and ever since said time have been, and now are, husband and wife; that the plaintiff now is, and has been for more than six weeks last past, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the plaintiff and defendant have no community property; that Eugene Loy, born January 5, 1948, is the lawful issue of said marriage; that on or about the 10th day of August, 1947, and more than a year preceding the commencement of this action, the said defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, willfully and without cause, deserted and abandoned plaintiff and ever since said time has continued to and still continues to so willfully and without cause desert and abandon said plaintiff and to live separate and apart from her, without any cause or reason therefor and against her will and without her consent; that the said minor child of said parties now is, and has been since his birth, in the custody of plaintiff and that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of said minor child, and that the defendant is not a fit and proper person to be awarded the custody or control of said child.

That the defendant is an able bodied man, capable and able to support the said minor child of the parties hereto and that the sum of $50.00 per month is a reasonable sum for this court to require the defendant to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said child, and the court further finding that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant upon the grounds heretofore stated and set forth in the complaint and entitled to the sole and absolute custody and control of said minor child and to the sum of $50.00 per month to be paid to the plaintiff by the defendant for the support of said minor child.

NOW, THEREFORE, upon motion of Dunlap & Dunlap, attorneys for the plaintiff, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Bertha Jean Loy, and the defendant, Lawrence Loy, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and the parties freed from all the duties and obligations thereof.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the sole and absolute custody and control of Eugene Loy, born January 5, 1948, be, and hereby is, awarded to the plaintiff.

~~It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the defendant contribute to the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the support of said minor child and until the further order of this court.~~

The above entitled matter came duly on for hearing before the undersigned District Judge in his Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho.

The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, F. E. Tydeman.

The defendant appeared not, either in person or by attorney.

From the record the Court finds that a duly verified complaint was filed herein and a summons duly issued and served upon the defendant, and that the said summons with due proof of service was returned to the clerk of the above entitled court. That the defendant failed to answer the allegations of the complaint within the time specified by the law and in the summons, and the clerk has properly entered his default therefor.

The Court proceeded to hear the testimony of the plaintiff and one other witness in support of the allegations of the complaint, and having heard such evidence, the Court finds that the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks prior to the filing of the complaint herein, was an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that the plaintiff and the defendant were married at Pocatello, Idaho, on June 16, 1948, and have been husband and wife since such date; that no children have been born of the said marriage and the parties have no community property.

The Court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and that the allegations of the complaint are true and supported by proper evidence and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the said complaint.

Wherefore, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties hereto be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and the parties hereto be restored to the status of single persons.

That the plaintiff do have and recover from the defendant the sum of $116.40 for attorney's fees and costs herein.

That the maiden name of the plaintiff, to-wit: Jean LaVaun Tolman, be restored to the plaintiff.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 1st day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Alden Hull, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court, from the records and files herein, that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint herein in the County of Shoshone, State of Idaho, and that he had failed to appear, answer or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appeared from the affidavit of the plaintiff that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint, and the Court being then fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises, and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the plaintiff, Dorothy H. Majors, is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, Keith Majors.

2. The plaintiff is hereby awarded the permanent care and custody of Leah Majors, Keith Majors, Jr., Jesse Majors, Laura Majors, Floyd Majors and Jonnel Majors, the minor children of plaintiff and defendant.

3. The defendant is hereby required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 per month for the support and maintenance of said minor children; $100.00 as and for attorneys' fees herein, together with the costs and disbursements of this action hereby taxed in the sum of $22.60.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the plaintiff do have and take judgment against the defendant for the sums named above.

This cause came on regularly to be heard this 1st day of December, 1948, before the Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury upon a complaint of the plaintiff herein taken as confessed by the defendant for failure to appear and answer to the verified complaint of the plaintiff on file herein. Albert J. Graf appeared as attorney for plaintiff and the defendant did not appear. It appeared to the above entitled Court that the defendant was duly served with process and that said service was duly made by publication, and the default of the defendant for not appearing, answering, or in anywise pleading in said cause was duly and regularly entered.

WHEREUPON The Court proceeded to examine the records and files in said action and to hear the evidence submitted on the part of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, and after having heard the same, the testimony was closed.

WHEREUPON The Court, considering the aforesaid testimony together with all papers, records, files and documents herein, and having heretofore made its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and having been duly advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff, Gertrude M. Kennedy, and the

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned Judge of said Court at the Court House in the City of Wallace, Shoshone County, Idaho, on the 1st day of December, 1948, T. P. Wormward appearing on behalf of plaintiff and the defendant appearing not after the overruling of her demurrer and her refusal to plead further in said action or to make and file her answer to plaintiff's complaint herein, but having elected to stand on said demurrer, and her default having been entered as provided by law and the orders of this Court;

WHEREUPON Witnesses were, for the plaintiff, duly sworn and examined and the evidence being closed, cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court having considered the law in the premises and after due deliberation thereon and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law by the Court having been waived by stipulations of respective counsel;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that judgment for plaintiff be entered forthwith and, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE That the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Neil Edward Hawks, and the defendant, Lillian Viola Hawks, are hereby dissolved in all things whatsoever and said plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the defendant and that said parties hereafter assume the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That plaintiff have the care, custody and control of Barry Roy Hawks, age 3½ years, the minor child of said parties, and that the defendant have the care, custody and control of Terrann Clair Hawks, age 10 months, the minor child of said parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That plaintiff pay defendant the sum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month, payable monthly beginning during the month of December, 1948, and continuing monthly thereafter and during the minority of said minor child; and a property settlement having been entered into between the parties hereto and being acceptable to the Court and on file in this action, constitutes the disposition of said property in accordance therewith and is therefore ADJUDGED AND DECREED a part of this judgment as thereof fully set forth herein and for intents and purposes.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT Made and entered into this 12th day of November, 1948, by and between ELOISE OSTERUD, the party of the first part, and CLIFFORD L. OSTERUD, the party of the second part,

WITNESSETH: That,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have been husband and wife since the 22nd day of May, 1937 and now are, and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now separated and the party of the first part has filed a suit for divorce against said second party, and,

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the parties hereto to make a fair and equitable division of all of their community property,

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual promises made by one to the other of the parties to this agreement, it is hereby mutually agreed as follows, to-wit:

1. That the party of the first part shall have as her sole and separate property the residence owned by the parties hereto, situated in Silverton, Shoshone County, Idaho and described as being a portion of Lots 11 and 12 in Block 8 of Amended Markwell's Home Tracts, and that said first party shall also have as her sole and separate property, free of all claims of the second party, all of the household fixtures and furniture therein contained.

2. It is mutually agreed between the parties hereto that the party of the second part shall have as his sole and separate property, free and clear of all claims of the party of the first part, a one-half interest in that certain business situated in Osburn, Shoshone County, Idaho and known as the "Regina Stand" and that he shall also have as his sole and separate property a certain 1947 Chevrolet automobile owned by the parties hereto, subject, however, to a balance in the approximate sum of $300.00 due on the purchase price of said automobile.

3. It is mutually understood and agreed between the parties hereto that said parties owe debts in the approximate sum of $300.00. That it is the intention of the first party to sell the above described real property and said first party agrees that out of the proceeds of the sale thereof she will pay said debts.

4. The party of the first part agrees that she will be solely and only liable for her attorney fees and costs incident to obtaining said decree of divorce.

5. It is mutually understood and agreed between the parties hereto that the first party is better able to give the proper care and maintenance of the minor child of the parties hereto and that said first party shall have the sole care, custody and control of said minor child, subject to the right of visitation by said second party.

6. It is mutually understood and agreed between the parties hereto that either of said parties will, upon demand, execute and acknowledge any and all necessary instruments to vest the title to the community property above described in the other of said parties in accordance with the terms of this agreement.

7. It is understood and agreed, between the parties hereto, that this property settlement agreement may be incorporated in and made a part of any decree of divorce which may be granted the party of the first part.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, at Wallace, Idaho, on the 11th day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, Dale Austin, and there was no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the records and files herein that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process at Willows, State of California, and has failed to enter an appearance herein in any form and that her default was duly and regularly entered herein.

Sworn testimony was introduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of his complaint, and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered herein its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the premises and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court DOES HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, EMERY GUST, and the defendant, GENEVIEVE GUST, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, set aside and held for naught,

DALE AUSTIN

This matter came regularly on to be heard before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, sitting without a jury, on the13th day of December, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, Herman J. Rossi, and there being no appearance by or on behalf of the defendant.

It appeared from the records and files herein that the defendant had been personally served with Summons and Complaint in the County of Flathead, State of Montana, and that he had failed to appear, answer, or plead within the time provided by law, or at all, and that his default had been duly and regularly entered in the premises.

It further appeared to the satisfaction of the Court from the affidavit of the plaintiff filed herein that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States as defined by the Soldier's and Sailor's Civil Relief Act of 1940 and acts amendatory thereof.

Thereupon the Court proceeded to the hearing of the cause. Sworn testimony was offered by and on behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her Complaint and the Court being fully advised in the premises made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the premises, and in accordance with said Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and the Court does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, MILLIE LAFON, and the defendant, CLARK LAFON, be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, set aside and held for naught, and the said MILLIE LAFON hereby is granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, CLARK LAFON.

2. That full custody, care and control of the minor child of the parties, SHARON, age 16, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, MILLIE LAFON.

3. Awarding to the plaintiff one-half of all community property acquired during the period from August 23, 1929, to December 13, 1948.

4. Awarding to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 for attorney fees and the sum of $22.50 for costs and disbursements herein.

5. Awarding to the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for support of their minor child, SHARON, age 16.

6. Awarding to the plaintiff the sum of $100.00 per month as permanent alimony.

Earl Brown, Plaintiff, No. 10566

Juanita Brown, Defendant.

The above entitled action came regularly on to be heard at Wallace, Idaho, before Honorable Albert H. Featherstone, judge of said court, in chambers. The plaintiff appeared and was represented by his counsel, Mr. R. E. Worstell. The defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel.

It appeared to the satisfaction of the court that the summons and a copy of the complaint were served upon the defendant personally at Shoshone County, Idaho, by the sheriff of said county and his return showing said service has been duly and regularly made and filed herein on July 19, 1948. The defendant having failed to appear herein or demur to or answer the complaint within the time allowed by law after said service of the summons, the default of the said defendant was duly and regularly entered and endorsed upon the complaint.

The plaintiff and a witness in his behalf were duly sworn and testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and the court being now fully advised in the premises, and the making and filing of findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by virtue of the default of the defendant, and the court being fully advised ~~of~~ the facts of this action, now makes, renders and causes to be filed his judgment and decree herein, as follows, to wit;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Earl Brown, and the defendant, Juanita Brown, be, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and annulled, and the said parties be, and they hereby are, restored to the state of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the name of the defendant prior to her said marriage to the plaintiff, to wit, Juanita Duran, be, and the same is hereby restored to her, and her name from the date of this decree shall be Jauanita Duran.

Elmer M. Rousseau, Defendant.)

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court on the twelfth day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney of record Roy E. Smith and the defendant appearing in person and by his attorney of record E.M.Rayborn of the firm of Rayborn and Rayborn and each party to said cause announcing ready for trial, witnesses were sworn and testimony offered in behalf of the plaintiff and thereafter witnesses were sworn and testimony offered in behalf of the defendant and at the conclusion of all the evidence in the cause and both parties resting the matter was taken under advisement by the Court for consideration and determination.

Now, on this 17th day of December, 1948 the Court having fully considered all the evidence introduced and being fully advised in the premises finds that the material allegations of plaintiffs complaint are true and that defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty in his treatment of and conduct toward the plaintiff that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony contracted with defendant as alleged; that plaintiff is a proper person to be awarded the care and custody of Craig L.Rousseau, minor son of the parties herein and that the parties are the owners of certain community property in Twin Falls County,Idaho consisting of real property described as Lots Thirteen(13) and Fourteen(14) in Block Six(6) of White & Callahans Golden Rule Addition to the City of Twin Falls together with the furniture and household goods in the dwelling situated on said premises.

It is therefore ORDERED,ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved.

That plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded the care and custody of Craig L. Rousseau, minor son of the parties.

That all the household goods, furnishings and fixtures of the parties be and the same are hereby awarded to the plaintiff absolutely as her separate estate and property.

That the parties be and they are hereby decreed to be the owners, in equal shares, of the community real estate described as Lots Thirteen(13) and Fourteen(14) in Block Six(6) of White & Callahans Golden Rule Addition to the City of Twin Falls, in Twin Falls County, Idaho, provided, that plaintiff during such time as she remains single, shall have, and she is hereby awarded, the sole right of possession of said premises and to occupy the same and the dwelling thereon, personally, without the obligation to pay rental or other consideration for such use and occupancy except taxes for the year 1949 and subsequent years. Defendant is hereby ordered to pay the taxes on said property for the year 1948 and prior years. If either party desires to keep the dwelling house insured against loss by fire the premiums will be paid by them in equal shares.

Plaintiff is hereby awarded, and the defendant is ordered to pay to her, alimony for her support and maintenance, as follows: For the period between December 15, 1948 and April 1, 1949, both dates inclusive, defendant shall pay to plaintiff the sum of Forty Dollars($40.00) semi-monthly(aggregating $80.00 per month) the first payment to be made on December 15, 1948; beginning April 15, 1949 and until the further order of the Court, the defendant shall pay to plaintiff the sum of $32.50 semi-monthly, the first payment to be made on April 15, 1949. Until December 15, 1948 defendant will make the payments as provided for in the order of the Court heretofore made on July 6, 1948.

The defendant is further ordered to pay to plaintiff the sum of One Hundred Twenty-five Dollars($125.00) as and for an attorneys fee to pay her attorney for services rendered herein, which allowance shall include the sum heretofore allowed herein as a temporary attorney fee, to be paid as follows: the sum of $12.50 on the 15th day of December, 1948 and a like sum on the 15th day of each month thereafter until and including March 15, 1949 and thereafter at the at the rate of $15.00 per month on the 15th day of each month hereafter until the total sum of One Hundred Twenty Five Dollars($125.00) shall be fully paid.

This matter came on regularly for hearing before the undersigned District Judge on the 10th day of December, 1948, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. Plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney, J. W. Taylor, Esquire, and defendant failed to appear either in person or by attorney. Defendant having been duly and regularly served with process herein and the time allowed by law for her to appear having expired and no pleading or other appearance having been filed by her or in her behalf, and her default having been duly entered, testimony was submitted by the plaintiff and by witnesses in his behalf, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and that plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from defendant upon the ground of extreme cruelty, as alleged in his complaint.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and each of the said parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the undersigned District Judge at Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, on Friday, the 31st day of December, A.D. 1948, the plaintiff and cross-defendant appearing in person and by his attorneys, Graydon W. Smith, Esquire, and Leonard H. Jacob, Esquire, and the defendant and cross-complainant having been heretofore served with due and legal process herein, and having appeared by way of answer and cross-complaint, and appearing at this time by her attorneys, Messrs. Chapman & Chapman, and Gene R. Arnold, Esquire, a member of the Bar of the Stateof Maryland, residing at Bethesda, Maryland, and the said cross-defendant having appeared by answer to defendant's cross-complaint herein, and the respective parties hereto having, through their respective attorneys, stipulated and agreed that the Court may proceed with the trial of this matter on this date, and waiving all notice thereof, and the matter coming on for trial on the complaint of the plaintiff, the answer and cross-complaint of the defendant, and the answer of the plaintiff to said cross-complaint; whereupon by stipulation and agreement of the respective parties hereto, being duly made in open Court through their respective attorneys, that the depositions of Marjorie L. Golze, the defendant and cross-complainant herein; Mrs. C. C. Fifield, and Louise B. Yeaman, be duly published, the Court thereupon made an Order directing that the depositions of said parties, heretofore filed with the Clerk of this Court be and the same were duly published, and thereupon the plaintiff herein failed to introduce any evidence or call any witnesses in support of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint on file herein, and thereupon the testimony of the defendant and cross-complainant, Marjorie L. Golze, Mrs. C.C. Fifield, and Louise B. Yeaman was duly submitted to the Court by and through their depositions, taken pursuant to the laws of the State of Idaho and the stipulations of the respective parties hereto by and through their respective counsel, on file herein, after said witnesses had been regularly sworn, and that the testimony of said witnesses as contained in said depositions submitted to the Court herein in accordance with the rules of evidence and the laws of the State of Idaho, support the allegations contained in defendant's cross-complaint; and the plaintiff and cross-defendant failing to introduce any evidence or call any witnesses in support of the allegations of his answer to defendant's cross-complaint on file herein, and it satisfactorily appearing to the Court from the evidence in the case that the defendant and cross-complainant and the plaintiff and cross-defendant are wife and husband; that plaintiff and cross-defendant is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and has been such the next six weeks preceding the filing of his complaint herein, and that all of the material averments of the cross-complaint are sustained by testimony, free from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility and sufficiency, and the matters so alleged in said cross-complaint and averred on account of defendant and cross-complainant are sufficient in law to entitle defendant and cross-complainant to a judgment and decree of divorce against the plaintiff and cross-defendant, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, both as to the law and the facts, and the parties hereto having entered into a written stipulation that the making and rendering of findings of fact and conclusions of law may be waived, and the same having been, as a matter of law, waived;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That by virtue of the power and authority in this Court vested, and in pursuance of the statutes in such cases made and provided, the bonds of matrimony existing between the defendant and cross-complainant, Marjorie L. Golze, and the plaintiff and cross-defendant, Alfred R. Golze, be and the same hereby are dissolved absolutely, and that the said defendant and cross-complainant, and the said plaintiff and cross-defendant are, and each of them is hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations and disabilities thereof, and hereby restored to the status of a single or unmarried person.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That a property settlement agreement, made and entered into the 4th day of December, A.D. 1948, by and between the plaintiff and cross-defendant, Alfred R. Golze, as party of the first part, and the defendant and cross-complainant, Marjorie L. Golze, as party of the second part, admitted in evidence herein as Defendant and Cross-complainant's Exhibit "A", and reading as follows, to-wit:

"A G R E E M E N T

THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into in triplicate, this 4th day of December, A.D. 1948, by and between ALFRED R. GOLZE, of Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, hereinafter referred to as the party of the first part, and MARJORIE L. GOLZE, of Bethesda, County of Montgomery, State of Maryland, hereinafter referred to as the party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, The parties hereto have been since the year A.D. 1930 and now are husband and wife; and

WHEREAS, There is one minor child born of said marriage, to-wit, Gretchen Golze, aged seven (7) years; and

WHEREAS, The parties hereto are now living separate and apart and have irreconcilable differences which have arisen and now exist between said parties, and an action for divorce between said parties is now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls, wherein the party of the first part is plaintiff and the party of the second part is defendant, and said party of the first part is praying for a divorce; and

WHEREAS, Irrespective of the final determination of the Court in said divorce proceedings, the parties at this date desire to adjust and settle all rights of property existing between them, and all obligations of the party of the first part to support and maintain the party of the second part and the minor child born of said marriage, in the event a divorce is eventually granted in that certain action for divorce between said parties now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the Stateof Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls; and

WHEREAS, Each party hereto has given the subject matter hereof great thought and attention, and each has been advised by counsel and is fully aware of all the matters and things effected hereby and the provisions hereof are by them deemed to be fair and equitable under all of the facts and circumstances;

NOW, THEREFORE, For and in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth, and in consideration of the facts set out in the above recital, it is hereby covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:

(1) That the parties hereto are living separate and apart from each other, and have been so living separate and apart for a period in excess of one year prior to the date hereof, and that it is specifically understood between the parties hereto that this property settlement agreement shall constitute a property settlement exclusively, and in the event the divorce action between the parties hereto, now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls, be prosecuted to final judgment, this property settlement shall be submitted to the Court in said action as and for a full and complete settlement of the property rights, present and future, of the parties hereto, with a request for confirmation of the same by the Court, and shall be incorporated into and become a part of the decree of divorce in said action in case one is granted by the Court.

(2) That the party of the first part admits and concedes that the party of the second part is a fit and proper person to be awarded the custody of the minor child of the respective parties hereto, in the event the divorce action now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Twin Falls, be prosecuted to final judgment, and, in the event there is a partial award of custody of said minor child during a period of each year to the party of the first part, the party of the second part admits and concedes that the party of the first part is a fit and proper person to be awarded partial custody of said minor child of the respective parties hereto, and the party of the first part, in the event the above mentioned divorce action shall be prosecuted to final judgment, consents to the Court awarding to the party of the second part the custody of said minor child, and the party of the second part consents, in such event, to the Court awarding the custody and control of said minor child during the summer vacation from school for a period not to exceed three months in any calendar year, with the privilege of either of the parties to visit said child at reasonable and convenient times while said child is in the custody of the other party.

(3) That the respective parties hereto are the owners of residential property located at No. 5506 Brite Drive, Bethesda, Montgomery County, Maryland, and that the title to said property at this time stands in the name of both of the respective parties hereto; that it is hereby covenanted and agreed between the respective parties hereto that the party of the first part shall be and is the owner of an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in and to the fee simple title to said residential property, and that the party of the second part shall be and is the owner of an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in and to the fee simple title to said residential property, and that the undivided one half (1/2) interest vested in each of the respective parties hereto in and to said residential property shall be the sole and separate property and estate of such party, together with the rents, issues and profits therefrom, and that each of the respective parties hereby forever waives, releases, renounces and relinquishes to the other all of his or her rights of dower or curtesy, and rights of distributive share, and all of his or her rights under the homestead law of the State of Maryland, in and to said residential property, or to any rights or interests in and to the same, present or future, and any and all rights and interests which under any present or future law he or she now has or may have to the said residential property, and also waives, releases, renounces and relinquishes any and all rights, statutory or otherwise, of election to take against any Last Will and Testament of either of the parties hereto, and that the party of the second part shall have the sole use and occupation of said residential property, together with any rents, issues or profits received therefrom, as long as said residential property is owned by the respective parties hereto as aforesaid; that neither of the parties hereto shall have the right to sell, transfer, convey or encumber his or her undivided one-half (1/2) interest in and to said residential property without the consent of the other, and it is further mutually covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the party of the first part shall, and he hereby agrees to, as long as the respective parties hereto shall own said residential property, pay all taxes, assessments and charges which may be levied and assessed against said residential property, or become a lien against the same, and shall pay all premiums on fire insurance policies covering the improvements on said residential property, and that in connection therewith adequate fire insurance shall at all times be kept in full force and effect thereon by the party of the first part, and the party of the first part hereby agrees to pay all mortgage payments, including principal, interest and all other required payments thereunder upon the real estate mortgage now against said residential property, and to pay all other fixed charges on the same, including all necessary major repairs on said residential property exteeding Ten and no/100 ($10.00) Dollars in amount, payable to the respective parties hereto as their interests are determined hereunder.

(4) That the respective parties hereto are the owners of all personal effects, property, household goods, furniture, fixtures and appliances now situated in the residential property located at #5506 Brite Drive, Bethesda, County of Montgomery, State of Maryland, and are the owners of

This cause came on regularly for hearing on this 21st day of December, 1948, before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, Judge of the above entitled court, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, P. A. Mc Dermott, and the defendant neither appearing in person nor by counsel, and it appearing that the defendant was duly and regularly served with summons and complaint in this action, according to law, and that the defendant failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that the default of said defendant has been duly and regularly entered herein;

Whereupon evidence was offerred and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations of her complaint, from which it appears that the allegations of said complaint are true, and said matters so alleged and proved on behalf of plaintiff are sufficient to entitle her to the relief prayed for in her complaint;

Dated this 21st day of December, 1948.

November, 1948, by and between the defendant, Deane S. Shipley, as party of the first part, and the plaintiff, Marian Shipley, as party of the second part, and reading as follows, to-wit:

"PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

"THIS AGREEMENT, Made and entered into this 10th day of November, A.D. 1948, by and between DEANE S. SHIPLEY, of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, party of the first part, and MARIAN SHIPLEY, of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

"WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now respectively husband and wife, having been lawfully married to each other on the 21st day of June, 1930; and whereas various disputes and differences have arisen between the parties which seem to be irreconcilable and have existed for a long period of time; and whereas the parties have lived separate and apart and have not lived together as man and wife for a considerable period of time prior to the date hereof and believe that it is and will be necessary in the future for them to live separate and apart from each other; and

"WHEREAS the party of the second part has heretofore instituted an action for divorce against the party of the first part in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Jerome, which said action is now pending; and

"WHEREAS the parties hereto desire to fully, finally and completely settle and adjust all rights of property existing between them and all monetary obligations of each to the other, whether past, present or future, in any way arising from, out of, through or because of their marital relations, the same to be in full force and effect irrespective of the continuance of said divorce action or of the final outcome thereof, or any other subsequent actions, if any there may be; and

"WHEREAS, each party has given the subject matter hereof great thought and attention, and each has been advised by their respective counsel, and each is fully aware of all the matters and things effected hereby and the provisions hereof are by them deemed to be fair and equitable under all of the facts and circumstances;

"NOW, THEREFORE, For and in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth and in consideration of the facts set out in the above recital, it is hereby covenanted and agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:

"FIRST: That the parties hereto shall hereafter be authorized and continue to live separate and apart from each other and shall be free from interference, authority and control by the other as fully as if he or she were unmarried, and that each may conduct, carry on or engage in any employment, business, trade, profession or career they may deem advisable, free from any control, restraint, or interference, direct or indirect, by the other party, except as otherwise modified by this agreement; that it is specifically understood between the parties hereto that this property settlement agreement shall constitute a property settlement exclusively, and, in the event the divorce action between the parties hereto, now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Jerome, be prosecuted to final judgment, this property settlement agreement shall be submitted to the Court in said action as a full and complete settlement of the property rights, present and future, of the parties hereto, with a request for confirmation of the same by the Court, and shall be incorporated into and become a part of the decree of divorce in case one is granted by the Court. That neither of the parties shall molest or annoy the other or compel or endeavor to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any legal or other proceedings, pending the final determination of the said action for divorce now pending in the said District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Jerome, in which the party of the second part is plaintiff, and the party of the first part is defendant.

"SECOND: That the party of the first part admits and concedes that the party of the second part is a fit and proper person to be awarded the custody of the minor children of the respective parties hereto, and that in the event the bonds of matrimony between the parties hereto shall be severed, the party of the first part hereby consents that the Court may award the care, custody and control of said minor children, to-wit, Nancy Joan Shipley, aged seventeen (17) years, and Lawrence Maurice Shipley, aged fourteen (14) years, to the party of the second part, reserving unto the party of the first part the privilege to visit said children at reasonable and convenient times, and of said children visiting the party of the first part at reasonable and convenient times.

"THIRD: That the following adjustment and settlement of all rights of property and division thereof existing between the parties hereto be, and it is hereby made, in manner following, to-wit:

"(a) The party of the first part does hereby covenant and agree simultaneously with the execution hereof:

"(1) To make, execute and deliver to the party of the second part a good and sufficient deed or deeds conveying and transferring unto the said party of the second part the fee simple title to those certain premises situated in the City of Twin Falls, County of Twin Falls, State of Idaho, formerly occupied by the parties as their home, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

"Lot Five (5), Block Three (3), East Lawn Subdivision, Twin Falls, Idaho,

"subject to mortgage to Utah Mortgage Loan Company, which the party of the second part hereby assumes and agrees to pay.

"(2) All household furniture, rugs, pictures, drapes, appliances, utensils, beds and bedding, and equipment now in said dwelling house and used therein or about said dwelling.

"(3) All the personal belongings, jewelry and clothing of the party of the second part, together with all the personal belongings and clothing of the minor children of said marriage.

"(4) All Government Bonds of every kind and character held by or in the name of the party of the second part and the children of the parties hereto, either separately or jointly.

"(b) The party of the second part does hereby covenant and agree simultaneously with the execution hereof:

"(1) To make, execute and deliver to the party of the first part a good and sufficient bill of sale, conveying and transferring unto the said party of the second part all her right, title and interest in and to the following described automobile, to-wit:

"1 - 1947 Pontiac Tudor Automobile, Model MA, Motor No. P6MA-1, 573, Idaho Certificate of Title No. 561114, and all her right, title and interest in and to the personal bank account of the party of the first part in the Twin Falls Bank and Trust Company, of Twin Falls, Idaho, and all of the personal belongings and clothing of the party of the first part.

"(c) That all other property which either the party of the first part has as his separate property, or which is or has been the community property of the parties hereto, not hereinabove specifically described, shall be and constitute the sole and separate property of the party of the first part, and the party of the second part does hereby relinquish all right, title and interest that she may have therein.

"FOURTH: That the party of the first part shall pay all debts and obligations of the marriage community up to the date her of, including the income tax, if any, accruing against the party of the second part for her share of the community income, including the taxable year of 1947. That the party of the first part shall not be liable for any debts of any kind or character incurred by the party of the second part from and after the date hereof, and particularly shall not be liable for any income taxes upon any income hereafter earned by the party of the second part.

"FIFTH: The party of the first part shall, and he does hereby agree to make payments to the party of the second part, which shall be primarily for the support of the said minor children, as follows: FORTY DOLLARS ($40.00) per month on the first day of each and every calendar month until their daughter, Nancy Joan Shipley, reaches the age of eighteen (18) years, and an additional sum of FORTY DOLLARS ($40.00) per month on the first day of each and every calendar month until their son, Laurence Maurice Shipley reaches the age of eighteen (18) years.

"SIXTH: The parties severally declare and acknowledge that the aforesaid payments to be made by the party of the first part are a fair, suitable and proper sum to be paid to the wife for her support and maintenance and for the support and maintenance of the children, and are commensurate with the financial means and position of both parties and with the ability of the party of the first part to pay.

"SEVENTH: Except as herein to the contrary provided, the parties shall and do hereby mutually forever release, acquit and discharge each other from any and all actions, suits, debts, claims, demands and obligations whatsoever, both in law and in equity, which either of them ever had, now has, or may hereafter have against the other by reason of any matter, cause or thing up to the date of the execution of this agreement, it being the intention of the parties that henceforth there shall be as between them only such rights and obligations as are specifically provided in this agreement; and that further, the parties hereto do each mutually release each other from all obligations of support and maintenance and that the party of the second part shall not make any demand upon the party of the first part for any properties or monies during his lifetime or from his estate after his decease on account thereof, except as otherwise herein provided, and likewise, the party of the first part shall not make any such demand against any of the property of the party of the second part or against her estate.

"EIGHTH: That each of the parties hereto shall hereafter be entitled to take, receive and keep free and clear of any right, title, interest or claim of any kind or character on the part of the other all the rents, incomes and profits received by them in the future from any of the properties herein provided to be respectively owned and held by them and that neither party hereto shall be liable for any debts of any kind or character incurred by the other, either before or after the date of this agreement, and particularly shall not be liable for any income taxes upon any income hereafter earned or received; it being understood that each of the parties hereto shall be entitled to immediate and exclusive possession of the properties acquired or retained by them under the terms and conditions hereof.

"NINTH: That the party of the first part agrees to pay, simultaneously with the execution hereof, the sum of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS ($200.00), to the party of the second part for the payment of any and all attorney fees incurred by said party of the second part in prosecuting that certain divorce action now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Jerome, entitled "Marian Shipley, plaintiff, vs. Deane S. Shipley, defendant, subject to the confirmation of the Court in said divorce action.

"TENTH: It is further mutually agreed that if and after the execution of this agreement, the bonds of matrimony between the parties hereto shall be severed, and this property settlement agreement is approved and confirmed by the Court in said divorce action, that the division of property herein agreed upon shall be in full settlement of and in lieu of any and all claims and demands of either party hereto for property, alimony, suit money, attorney fees, support money, or monies of any kind or character whatsoever.

"ELEVENTH: It is agreed that all the properties herein agreed to be received by or delivered to either of the parties hereto are in settlement of property rights; that all rights arising hereunder are contract rights, and that the party of the second part will request confirmation of said contract in that certain action for divorce now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Jerome, entitled "Marian Shipley, plaintiff, vs. Deane S. Shipley, defendant", and will prepare a decree of divorce if the same is confirmed by the Court, incorporating therein the settlement herein agreed to.

"TWELFTH: It is further mutually agreed that for and in consideration of the premises and the covenants hereinabove contained and on the part of each of the parties hereto to be faithfully performed and of the delivery and receipt of the properties hereinabove referred to, that all community and separate property rights of the parties hereto are fully and completely settled, adjusted and ended and each party hereto does hereby accept the property hereinabove agreed to be given to him or her as the case may be, in full settlement of his or her rights in and to the community property or the separate property of both of the parties hereto; and each party hereto does hereby release and discharge the other fully and completely as to all claims and demands of whatsoever kind or character in any way arising from, out of or by virtue of the marital relations of the parties hereto or the community property arising from such marriage or of the separate property, if any, of either of the parties hereto; it being the purpose and intent hereof that the division of property provided for herein shall be deemed to be and shall act as a full, complete and final division of all of the property, whether community or separate, belonging to the parties hereto and as a full, complete and final settlement of all claims and demands which the parties may have against each other, whether now accrued or hereafter accruing, except only those arising under this agreement.

"THIRTEENTH: The parties have incorporated in this agreement their entire understanding and no oral statements or promises prior to this agreement shall have any force or effect. The parties hereto declare that each has had individual legal advice by counsel of his or her own selection; that each understands the facts and has been fully informed of all legal rights and liabilities and that after such advice and knowledge, each believes the agreement to be fair, just and reasonable, and that each signs the agreement freely and voluntarily.

"FOURTEENTH: The parties hereto agree simultaneously with the execution hereof, to make, execute and deliver such good and sufficient bills of sale to the furniture, fixtures, equipment, household goods and personal property of every kind and description conveyed one to the other by this agreement, and that the party of the first part reserves ownership of all personal effects, if any, now remaining in the home formerly occupied by the parties hereto, within a reasonable period of time.

"FIFTEENTH: The party of the second part agrees to make, execute and deliver to the party of the first part, good and sufficient bills of sale to all personal property set out in Third (b) (1), (2), (3), and (4) hereof; and the party of the second part further agrees that she will, upon demand, execute any and all documents, bills of sale, assignments, endorsements on insurance policies, requests for change of beneficiary, or any other papers or documents required to give full force and effect to this agreement.

"SIXTEENTH: It is further understood and agreed that, in the event the divorce action now pending in the District Court of the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho in and for the County of Jerome, entitled "Marian Shipley, plaintiff, vs. Deane S. Shipley, defendant", be prosecuted to final judgment, that subject to the approval of the Court, said final decree may award to the respective

THE ABOVE ENTITLED CAUSE Came on regularly to be heard and tried before the above entitled court in chambers in the courthouse at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 3rd day of December, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, Anderson and Thomas, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney;

AND, Upon said hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court from the records, files and proceedings in the above entitled action that the defendant, Virginia Alice Wilson, acknowledged and admitted in writing service of summons herein, attached to a copy of the complaint referred to in the said summons, in the manner and form as required by law, and on file herein, and the said defendant having failed to appear and having failed to answer, demur or otherwise plead to the complaint of the plaintiff herein, and the time for so answering, demurring or otherwise pleading to said complaint having expired, and it appearing to the court from the affidavit filed by the plaintiff that said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the defendant, Virginia Alice Wilson, for her failure to appear, answer, demur or otherwise plead to said complaint

having been duly entered according to law, the court heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff, Wilbert A. Wilson, and in support of his said complaint, and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of the said testimony, the court finds upon the cause of action of the plaintiff the issues in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendant, and finds that the said defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that by reason thereof said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and to be divorced from said defendant;

The court further finds that the said plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of and has continuously resided in the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of the above entitled action;

The court further finds that there have been born as the issue of said marriage three children, to wit: James W. Wilson, born August 5, 1942; Larry Eugene Wilson, born June 12, 1945, and Franklin David Wilson, born February 13, 1947; and that said minor children are in the custody, care and control of the defendant in the State of Washington, and that the said defendant is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of said minor children; and finds that the sum of Twenty-Seven Dollars ($27.00) per month for each of said minor children until each said child reaches the age of majority is a reasonable sum to be paid by said plaintiff to the said defendant for the support and maintenance of said minor children;

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, By this court, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and that the said plaintiff be, and he hereby is, divorced from the said defendant, Virginia Alice Wilson, and each the said plaintiff and the said defendant is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said plaintiff shall pay to the said defendant for the support, maintenance and education of James W. Wilson the sum of Twenty-Seven Dollars ($27.00) per month, until said child shall attain the age of majority.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said plaintiff shall pay to the said defendant for the support, maintenance and education of Larry Eugene Wilson the sum of Twenty-Seven Dollars ($27.00) per month, until said child shall attain the age of majority.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the said plaintiff shall pay to the said defendant for the support, maintenance and education of Franklin David Wilson the sum of Twenty-Seven Dollars ($27.00) per month, until said child shall attain the age of majority.

MOTION AND ORDER

MOTION

COMES NOW the plaintiff, by and through her attorneys of record, Graydon W. Smith and Leonard H. Jacob, and moves the Court for an order correcting a typographical error in the Decree of Divorce rendered by the above-entitled court on January 14, 1949, in the following respect;

That the first paragraph of said decree reads as follows:

"THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER coming on for hearing before Hon. Hugh A. Baker, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 31st day of January, 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Graydon W. Smith and Leonard H. Jacob of Twin Falls, Idaho, and the defendant not appearing in person or by an attorney, and"

and that said paragraph be corrected to read as follows:

"THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER coming on for hearing before Hon. Hugh A. Baker, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Twin Falls, Idaho, on the 31st day of December, 1948; the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorneys, Graydon W. Smith and Leonard H. Jacob of Twin Falls, Idaho, and the defendant not appearing in person or by an attorney, and"

That the records and file of this case and in particular the Minute Entry of the proceedings in this case dated January 14, 1949, show that the hearing before the above-entitled court was upon the 31st day of December, 1948, rather than the 31st day of January, 1948.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Sandpoint, Idaho, before the Honorable E. V. Boughton, one of the Judges of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Bonner, on the 15th day of September, 1948, upon the complaint of plaintiff, taken as confessed by the defendant who had been personally served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint and whose default for not appearing in the action within the time required by law had been duly entered upon the original Complaint.

Plaintiff appeared in person with a witness and one of her attorneys, O. J. Bandelin; the defendant did not appear, nor was he represented by counsel; plaintiff and witness were duly examined relative to said cause, all of which evidence proved the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by failure of the defendant to appear at the trial, and the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Dorothy Lorraine McKinney, and the defendant, Roy McKinney, be and the same are forever dissolved and plaintiff is granted a divorce upon the grounds of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the care, custody and control of Roxy Lee McKinney, born August 17, 1948, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, Dorothy Lorraine McKinney, and that said child is the issue of plaintiff and defendant.

This cause came on regularly to be heard before the Court this 16th day of October, 1948, T. E. Ray, Attorney at law, appearing for Plaintiff, and the Defendant not appearing, either in person or by counsel.

It appears to the Court, and the Court finds, that the summons in said setion and a copy of the complaint, has been duly served upon the defendant, and that the defendant has failed to appear or plead to said complaint, and that his default in that behalf has been duly and regularly entered, and that said defendant is not in any way connected with the military service of the United States of America.

Evidence was offered for and on behalf of the Plaintiff insupport of the allegations of her said complaint, and received by the Court, and from which it appears, and the Court finds, that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true.

And the matter being submitted to the Court for decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises, and all and singular the law and the evidence being by the Court understood and fully considered;

It is therefore by the Court Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed: That the bonds of matrimony existing between the Plaintiff, Ruby A. Jones, and the Defendant, Hyrum J. Jones, be and the same are hereby, wholly dissolved, and each of the said parties are hereby released from all of the obligations thereof, and is each is restored to the status of a single person.

That the Plaintiff be and is hereby, awarded the full custody, and control of Dray Jones, Bob Jones, Margie Jones, Monte Jones, and Billie Jones, the minor children of said marriage, and is awarded as her separate property free from all control of the defendant the following real property situated in Malad City, in Oneida County, State of Idaho, to-wit:

Commencing at a point 22.80 Chains East and 4.91 Chains North of the Section Corner between Sections 21 and 27, Township 14 South, Range 36 East, Boise Meridian, thence running North 15°00' East 9.08 rods, thence East 23 rods, thence South 9 rods, thence West 25 rods, to point of beginning, and the following personal property: the sum of $4,000.00 owing to defendant by Irven R. Jones as the purchase price of real estate, 2 cows, 8 pigs, all Household goods, and the use of a Chevrolet Coach 1936 model automobile the first half of each month, $100.00 attorney fees for her attorney and her costs of suit and the defendant is hereby awarded the automobile above described subject to its use as aforesaid by the plaintiff, and one pig

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above entitled action came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court sitting without a jury on the 7 day of June, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorney, Jack McQuade, and the defendant not appearing either in person or by attorney.

On said hearing it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Service of Summons herein was duly made by personal service within the County of Latah, State of Idaho, as more fully appears from the Affidavit of Service of Summons on file herein, and the said defendant having failed to appear and answer said complaint of the plaintiff, and the time for answering having expired, and no appearance having been made by said defendant and no answer or demurrer having been filed by her, and the Default of said defendant, Loretta J. Swanson, having been duly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced on behalf of plaintiff and in support of his complaint, and the cause having been submitted to the Court for its decision, and the Court having rendered and made and filed its decision in writing herein, consisting of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law --

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Donald A. Swanson, and the defendant, Loretta J. Swanson, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the said parties are free from the marriage relationship.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant be, and she is hereby awarded the care, custody and control the minor child, Allen Roger Swanson subject to the further order of this court and subject to the right of the plaintiff visit said child at all reasonable times and to take the child away from the abode of the defendant for visits on week-ends and holidays.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff be, and he is hereby, awarded as his sold and separate property the 1939 Oldsmobile automobile of the parties and the One Thousand Dollar ($1,000) ordinary Life insurance policy in the Northwestern Life Insurance Company upon the life of the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the plaintiff contribute to the support of the minor child, Allen Roger Swanson at the rate of Twenty Dollars ($20) per month until further order of the court.

IT IS STILL FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That said minor child should be the dependent of plaintiff for income tax purposes and that plaintiff should be entitled to claim said minor child as his dependent for income tax purposes.

This cause having come on regularly to be heard before the court on the 17th day of December, 1948, at the court room of the above entitled court in Twin Falls, Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, with the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel W .L. Dunn, Esq., and the defendant neither appearing in person or by counsel, but having theretofore been duly served with summons as appears from the return of the Sheriff of Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, and the time for answer to plaintiff's complaint as provided by law, having expired and the Clerk's default having been duly entered against the said defendant, the Court proceeded to hear the testimony of witnesses duly sworn and examined in support of plaintiff's complaint, and the matter being finally submitted and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that the said defendant has failed to provide the common necessaries of life to the plaintiff for more than one year prior to the commencement of this action, although the defendant was and is an able bodied man capable of earning sufficient money with which to have provided such necessaries, but for his wrongful refusal so to do; and that there are no children the issue of said marriage and no community property, but the court findsthat the plaintiff is possessed of certain real property as hersole and seperate estate to-wit:

The South half of Lot Twelve (12) Block One hundred fifty (150) of the Twin Falls Townsite in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, and that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are fully sustained, Wherefore, NOW, THEREFORE on motion of W. L. Dunn, counsel for the plaintiff it is Hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be absolutely dissolved and the parties hereto freed from all of the obligations of matrimony; and,

2. That the South half of Lot Twelve (12) Block One hundred/fifty (150) of the Twin Falls Townsite, situate in Twin Falls County, State of Idaho, is the sole and seperate estate of the plaintiff.

This matter came on to be heard by the Court on the 23rd day of November, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, C. H. Higer, and the defendant being in default made no appearance. Thereupon, the Court entered defendant's default for failing to answer, plead or demur'r within the time allowed by law for so answering, pleading, or demurring to said complaint and after plaintiff had filed her Military Service Affidavit to the effect that the defendant was not in the Military Service of the United States of America.

THEREUPON, the Court heard the testimony of the plaintiff and her corroborating witness and from it, the Court finds that the defendant has inflicted upon plaintiff extreme cruelty as alleged in said complaint. The Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care, custody and control of Anthony Driscoll, age eight years and Diane Driscoll, age 6 years, minor children of plaintiff and defendant, both of whom are in the care, custody, and control of the plaintiff herein; and the court further finds that $75.00 per month is a reasonable sum to allow the plaintiff for the support of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant until they reach the age of majority; and it is the further order of the Court that the payments begin on the 1st day of December, 1948, and that a like payment be made on each succeeding month hereafter until the children reach the age of majority; and the property settlement of the parties hereto is hereby approved by the Court, except that the $650.00 which plaintiff agreed to pay to defendant for his share of the community property shall be applied toward such payments until said credit is expended at the rate of $75.00 per month. Then when said credit is expended defendant shall begin said $75.00 monthly payments to plaintiff as agreed.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby absolutely dissolved and plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely divorced from one another; and it is the further order of this Court that plaintiff be awarded the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant; and it is the further order of the Court that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $75.00 per month for the support of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant until they reach the age of majority, said payments to begin on the 1st day of December, 1948.

DATED this 8th day of December, 1948.

Defendant

The above-entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in open Court, at Jerome, Idaho, before the Honorable James W.Porter, a Judge of the above-entitled Court upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein; Wayne A. Barclay appearing as counsel for plaintiff, and no person appearing as counsel for the defendant, and the defendant not being present in Court, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons, that he has failed to appear and plead to the complaint on file herein and he is in default, which has heretofore been duly and regularly entered against him.

Testimony in behalf of plaintiff was presented and proofs taken herein and the testimony being closed, the matter was submitted to the Court for his decision and the Court being fully advised in the premises and it appearing to the Court that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are sustained by testimony free from all legal objections and exceptions as to its competency, admissability and sufficiency and that said matters so alleged and proved are sufficient in law to enable plaintiff to obtain the relief prayed for in her complaint; that plaintiff was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that there are no living children as the issue of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant and that there is no community property to be assigned by the Court in this action; that the maiden name of plaintiff, prior to said marriage was Genevieve McElroy and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed in her said complaint;

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the marriage of the said plaintiff, Genevieve Simonich, and the said defendant, Bert J. Simonich, be dissolved and that the same is hereby dissolved accordingly and that the said parties are and each of them is hereby freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations thereof and that plaintiff be and she is hereby restored her maiden name, to-wit: Genevieve McElroy.
